Delegation Waits on Village Council Seeking Lower Sewerage Charges

Bylaw No. 636 Establishing 3 Polling Sub-Divisions In the Village Was Passed

A delegation from the west end of the Village waited on Council at its regular meeting on Tuesday night regarding the sewer mill rate on their tax bills, Mr. Claude Tucker, Mr. and Mrs. Fred McDonell, Mrs. Wm. Vardy and Mrs. Sid Ellacott. Mr. Tucker was spokesman for the delegation and the sewer charges were discussed from every angle. Reeve Mouck assured the delegation that everything possible would be done to have this rate lowered but a specified payment had to be made each year and all assessed property within the Village shared in raising the required sum.

Reeve G. Mouck presided and all members were present.

G. Hall, of Proctor & Redfern, was present and gave a progress report on the road and bridge construction project under way in the Village.

Reeve Mouck enlightened Council regarding the progress made for the resurfacing of Mill St. and the storm drain on North St. north of the C.N.R. tracks. County Engineer L. Langlois has assured Village officials that the work on Mill St. will be completed this fall with Harnden & King, of Cobourg, having the paving contract.

Foster Wannamaker was present and requested more street lights on the Frankford Road. Reeve Mouck suggested that the Public Utilities valuate the cost of putting in more lights. On motion of Councillors Anderson and Jones, the Street Committee was authorized to investigate this situation.

The customery grant of $125.00 was made to the Stirling Agricultural Society on motion of Councillors Noble and Anderson.

Complaints were fyled re weeds on Baker, Edward and North Streets and the Clerk was instructed to notify D. Montgomery, Weed Inspector.

J. V. Holt addressed Council relative to the necessary sewer connections to his property on the west side of Henry Street. The Clerk was instructed to write the Ontario Water Resources Commission on the matter. Mr. Holt also stated he required some fill and inquired as to procuring same from the street project.

The matter of a change in the location of a sewerage lateral for D. Patterson's property was also discussed. It was moved by Councillors J. Chambers and G. Noble that H. E. Cooke be authorized to investigate a connection on Church St. with power to instal.

Moved by Councillor Anderson, seconded by Councillor Noble that Council concur with the Department of Highways in its proposed plan to move the warning lights on the CNlt tracks on North St.

The Clerk was instructed to check the deed for the area of the Village dump, to ascertain if the present location would permit its extension.

Bylaws

Council went into a committee of the whole on Bylaws and Bylaw No. 634 covering the purchase of land from Percy Craighead, Elaine Footwear and Stirling Dairy was given its several readings and passed.

Bylaw No. 635, to close a portion of Rear Street was given first and second reading and left in abeyance until a later meeting of Council.

Bylaw No. 636, to establish three polling sub-divisions in place of two in the Village was given its several readings and passed, as follows:

Polling Sub-Division No. 1 — All that portion of the Village lying south of Front Street.

Polling Sub-Division No. 2 — All that portion of the Village lying north of Front St. and west of North Street (Highway No. 14)

Polling Sub-Division No. 3 — All that portion of the Village lying north of Front St. and east of North St. (Highway No. 14)

Stirling Midgets Start Play-Offs Against Milford

The Stirling Midget Softball squad begin the O.A.S.A. "Midget" play-offs on Saturday night when they meet Milford in the first of a two-out-of-three game series on the latter's home diamond.

The second game will be played on the Henry Street playground diamond under the lights on Tuesday next, commencing at 8.15 p.m.

The locals have played in a Juvenile League during the season and have treated the fans to a good brand of ball. It is hoped their supporters will be out in force to cheer them on in their quest for the championship of Zone 4.

Buys Property

A real estate deal of interest was completed recently when Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Munro purchased the Hagerman property on the corner of Front St. W. and Allan St. The new owners will take possession as soon as some renovation work is completed.

Elaine Footwear Won Canadian Shoe Style Award

It has been announced by the Leather Industries of America that the local firm, Elaine Footwear Ltd., has won the Leather Industries "Canadian Shoe Style Award" for dress shoes retailing under $10.00.

Shoe manufacturers across Canada have participated in this contest, which was divided into three categories: Shoes retailing up to $10.00; between $10.00 and $17.00; and above $17.00.

The award, in the form of a hand-illuminated scroll, will be presented at the Shoe and Leather Fair o October 1st, 1962 by Wesley J. Beatt, President of the Canadian Tanners' Association.

Attend Air Show

Messrs. Hadley Richardson, Ron Woodbeck and Barry Hewton, with John Strickland, as pilot, flew to Watertown on Sunday for the air show. Mr. Strickland is a grandson of Mr. and Mrs. E. P. Strickland, who formerly operated the West End Grocery here.

Messrs. Stuart McArton and Ken Ray also flew to Watertown for the Show, and thoroughly enjoyed the programme, which featured stunt-flying.

Annual Rotary Fair and Street Dance Proved Most Successful

Large Crowd Gives Splendid Patronage For Various Games—Draws Were Held

The Rotary Fair and Street Dance held on Monday night, July 30th, proved quite successful and President Don Williams and his fellow Rotarians are delighted with the generous patronage accorded them.

The street was made ready in the afternoon and conditions were ideal. The net proceeds amounted to several hundred dollars, which will be used for the Club's Crippled Children's Work and other benevolent activities.

A bingo game did a thriving business, while a shooting gallery, fish pond and refreshment booths were well patronized. Several Rotary Anns assisted the Rotarians in the various booths. Music for dancing, round and square, was provided by Uncle Jimmie Mitts and his orchestra.

Merry-Go-Round

Prize Winners

The holder of the lucky ticket on the boat was Duncan Montgomery, of Stirling.

R. A. Patterson sold tickets on a barbecue which was won by Marvin Tanner, Stirling.

Free draws were also given the younger boys and girls on an overnight bag. Bill West was the lucky winner.

Funeral of Late Wm. Henry Hanna

The funeral service of William Henry Hanna was held from St. Paul's United Church, Stirling, on Monday, August 6th, 1962. The Rev. P. J. Hommersen officiated. Interment was at Stirling Cemetery.

The pallbearers were Messrs. Kenneth Morrow, Jack Sager, Ed Kent, Glenn Bush, Roy Irvin and Harry Heasman.

Mr. Hanna died suddenly at his home, R.R. 4, Stirling, on Friday, August 3rd, in his 79th year. A retired farmer, he was a lifelong resident of the community. He was born in Sidney Township, the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. John Hanna. He was a member of St. Paul's United Church.

He married the late Lena Blanche Donohoe, who died in 1952. Surviving are a daughter, Mrs. Ernest (Alta) Carr, of R.R. 4, Stirling; a son Thomas Hanna, of R.R. 4, Stirling; a sister, Mrs. Minnie Barker, Stirling, and five grandchildren.

Attended Course

Mr. Edgar C. Hay-Ellis returned home on Friday, August 3rd after having successfully completed the first part (five weeks) of the Ontario Secondary School Principal's Course held at the University of Western Ontario, London.

The final part of the course is to be held, we understand, next summer at Queen's University, Kingston.

Guiders' Training Camp At Waupoos

Mrs. Edwin Warren, Captain of 1st Stirling Company Girl Guides, has returned from Waupoos, Ont., where she was attending the Eastern Ont. Guiders' Training Camp for 10 days. About 18 Guiders had a week's training under the direction of Miss M. Potter, Toronto, and Miss Eva Baker, Trenton.

The following week some 90 girls arrived from Cornwall, Morrisburg, Ottawa, Kingston, Belleville, Trenton and Stirling. Girls attending from here are Sueanne Bastedo, Judy Patterson, Peggy Mallory, Janet Murray, Cathy and Susan Parsonson.

Special Events Programme Staged At The Rotary Club Playground

Recently the Henry Street Playground held a Change-About Day on which the girls came dressed as boys and vice versa. Prizes were given for the costumes as follows:

Most Handsome, Beverley Juby; Prettiest, Billy McArton; Funniest, Peter West; Best Dressed, John Rodgers.

After lunch the children, along with their noisemakers, formed a parade and paraded through the neighbourhood.

In the races and contests held after the parade winners were as follows:

25 Yard Dash — 5-6 years, 1st, Karen Lawes; 2nd, Billy Seeley; 7-8 years, 1st, Chuck Seeley; 2nd, Brian Ackers; 9-10 years, 1st, Allan McCrory; 2nd, Cheryl Conley; 11-12 years, 1st, Linda Haggerty; 2nd, Kathy Parsonson

Wheelbarrow Race — 5-7 years, 1st, Susan Wright and Julie Hunter; 2nd, Kelly Stevenson and Shelley Farrell; 8-12 years, 1st, Ken Ray and Ricky Wright; 2nd, Billy Stevenson and Ricky Farrell.

Biggest Foot — 9-12 years, Kathy Parsonson; 5-8 years, Billy McArton

Prettiest Eyes — 9-12 years, Billy Stevenson; 5-8 years, Karen Lawes

Longest Eyelashes — 9-12 years, Wayne Ray; 5-8 years, Marilyn Williams.

Person who kept a Straight Face the longest — 9-12 years, Billy Stevenson; 5-8 years, Susan Wright.

Space Day

Last Friday things were really zooming into space as the children held a Space Day.

In the morning space helmets were made and decorated by the children. Naturally a large spaceship was constructed but the launching had to be postponed due to too much sun. After lunch the spacemen marched alongside their rocket and travelled through the outer neighbourhood.

When everybody at last came down to earth, a Tabloid Meet was held consisting of such events as: Shoe-kick, ball throw, paper plate throw, human over-and-under, running broad jump and a bottlecap-drop race.

Vernon Cook won the prize for the best space helmet.

Penny Carnival Tomorrow Afternoon

All the children and their supervisors would like to remind their parents and friends that the Playground will be having their annual Penny Carnival on Friday, August 10th between 1.00 p.m. and 3.00 p.m. Tickets are on sale for 5c. So everybody come and bring along your friends and your pennies.

Bride-To-Be Honoured

The recreation rooms of St. James Parish were very prettily decorated on Wednesday evening, August 1st, in honour of a bride-to-be, Miss Rita McAvoy. Approximately 32 ladies and young girls of the parish were present for this very happy occasion.

On Rita's arrival at the rooms she was presented with a corsage of red roses and her mother one of yellow roses. Rita was then seated in a very prettily decorated chair.

To start the evening's entertainment several games of bingo were played, called by Marie Donohoe and Pat Meeks. Mrs. J. R. Donohoe presided over the programme. A trio of girls M[illegible] Vallier, Helen and M[illegible]sterson sang, "Tiptoe Through the Tulips," followed by a reading, "Layalty," by Mrs. J. L. Donohoe; piano solo, by Mrs. Joe Forestell; reading, "How To Cook A Husband," by Mrs. John Ryan; solo, by Miss Roseanne McAvoy; reading, "Recipe For A Home," by Sharon Baker; reading, "Baby Shoes," by Mrs. J. Doran.

The address was read by Mrs. Stan Meeks and the gifts were presented to Rita by Jayne Doran and Jean Donohoe. Mrs. J. L. Donohoe made a bonnet of ribbons and bows for Rita as she unwrapped her gifts. Rita received 28 lovely cups and saucers. She very graciously thanked the ladies and invited them to visit her in her new home in Midland.

A lovely lunch was served by the ladies, followed by a sing-song much enjoyed by all.

Has Heart Attack

Friends of Mr. S. A. Hatton will regret to learn that he is a patient in Belleville General Hospital, following a heart attack suffered on Friday morning last. Latest report is that his condition is improving slightly.

Mrs. Wm. Fleming Hostess Wellman's Women's Institute

The July meeting of Wellman's Women's Institute was held on the 18th at 2 p.m. at the home of Mrs. Wm. Fleming with 17 members and 18 visitors and children present.

The President opened the meeting with the Institute Ode, followed by the Lord's Prayer. The President discussed the business of importance. It was decided to give a donation for a Special Prize in Writing for all grades at the Stirling Fall Fair.

Current events were given by Miss Jeanette Dracup. The roll call, "The first holiday I remember," was well responded too. The motto, "Ten Rules of Courtesy for Holiday Guests," was prepared and given by Carol Beckett. The topic, "Recreation," was given by Miss Joan Cotten. She gave a very interesting paper telling of the highlights of recreation at Stirling High School, how they are marked and the different sports.

The programme was arranged by the convenor, Mrs. Jim Rainie. Miss Mary Dracup contributed a vocal solo, "Santa Lucia." Misses Jean and Nancy Tompkins favoured with a duet, with Mrs. Ken Tompkins playing guitar accompaniment. Mrs. Fred and Miss Carol Beckett also gave a duet number with Mrs. Beckett accompanying on the guitar. A reading "Nobody Knows But Mother," was given by Mrs. Doug Clancy. Misses Janice and Valerie Clancy favoured with a vocal duet.

The collection was taken up by Miss Sandra Fleming. The President thanked the hostess and all those on the programme. The meeting closed with the Institute Creed, followed by the singing of the Queen.

A delicious lunch was served by the hostess and her assistants and a social half hour enjoyed.

Bride-To-Be Feted By Friends At Ivanhoe

Last Thursday evening, 35 friends gathered at the home of Mrs. John Kerby, Ivanhoe, to honour Miss Rita McAvoy whose marriage will take place early in August.

On arrival of the bride-to-be, she was presented with a corsage and seated in a prettily decorated chair.

Mrs. Gerald Kerby presided over the following programme: Sing song; piano solo, Mae Pollock; trio of girls, Myrna Vallier, Helen and Marjorie Masterson, "Roses Are Red;" reading, "Three Wishes," Irene Pollock; song by girls' trio, "I Told Every Little Star," and a reading, "Advice to Wives," by Nancy Fargey.

Three contests were conducted by Mrs. Ted Pollock.

An address in the form of a poem was read by Mrs. Ted Pollock and Rita was presented with a fine array of lovely linens. As the bride-to-be opened her gifts, flash pictures were taken, and a cute hat of ribbon bows was fashioned for her by Mrs. David Fargey.

Rita expressed her thanks in a gracious manner, and extended an invitation to visit her in her new home in Midland.

The hostess and co-hostesses Mrs. Gerald Kerby, and Mrs. Ted Pollock, served a delicious lunch. The bride's cake which Rita cut and served was made and decorated by Miss Jayne Gay.

Last year the personal savings of Canadians totalled $319 million less than the amount they paid in personal direct taxes — $1,977 million compared to $1,658 million.

LEGION NOTES

All members of Branch No. 228 are asked to take note of the following: The Zone Drumhead Church Service will be held in Marmora, next Sunday, August 12th, at 1.15 p.m. All branch members are asked to attend this important service. There will be cars at the Legion Hall ready to leave at 12.30 noon next Sunday. Several members have already indicated that they will attend. It is hoped that all members of the Stirling Branch will make a special effort to attend and take part in the service. Anyone requiring additional information should contact Comrade President Gilbert Finkle. Berets and medals will be worn.

Another note of interest to all Legion members. From time to time in the past, the Branch has been asked where a veteran might obtain ribbon for the various medals of World War I and World War II. We have learned that Comrade Eugene Burrell has a stock of some types on hand, and can order ribbon for any medal. For additional details please contact Comrade Burrell.

Much progress has been made in the past two weeks on the renovation of the Legion Hall. The east and west interior walls of the building have received two coats of paint. The lavatory is completely finished. The south wall of the hall will also be completely painted this week. The only painting work left to complete is the vestibule, and the trim on windows and doors.

Work is also well advanced on the north wall of the hall. In this case the wall is being insulated, strapped and will be covered with a very attractive and durable type of plywood. This wall will carry the pictures of all local and district veterans who died in both World Wars. In addition the pictures of the Queen and Prince Phillip will also be hung just above the Branch Charter in the centre of the wall. On the other end of the wall the Branch membership board and the scroll of Branch Presidents will be placed.

The great improvement in the interior of the hall will prove a very pleasant surprise to all members and visitors. Much work has been done during the past two months. With luck and with some additional help from members who have been conspicuous by their absence, the entire job should be finished by the end of August.

The branch has been in receipt of two very beautiful colour photos, suitably framed. These came through the Canadian National Railways courtesy of Comrade Charles Wilson. One picture is of the Parliament Buildings in Ottawa, the other of the Princess Elizabeth Gardens in Vancouver. The branch is most indebted to Comrade Wilson and the C.N.R. for their most generous act. The pictures will be hung in a suitable place in the Legion Hall.

A meeting of the branch executive will be held in the very near future to discuss plans for the fall programme of the local branch. Already scheduled is an impressive initiation night for Tuesday, October 2nd. The first regular meeting of the Stirling Branch will take place on Tuesday, September 4th at 8.15 p.m. It is hoped that a better than average attendance of Legion members will help to launch the fall programme.

Branch officers are giving some thought to holding another steak barbecue and corn roast at the hall near the end of August. A final decision of this will hinge on the progress of renovation now nearing completion.

Another subject which will come up for discussion in the near future is the annual sale of wreaths and poppies. In past years much of this work has been left quite late, and it is hoped that an earlier start can be made on the local poppy campaign this year.

All officers and members of the Branch join in wishing comrade Percy McGee a speedy recovery from his recent illness. We feel sure that as he makes progress in his recovery he would enjoy a visit from some of his comrades.

Members are again reminded of the Zone Drumhead Service in Marmora next Sunday, August 12th. Cars will leave the Legion Hall at 12.30 noon. You are also asked to turn out at the Hall next Tuesday evening. With the work of renovation nearing completion additional help is required. All materials will be supplied. Please try to turn out next Tuesday at 8 p.m.

COOLING-OFF PERIOD

The diner was annoyed because the waiter had brought him a knife and fork, but no spoon.

"This coffee," he said pointedly, "is going to be pretty hot to stir with my fingers."

The waiter reddened and beat a hasty retreat to the kitchen. He returned in a short while with another cup of coffee.

ALBERT ERNEST (ERN) WARD LEARNED TRADE HERE

(Picton Gazette)

A former Warden of Prince Edward County and currently Reeve of the town of Picton, Albert Ernest (Ern) Ward, died suddenly at his home, 27 Centre Street, Picton, Friday night, July 27th. He had spent the day at his cottage on Glenora road and his passing was very unexpected, though he had suffered a heart attack two years ago. He was 70 years of age.

Service at Picton United Church on Tuesday afternoon at two o'clock was conducted by the Rev. Verne Zufelt with interment in Glenwood Cemetery. Monday night, at seven, a memorial service was held at the Gordon Whattam Funeral Home by members of Bay of Quinte Lodge I.O.O.F. 144, of which he was financial secretary.

Before disposing of his business two years ago to Gordon Giroux, Mr. Ward had been in the tailoring and men's wear business in Picton for forty years. He had learned the custom tailoring trade with his uncle, Fred Ward, of Stirling, later gaining added experience at Peterborough, Sault Ste. Marie and Milverton before going to Picton. His first store was located where Shannon Bros. now is, and then next door. He moved to the Johnson block and when this was destroyed by fire, moved back to the Clapp block. In 1929, he built the fine business block on Main Street and established his business there. In all, he was a prominent businessman at Picton for forty years.

Keenly interested in municipal affairs, Mr. Ward served six years on town council, one as Deputy Reeve, and was serving his fourth year as Reeve. He was honoured by being elected as Warden of Prince Edward County in 1959. He served with ability on various committees and was appointed representative to the Eastern Ontario Tuberculosis Association.

Mr. Ward, following the earlier heart attack, resigned his membership in Picton Rotary Club. In earlier years he was a member of the first Kiwanis Club and in both contributed service to others.

A member of the United Church, Mr. Ward was for many years a member of the choir. Possessing a fine tenor voice, he sang for many years in the choir, and was also in demand as a member of a male quartette.

Mr. Ward was a member of Bay of Quinte Lodge, I.O.O.F., serving for some years past as financial secretary. He was also a Past Noble Grand He was also a member of Picton Encampment.

Mr. Ward possessed a cheerful personality, with always a ready smile and kindly word, and he enjoyed the highest esteem of a very wide circle of friends.

Besides his wife, the former Bessie Ashley, he is survived by an only son, Jack C. H. Ward, P. Eng., of Picton, and two grandchildren.

The Canadian Red Cross Enquiry Bureau handled requests from 38 countries last year, and replied to over 7,000 enquiries.

Archdeacon N. R. Stout, Native of Rawdon, To Retire

The Right Reverend K. C. Evans, Bishop of Ontario, announces the retirement of the Venerable N. R. Stout as Rector of Gananoque, effective on September 30th next.

While Rector of Gananoque since 1933, the Archdeacon has in turn been Rural Dean of Leeds, a Canon of St. George's Cathedral, Kingston, and Archdeacon of Frontenac since 1952.

Since his ordination to the Deaconate at St. James Church, Kingston, Archdeacon Stout has served in Kitley Parish (Frankville) 1919-21, in North Hastings (Bancroft) 1922-31, Lansdowne Front 1931-33 and since 1933 at Gananoque.

He has served the Diocese in many areas of activity but his special interest has been the Missions of the Church. He has been a member of the Provincial Synod of Ontario since 1945 and of General Synod of the Anglican Church of Canada since 1946.

Perhaps his special interest has been the establishing and developing of the Diocesan Camp Hyanto at Lynhurst. This work has been of great benefit to the girls and boys of the Diocese.

For more than twenty-five years the International Clericus consisting of the clergy from the northern district of the Episcopal Diocese of Central New York and the clergy of the eastern part of the Diocese of Ontario have met together in alternate years at Gananoque and Watertown. To this fellowship Archdeacon Stout gave initiating and continuing leadership.

JAMES NELSON BAKER

James Nelson Baker, of Bonarlaw, recently a resident of the Hastings County Home, died at the Belleville General Hospital on Saturday, July 29th, 1962, in his 84th year. He had been in poor health for the past three years.

Born in England, he took up residence in Bonarlaw 72 years ago, and served as a rural mail courier for many years. A member of St. Mark's Anglican Church, at Bonarlaw, he was also a life member of Springbrook L.O.L., No. 442.

He married Bertha McComb, who predeceased him in 1958, as did a daughter in 1918. Surviving are two daughters, Mrs. Murney (Gladys) Mason, of Springbrook, and Mrs. Burton (Verna) Woodbeck, Stirling; two sons, J. Leslie, of Campbellford, and Berton A., of Sudbury; seven grandchildren and six great grandchildren.

The funeral took place from the residence of his daughter, Mrs. Murney Mason, Springbrook, on Tuesday afternoon, July 31st to St. Mark's Anglican Church, Bonarlaw, for service conducted by the Rev. R. Fleming.

Interment was made in Mount Nebo Cemetery, Springbrook.

An L.O.L. Memorial Service was held Monday evening, July 30th at the Mason residence.

Mrs. Ernest Irvin Hosts Rylstone W.I.

Mrs. Ernest Irwin entertained the Rylstone Women's Institute at her home on the Town Line on Wednesday afternoon, August 1st. There was an attendance of sixteen ladies and four children.

Mrs. Stanley Kerr, President, opened the meeting with the Institute Ode and Creed, followed by the reading of the minutes of the July meeting by the Secretary-Treasurer, Mrs. Don Stewart. Mrs. Chester Meikle-john thanked the ladies in person for the flower sent to her while in hospital.

Correspondence was read and dealt with. Cash prizes for exhibitors at Campbellford Fair will be awarded by the Institute for: "A Bridal Bouquet" and for the juniors, "A Fruit Pie."

Mrs. Gerald Barnum was convenor for the balance of the programme. A reading, "The Little Newsy Paper From My Old Home Town," was given by Mrs. Don Kerr, followed by a vocal duet, "Precious Saviour Be Thou Near," by Patsy and Sherry Spencer; readings, "I Wish," by Mrs. Tom Wallace; "Country Rain," by Mrs. Wilfred Spencer; "Top Secret," by Mrs. Ellis Jones; and "Music on the Farm," by Mrs. Ernest Irwin."

Current events were given by Mrs. Gerald Barnum. The meeting closed with the Lord's Prayer and dainty refreshments were served by the hostess, her daughter and the refreshment committee.

Get-well cards were signed by all present to be sent to members, Mrs. Minnie Petherick, a patient in the Campbellford Hospital, and Mrs. Percy Reid, in Civic Hospital, Peterborough.

THE BIBLE TODAY

"A truly friendly port" is the label one person put on the Port of Saint John in New Brunswick. Women volunteer workers make a particular point to welcome the boats as they arrive from the seven seas. Teen-age girls assist in caring for the children while the parents just off the boat are clearing their baggage and going through immigration.

Mrs. John B. McKinnon of Saint John, assisted by other Church women of that city is on hand to meet as many boats as possible. She hands out Gospels and other Scriptures, in the languages familiar to the newcomers to Canada. Whenever possible a portion of Scripture is given out written in the mother tongue of the recently landed person, and alongside this is the English version. These diglot Scriptures are very popular with those who land in Canada seeking a new life.

The New Brunswick District of the Canadian Bible Society reports circulating 18,108 copies of Scriptures in 37 languages in 1961. Many of these were in demand at the Port of Saint John.

ONTARIO

Ontario Economic Council Tourist Industry Committee

BRIEFS INVITED

The Ontario Economic Council has appointed a Tourist Industry Committee to study the present and future role of the tourist industry in the province.

The purpose of the Committee is to assess all aspects of tourism in Ontario and to formulate recommendations concerning:

1. The relative effectiveness of current government assistance to and participation in the tourist industry.
2. An evaluation of strengths and weaknesses within the industry itself.

Public hearings will take place in mid-September in various parts of the province. Individuals and organizations interested in submissions to the Committee should submit six (6) copies of their briefs as soon as possible before September 15, 1962 to the Secretary of the Committee.

W. H. Cranston, Chairman.

NOTICE TO THE RESIDENTS OF THE VILLAGE OF STIRLING

TAKE NOTICE that the Corporation of the Village of Stirling proposes to pass a by-law to close a portion of a street as authorized by the Ontario Municipal Act, R.S.O. 1960, Chapter 249, Section 549, more particularly described as follows:

Commencing at the south east corner of Lot 4 on the west side of North Street, facing on Rear Street, westerly a distance of 264 feet more or less to the south east corner of Block E, south 40.26 feet to the north west corner of Lot 1, facing on Rear Street, thence easterly 264 feet more or less to the north east corner of Lot 3, facing on North Street, thence north to the starting point.

The Stirling Village Council will hear anyone who claims that his land will be predjucially affected by the by-law and who applies to be heard. Said application to be heard will be received by the Clerk up to August 24th, 1962, and be heard by the Council on the same date.

Horticultural Society Bus Trip

On July 25th, seventy-seven members and friends of the Stirling Horticultural Society left Stirling at 6.30 a.m. bound for Upper Canada Village.

At approximately 10.30 the group reached Morrisburg where they had a chance to get a cup of coffee and then on to Upper Canada Village. The group was free to tour the 25 buildings and in each one you could see all the interesting things that the pioneers of Canada used. Some of these buildings were Cook's Tavern, the Pastor's House, Asseltine Factory where women were spinning, Museum of Agriculture and the Old Saw Mill.

At 2.30 p.m. the group went to the Robert Saunders' Generating Plant. This was a beautiful building with its marble walls and floors. A film was shown, showing how the plant was built, the flooding necessary for its construction and the friendly attitude between Canada and the United States. Girls, dressed in white flannel skirts and navy jackets took the group on tours through the plant, explaining it as they went along.

Supper was enjoyed at the Cornwall Hotel and then the group returned home, tired but happy after a memorable trip.

THE STORY OF THE LITTLE CROWN

This story of the little crown is not a once-upon-a-time story that happened on the never-never land, it's a for-real story right here in Canada. This little crown that we are telling you about is the CANADA APPROVED health inspection stamp that you see on the labels of some canned and packaged meats and poultry. And how a manufacturer's processed meat or poultry product gets to rate this stamp is an awesome story indeed.

In the first place, the plant that processes the meat and poultry has to be registered with the Health of Animals Division, Canada Department of Agriculture. Once registered, it is under constant supervision and inspection to ensure that it meets high standards of sanitation and that the animals slaughtered in the plant are healthy and wholesome.

Once the plant is under regular health supervision of a federal veterinarian, the manufacturer may apply for the health inspection stamp, bearing the little crown, to appear on his products. To do so, he submits to the Health of Animals Division, printer's proofs of the labels which will appear on the containers for his products and also of the packages, for example, the lithographed bags, in which the product may be packed. These are checked to make sure they include the true and correct name of the product, name and address of the manufacturer, net weight of the product to be packed, health inspection legend (a crown and words CANADA APPROVED) and a list of ingredients if the product does not have a set standard. This latter is not required on such products as bologna and sausage because the government has a set standard for the composition which must be adhered to.

After the printer's proofs of the labels have been checked they are printed and then must meet with a final approval by the Federal Department of Agriculture before they can be used on the product.

And now it's the government's turn to protect these labels and see to it that they do not get into the hands of other manufacturers who do not have a federal inspection service for their plants. To do this, the approved labels, stamps, containers, and packages are kept under lock and key in a bonded room. This room is under the custody of a veterinarian of the Health of Animals Division and it is his responsibility to keep track of the number used.

So, when you buy canned or packaged meat and poultry bearing the round CANADA APPROVED stamp with the little crown in the center you will know that you are getting a product that has been carefully health inspected for your protection and you will likely agree that the people behind the label also deserve a crown for their efficiency and constant diligence.

SALADS THAT SUIT THE OCCASION

Salad time is any time — so why not now? It has been said, and rightly so that a salad "makes the meal." Where else, but in fresh crisp vegetables can we find so many different ways to liven up a menu?

Several varieties of salads exist, each one perfectly suited to its purpose. The appetizer salad, small, piquant and colourful serves to sharpen the appetite, only. Crisp and cool, the ingredients are kept to a minimum. Food experts at Macdonald Institute, Guelph, suggest fresh cooked and chilled asparagus stalks beside a scoop of creamy cottage cheese. A strip of pimento or chopped outer layer of radish placed or sprinkled on top complete the picture.

Accompaniment salads are chosen to complement the meat in the main course. Serve in individual salad bowls or pass from one large bowl at the same time the meat course is served. The wise homemaker plans to achieve a harmonious blending of ingredients to "set off" the meat and cooked vegetables, avoiding repretition of colour, flavour and texture. Thus a meal with mashed potatoes, minted fresh peas and meat deserves a crisp salad of uncooked salad-makers such as lettuce, celery, cucumbers and tomato wedges, in any combination.

Let us not forget the "main dish" salad. Here is where you can let your imagination run the full gamut. Gelatin dishes containing cubed cold meats or vegetables may be placed whole on crisp head lettuce or in individual lettuce cups. Surround with tomato wedges, carrot curls and radish rosettes.

The thing to remember is that the main ingredients should be kept in pieces large enough to identify; ½ to 1 inch in size is best.

Cooking Comments

A little leftover cake and a few berries, but not enough to make a complete dessert of each! This is a problem but not impossible to solve. Combine them, suggest the home economists at Macdonald Institute, Guelph. Cut the cake in ½ to 1 inch pieces, add the berries, then fold in a small recipe of soft custard or pudding. Top with whipped cream and chill.

Eggs keep better when stored before washing, say home economists at Macdonald Institute, Guelph. The oily protective film helps to keep top freshness. But they add, eggs should be washed just prior to their use.

Soup for lunch and such a pretty garnish! Try such colourful additions as grated carrot or beet, thin slices of cucumber or radish or tiny bits of chopped meats. The Foods Department at Macdonald Institute, Guelph, remind that eye appeal is a large part of the enjoyment of any food. Nothing, they say, adds this appeal better than garnish.

Food experts at Macdonald Institute, Guelph, say that most vegetables should be stored in the refrigerator until their use. Snap green and yellow beans are no exception. They may be kept for about two weeks before a stickiness appears on the outside of the pod. Make the most out of your vegetable dollar and plan to use these vegetables as soon as possible after their purchase.

ECONOMICALLY WISE — THE GRADED AND SIZED EGG

Which came first, the chicken or the egg? The Food Department at Macdonald Institute, Guelph, doesn't claim to be the final authority on this subject, but this they will say: Eggs are good for you. Ounce for ounce and penny for penny, eggs are sound nutritional investments.

Modern cookery emphasizes individual service. Perhaps it was the egg, one of the first portion-controlling foods that started the whole idea. Nowhere but in an egg can you get such an excellent supply of high quality protein, plus iron, vitamins A, D, B6, niacin and riboflavin, and all for approximately five cents a serving.

Many of us buy our eggs and have often wondered which is the most economical size and grade to buy. Little if any, food value is sacrificed by the use of Grade B eggs for cooking, baking and food mixes. Grade A eggs are most desirable for eggnogs, poaching and frying, where a superior quality is necessary for uniform colour and eye appeal.

Shall it be small, medium or large eggs today. A handy guide is to subtract the price of medium sized eggs from large size price. A spread of more than five cents per dozen would warrant the purchase of smaller eggs. However, it is important to remember that some recipes may need two small eggs in place of one large egg.

OF MANY THINGS

(By Ambrose Hills)

LET THE REST OF THE WORLD GO BY

There is an old song which attracts me. In it, one builds a sweet little nest somewhere in the West, and lets the rest of the world go by.

The difficulty is that the rest of the world is often inclined to do just that.

Canadians live in what the economic experts refer to as an exposed economy. If the rest of the world decides to go by, we lost about one-fifth of our business. We could get along without the business if we were willing to live a less affluent life. We are not. We all want more and insist on getting it. We aren't prepared to take a lower standard of living, so that sweet little nest idea, while it sounds attractive, isn't practical. As a nation, we are in somewhat the same position as a family that has established a high standard of living, but would like to lead a quieter life. They cannot have both. Most of them, when the chips are down, retain the high living standard and do without the quiet life.

If we wanted to simplify things for Canada, we could isolate ourselves from the world, but we would have to take our economical lumps for doing it. In 1940, the Rowell-Sirois report listed us as one of the least self-sufficient countries in the world. We may have improved our position a bit, but we're still very much at the mercy of the world.

We have been trying to have it both ways. We have been forming a sort of welfare state. Nice, but expensive. The cost has been added onto our goods and services. The rest of the world is not interested in paying for all our social services.

Canada has been helping other countries financially, and has been contributing rather heavily toward the defence of the Western world. We've been acting as if there were an unending economic boom for us to enjoy.

The government we elect cannot correct this situation by passing a set of laws. It can help by tightening its own belt, but that is about the limit of its ability. We must get busy ourselves, as citizens, businessmen, labourers, and farmers, to make Canada successful.

River Valley W.I. Members Visit County Museum

Last Wednesday ten members of River Valley Women's Institute, two visitors and five public school children paid a visit to the Hastings County Museum in Belleville. On arrival, the group divided into two sections and enjoyed guided tours through the three rooms under the direction of the curators, Mr. Gerald Boyce and Miss Barbara Weese.

In the first room the group viewed a large display of lumbering in days of yore. There were various types of tools, square timbers, the art of logging; the material used instead of nails and numerous items of interest.

The large map showed over 50 saw mills in Hastings County in the bygone days. The group was most interested in the old mill located at River Valley and known as "Sager's Mill." Later the small mill owners sold out to three large companies in the county.

Hand Carved Furniture

The second room contained the Couldery Collection. All the main pieces of hand-carved furniture were in this room as a permanent display. However, the small articles were different and those, who were making their second visit, saw numerous new items in this collection; the silver, jewellery, vases and knick-knacks were all worth seeing and carried the group back to another era of history.

The third room contained a collection of odds and ends of small antiques. Many war medals which had been won in the Riel collection were shown, and also a variety of helmets and the clothing that the men had actually worn at that time.

A large glass cabinet held the challenge, "What do you have for this display?" No doubt many homes are in possession of heirlooms that would be valuable assets to the museum, whether loaned or donated.

Those who attended expressed their appreciation of the fine educational tour and voiced thanks to the guides.

It was regretted that more members did not attend, but the week was filled with other activities which interfered.

125 Attend Tufts -- Stapley Tweed Picnic

The annual Tufts — Stapley picnic was held Saturday, July 21st at the Tweed Memorial Park. Mr. Wallace Stapley presided with Mrs. Wallace Stapley as secretary.

Prizes were presented to the oldest gentleman, Mr. Frank Stapley, 82, of Stirling; oldest lady, Mrs. A. Houser, 83; parents with largest family, draw between Mr. and Mrs. Ross Palmateer, Mr. and Mrs. Don Palmateer and Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Stapley (all with 4 children), won by Mr. and Mrs. Ross Palmateer; latest couple married, Mr. and Mrs. Donald Godden; youngest baby present, Katherine Louise, 19-day-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Don Palmateer; person present from longest distance, Mrs. Kenneth Stapley, Ancaster, Ont.; largest number present, Tufts vs Stapley, won by Stapley's. The men received handkerchiefs, women, combs, children, chocolate bars.

The adults as well as the children had a merry time participating in the races. The remainder of the afternoon was spent in swimming and visiting. There was an attendance of 125.

Archdeacon J. B. Creeggan, Belleville, Transferred To Gananoque

the resignation of the Venerable J. B. Creeggan as Rector of Christ Church, Belleville, and his appointment to the Rectorship of Christ Church, Gananoque, effective October first next.

Ordained in St. George's Cathedral, Kingston, in June 1927, the Archdeacon was appointed to St. Thomas Church, Rawdon Township, for the summer and in the fall went to Coe Hill to work in the Mission of North Hastings as Curate to the Rev. N. R. Stout. In 1929 he was given leave of absenceto serve a curacy at St. Aiden's Church, Toronto, returning to this Diocese as Incumbent of Sharbot Lake in 1931. In April 1933 Mr. Creeggan was appointed to the Parish of North Augusta where he served for nearly six years before going to Picton as Rector of St. Mary Magdalene's Church.

In September 1943 Mr. Creeggan was made Rector of Prescott where he remained for seven years, being appointed to Christ Church, Belleville in succession to Canon Sparling on October 1st, 1950.

In 1952 Mr. Creeggan was honoured by the Bishop in being appointed a Canon of St. George's Cathedral, Kingston, and in September 1953 as Archdeacon of Ontario.

Archdeacon Creeggan serves on many committees of the Diocese of Ontario. He represents the Diocese in both the Provincial and General Synods.

Plaque Honours Founder of Women's Institute

(The following clipping supplied by Mrs. Roy Tucker, was read by Mrs. Alex Bush at the August meeting of the River Valley W.I.)

"The education of better mothers to make better homes." So Adelaide Hunter Hoodless summed up her purpose in life shortly before her death in 1910.

During her 52 years of life, amid strong social prejudice and much criticism and scorn, Mrs. Hoodless founded the Women's Institutes and helped to establish the YWCA of Canada, the Victorian Order of Nurses, the National Council of Women and Macdonald Institute at Guelph.

Her efforts were given national recognition June 2nd with the unveiling of a bronze plaque erected at the Hunter Hoodless homestead eight miles north of Brantford by the National Historic Sites and Monuments board.

Mrs. Hoodless has been described as a woman far in advance of her times, and her speeches still read much like those of today's psychologists at PTA meetings.

She preached the importance of a stable home to a stable society and blamed the "rising tide of lawlessness, the empty churches and the disturbing increase in divorce statistics" on the weakening of home ties.

Mrs. Hoodless's great battles were fought for the inclusion of home economics in school courses. She felt her efforts were justified because "the management of home has more to do with the moulding of character than any other influence."

Even during her lifetime Mrs. Hoodless' work was internationally recognized. A few years before her death a British publication picked her as the most distinguished woman of the year. In 1909 the directors of Carnegie Technical Schools asked her to inspect their work in the United States and made recommendations.

In 1959 the Hunter Hoodless homestead became a provincial historic site with the erection of a bronze tablet by the Archeological and Historical Sites Board of Ontario.

Thin Plastic Bag Suffocation Threat To Children

The plastic bag that was a danger last year is still one this year, and will probably continue to be one for many years to come. No amount of safety education will change this fact, just as it can't take the poison out of furniture polish or the scalding property out of boiling water.

The facts are simple and most of us know them by heart. Plastic film is air-tight. The very thin kind has the added ability to attract static electricity, allowing it to cling to the face. These facts put together spell suffocation if the fabric is misused.

After all the warnings by safety groups in Canada over the years, it is difficult to understand how a parent could carelessly put a used dry-cleaning bag in a crib, carriage or playpen. One might more easily see the possibility of a child finding one in a garbage tin or a drawer, and trying it on. But of the eight children who have died since the beginning of the year, six had plastic right in their cribs or carriages used as mattress covers. Sheets which had covered the plastic were in every case pulled away to expose it.

The Ontario Safety League warns parents again and again that thin plastic in the crib, in the carriage or playpen, or in the house at all, is a suffocation threat to their children. Find it now, and destroy it.

BELL

Furrow and Fallow By Fairbairn

Milk producers are making the most of the farm news these days with an overall plan being considered in Ontario, but recently another milk story comes along that has nothing directly to do with the marketing plan. Dairy Farmers of Canada, who have just completed another June Set-Aside, announced a very ambitious plan of national promotion and advertising to boost consumption of dairy foods. The directors of the national organization have endorsed the principle of a year-round collection of funds to support such a campaign. The objective would be to devote one per cent of the money farmers receive for milk and cream to support a new promotional organization. It would be called the Dairy Foods Service Bureau, the name presently used by the home economists' section of the national promotional and advertising division of Dairy Farmers of Canada.

The idea is to separate the bureau from Dairy Farmers of Canada eventually so it can operate as an advertising and promotion unit not involved in policy matters of the national association. The bureau would be directed by hired staff under the supervision of a national executive of producers' representatives. This national executive would be selected from a group of regional producer committees so farmers would have direct control over their funds rather than through existing dairy producer organizations.

Directors of DFC will take this plan, developed by a special "Set-Aside Committee" back to the regional groups they represent in order to secure universal support from producers. While one per cent doesn't sound like a great deal, if all producers in Canada contribute this amount, nearly $5,000,000 per year would be available to sell more milk. Per capita consumption of dairy foods in Canada is declining because of many factors, and price is only one of many. In fact, it is not an important factor in several areas. Experts think that consumption can and should be increased, but it will take money to do it.

Now, before too many milk producers start adding up all the money their organizations are asking them to contribute to various things these days, let us hasten to add that funds to carry out this plan in Ont .would be provided by the proposed Milk Marketing Board. This would NOT be an additional contribution. The marketing plan envisages that part of the licence fees and levies will be used for advertising and promotion, so presumably that board could be one of the regional committees for the Dairy Foods Service Bureau and allocate some of its funds to the Bureau. All this is the realm of speculation at the moment — producers will decide when they vote on a marketing plan and on the plan suggested by Dairy Farmers of Canada. The latter will probably be decided at the annual meeting early next year.

Directors of the Ontario Whole Milk League have overwhelmingly endorsed the proposed milk marketing plan. With nearly all of the 123 directors attending a provincial meeting, over 90 per cent voted to "support this milk marketing plan and actively promote it in order to obtain a favourable vote." We understand there was quite a bit of frank discussion at the meeting and some criticism, but most of this was aimed at clarification of the plan and not too much indicated direct opposition.

Cheese and cream producers have both scheduled provincial meetings which will be followed immediately by a meeting of the Provisional Marketing Board so it is evident that producer organizations are getting ahead with this plan despite the fact that this is the busiest time of the year for farmers.

WEED OF THE WEEK SERIES

MILKWEED — A FRANKENSTEIN MONSTER

If a mad scientist tried to build a super weed he would end up with something like milkweed. The tall, straight stem sticks up like a piece of tapered dowel-rod. The long, broad, boat-shaped leaves are stuck on the stem exactly opposite each other. The seed pod looks like a hairy cucumber that started to grow like mad at one end and got discouraged at the other.

The pod is filled with tiny parachutes of the silkiest of white down, each one attached to a flat brown seed. These seeds overlap each other like fish scales or armour. Not content with spreading far and wide by means of air-borne seeds, the milkweed mother plant is a perennial and live for years. In addition to seeds, underground root stocks spread out and send up new shoots and plants. These root stocks dive down deeper than the average plow and each root stock section broken is another potential weed plant.

Long before herbicides were heard of, milkweed developed a wax coating on the upper surfaces of its leaves. This sheds the average herbicide like water. Another nasty side of its disposition is shown in the flowers which looks like miniature purple and golden crowns. Each flower has an insect trap built into it, and only the lucky or strong insects which visit the flower escape with their lives.

If you have milkweed, it isn't impossible to get rid of it, says the Field Crops Branch, Ontario Department of Agriculture. It is merely extremely difficult. Brushkill, a mixture of 2,4-D and 2,4,5-T sprayed so as to hit the undersurface of the leaves will knock back much of the top growth. Repeated applications will eventually kill it. The necessary amount of herbicide (16 ounces of acid equivalent) per acre is so high that it is not practical to spray with this material in growing crops. In grass pastures and waste land this much brushkill, especially if the milkweed is young, does an excellent job.

A sure fire way of getting rid of milkweed is to use Amitrol as a spot spray. This prevents chlorophyll formation in the plant and while it kills the grass also, it is effective and efficient in getting rid of individual plants or clumps of milkweed once and for all.

Timely Tips

Take a good look around your home and barn. You may have some makeshift electrical wiring; too many appliances on one outlet; or rotten insulation on wiring in the barn. These things pass unnoticed until circumstances change, and then it may be too late, reminds Hal Wright, farm safety specialist with the Ontario Department of Agriculture.

Garnet Norrish, swine researcher at the Ontario Agricultural College, says that the decision you make in picking a boar can mean the difference between profit and loss in your swine enterprise. The right boar can be the surest, easiest, and fastest way to up your percentage of A grades.

The subsidy for pork and lamb is based on weight and fat thickness. Dr. Bob Ingram at the Ontario Agricultural College says that it is an important part of the profit for producers. If the farmer is not getting the subsidy, he is not taking full advantage of the premium payments available.

A large part of the cracked or broken eggs on many farms originates in the nest, say poultry researchers with the Ontario Department of Agriculture. Providing adequate nesting space is essential. Nests should be well padded with clean nesting material to reduce egg breakages and to help keep eggs clean.

CONSERVATION NEWS

Protection of Farm Woodlots Vital During Fire Season

While Ontario Lands and Forests Minister J. W. Spooner's appeal to campers, anglers and all travellers in forested areas to guard against forest fires is directed to protecting the province's great forest resources, it is regarded by foresters as being of particular concern to farmers — owners of farm woodlots. These woodlots produce well over sixty million dollars a year in revenue across Canada and represent between 10 and 15 per cent of Canada's total forest production.

Yet, according to the Lands and Forests Department's protection officials, unfamiliarity with fire danger warnings might cause a farm woodlot owner unwittingly to sabotage not only his own woodlot, the gold mine in his own back yard, but also endanger himself, his family and his home.

Special attention is focused on the preservation of farm woodlots not only because of their cash return to farmers but also because the owners of such woodlots provide a large part of the woods staffs in winter for lumber and pulpwood operations.

During the forest fire season, from April to October, the Department, through all available media, provides fire ranger ratings throughout the fire district. They range from moderate to high and extreme.

Being alert to fire danger and understanding the significance of these terms, the farmer can plan his day.

With a high danger rating, he may decide wisely to stay close to home, ready to protect fields and woodlots from possible fire. With a reduced fire threat, he can work in distant fields without concern for his own safety or the welfare of his family and his property.

Many farmers find it necessary to burn slash or brush during the fire season. To do so in the fire district, spread roughly across the more heavily wooded northern parts of the province, he will need a burning permit from his local forester or fire warden, issued only in safe burning periods. The measurement of weather elements, fuel moisture content, humidity and other elements contribute to the assessment of forest fire danger ratings.

"Farmers should realize," forest protection officials suggest, "that woodland fires do not have to be spectacular to be tremendously destructive. Ground fire injury is not readily apparent, but it kills seedlings and small plants and ten years may elapse before the area will reforest again and grow saplings to the size of those burned. Many of the sandy areas and swamps would be covered with fine stands of timber today if fires had been controlled or prevented 25 to 50 years ago. Such fires burn the leaves and litter of years and destroy material that would otherwise enrich the soil."

Fire lines 10 to 15 feet wide are effective fire guards to separate a woodland from the source of danger or to divide the woodlot into compartments. These fire guard strips could be utilized as roads as well.

Farmers are looked to play an extremely important role in safe guarding a vital part of the province's and, indeed, the nation's economy by protecting and developing a continuing dependable source of income for themselves — their farm woodlots — as well as material for woods industries and, of course, employment in industries dependent wholly or partly on wood.

Stirling 4-H Calf Club

The August meeting of the Stirling 4-H Calf Club was held on the first at 8.00 p.m. at the farm of Messrs. Mac and Orno Sharp.

The meeting was opened by President Glen Hagerman, who introduced Mr. Lyall MacLachlan, the Assistant Agricultural Representative for Hastings County. Mr. MacLachlan informed the members of the different parts of the cow, followed by a short test.

The members judged a class of Holstein cattle. Following this the placings were given and the reasons for their placings given.

The meeting then adjourned and refreshments were served.

Local Boys Enjoy Cruise On Trent In Pontoon Craft

Allan Morton, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Morton, and David Faulkner, son of Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Faulkner, of town, enjoyed a cruise up the Trent River as far as Peterborough recently. The Examiner had the following to say of the cruise.

"At George St. wharf and along the Trent Canal today two youthful mariners travelled the waters in a home-made craft.

Allan Morton, 13, and David Faulkner, 14, both of Stirling, left Glen Ross, a few miles south of Stirling, Wednesday night to visit Peterboro and go over the liftlock. They planned to leave for home today.

David's cousin, Larry Faulkner, 15, of 315 Maniece Ave., accompanied the other two boys on a trip over the liftlock.

The homemade boat is 12 feet, six inches long and is six feet wide and powered by a 12-horse power motor. It was built by young Morton's father, who operates an auto body shop in Stirling, and members of the shop staff. The boat named Mudcat II, is a platform set on pontoons, complete with steering wheel and a battery to operate horn and lights.

The two boys slept Friday night in the park near George St. wharf. En route to Peterborough, an owner of a cruiser that was docked invited the two boys to sleep in the cruiser overnight."

Hay Bay Pilgrimage To Be Held Aug. 26th

The Annual Old Hay Bay Church Pilgrimage will be held this year on Sunday, August 26th, at 3.00 p.m., E.D.S.T. The Right Reverend Hugh A. McLeod, Moderator of the United Church of Canada, will be the guest speaker.

To Be Ordained

The Right Reverend K. C. Evans, D.D., Bishop of Ontario, is holding an Ordination Service next Sunday, August 19th in Saint Margaret's Church, Belleville, at 3.00 p.m. at which five men are to be made Deacons.

Among those to be Ordained is the Reverend F. A. Crook, of Stirling.

Mr. Crook was born in Southampton, England, where he was educated and became a druggist. He came to Canada in 1911 and went to Winnipeg where he worked in a wholesale drug company and later in the Union Bank of Canada. He enlisted in 1914, but was discharged in Montreal as physically unfit for overseas service. In 1917 Mr. Crook married Miss Jessie Butler. He was employed as an accountant by various Montreal firms until 1955.

Mr. Crook was Licensed as a Diocesan Lay Reader in the Diocese of Montreal by the Right Reverend J. C. Farthing, then Bishop of Montreal. He served as a Lay Reader for twenty years, in many Churches in and around Montreal. In 1955 Mr. Crook accepted Ordination in the Presbyterian Church. He retired from active ministry in 1959. Shortly after, he and Mrs. Crook came to make their home in Stirling. Mrs. Crook passed away on June 28th, 1961.

During the past year, Mr. Crook has been assisting at St. John's Church here, and at other Churches in the Parish.

After his Ordination as an Anglican Clergyman, Mr. Crook will act as Honorary Associate to the Rector of St. John's Church.

Mrs. Estella Leonard and sister, Mrs. Maude Gay, of Foxboro, returned home on Sunday afternoon after spending six weeks visiting cousins in Regina, Cochrane, Dwight, Ill.; Sarnia and Los Angeles, Calif., where they spent two weeks with Mrs. Leonard's daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. J. Fisher.

Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Beatty and daughters, Barbara and Mary, of Toronto, are spending this week with the latter's mother, Mrs. H. Morton. Mrs. Morton accompanied them on a trip to Upper Canada Village, at Morrisburg, on Tuesday and Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Smith and son, Eric, were guests of the latter's mother, Mrs. C. H. David, John St., for several days last week prior to visiting relatives in Western Ontario. They will return to Stirling for this coming week-end and will be accompanied by Mrs. David and Miss Nancy David on their return to their home in Ottawa.

Rawdon Tax Rate 55.3 Mills Set At Special Meeting Monday Night

At a special meeting of Rawdon Council held on Monday the tax rate for 1962 was set at 55.3 mills for farm and residential property and 59.4 for commercial property.

Reeve K. Mumby presided and was supported by Deputy-Reeve Fred Fred Beckett and Councillors Burton Morton, Jack Morgan and M. Johnston.

Following a careful study of the finances of the Township, the following rates were established, under Bylaw No. 824:

County rate, 18.9 mills; Township rate, 5 mills; Road levy, 11.6 mills; High School Area, 23.9 mills; making a total of 59.4 mills. The Provincial Government per capita grant makes a reduction of 4.1 mills on farm and residential property, making the rate 55.3. This is an increase of 7.8 mills over the 1961 rate.

Belleville Trio Win Tourney On Local Greens

Only four rinks entered the Ladies' Trebles Tournament on the local greens on Friday last. Threatening skies and the fact that many of the district bowlers had entries in the Molly Gault Memorial in Kingston, Saturday, combined to spoil the entry here.

Two rinks were present from Belleville, one from Trenton and one local rink, skipped by Mrs. B. Woodbeck. Top honours went to M. Smith's rink from Belleville with two wins and a score of 39 plus two. Mrs. Coutts, of Trenton, took the prize for one win with a score of 34.

Stirling Midgets Eliminate Milford Two Straight In First Play-off Round

Play In Cornwall Saturday — Second Game Here On Tuesday Night Aug. 21st

Playing before a large crowd of local supporters, the Stirling Midgets advanced a notch along the O.A.S.A. play off trail on Tuesday night, when they defeated the Milford team the second straight time. The game was played at the Henry Street playground and the final score was 10 to 8. The first game was played in Milford on Saturday night.

Thompson did the pitching for Stirling and received credit for the win but was relieved in the 9th by H. Jeffs. J. Wright was his battery mate until the sixth when Smith went behind the bat. Rick Cole started for the losers but Murphy took over in the 6th.

The losers opened the scoring in the second when singles by McCormack and Murphy, a walk to Minaker and a double by Brooks produced 3 runs. They added one in the fourth on a homer by Murphy and four in the ninth when singles by Brooks and followed by a home run blast by Farfollowed by a home run blast by Tarrington.

Stirling scored twice in the 2nd inning on a walk to Donohoe, a double by Rodgers and a single by Bob Noble . They were blanked until the fifth when they sent twelve men to the plate. Three walks, singles by Potts, Faulkner, Wrightman and Donohoe, a triple by Thompson and a homer by Rodgers accounted for seven runs. They added one in the sixth.

Lineups

Milford — Brooks, 3b; Salt, 2b; Rorabeck, lf; Farrington, cf; McCormack, c; Minaker, ss; Storms, rf; Cole, p; Murphy, 1b and p. Chapman batted for Murphy in the 9th.

Stirling — J. Noble, ss; Potts, 3b; Faulkner, cf; Wrightman, lf; Thompson, p; Donohoe, 2b; Wright, c; Rodgers, 1b; Vandervoort, rf; Hagerman replaced Wrightman in the 7th; Smith replaced Wright in the 6th, and Jeffs replaced Vandervoort in the 5th.

Score By Innings

Milford	0 3 0 1 0 0 0 0 4	8
Stirling	0 2 0 0 7 1 0 0 x	10

FIRST GAME

In the first game on Saturday night Stirling defeated Milford by a score of 15 to 4. The game was played in Milford and was a close struggle until the 8th inning, when with the score 4-4 Stirling put across five runs. They added six in the ninth.

Howard Jeffs and J. Wright formed the local battery. The former, besides pitching an excellent game, hit a homer in the ninth with two on. Rick Cole pitched for the losers.

Engagement

Mr. and Mrs. Lorne M. Johnston, 31 Southwood Crescent, Belleville, announce the engagement of their daughter, Barbara Jean, to Mr. David Moffat, son of Mr. and Mrs. Bryce Moffat, Midland, Ontario. The marriage will take place at 2 p.m. on Saturday, September the eighth, in Knox College Chapel, University of Toronto.

Larry McGowan Winner of Derby In Dawson Creek

A copy of the Peace River Block News of June 13th last which came to our desk this week, records that Larry McGowan, son of Mr. and Mrs. Donald McGowan, of Dawson Creek, B.C., won the Kinsmen Soap Box Derby on June 10th. There were nineteen cars entered in the event and the winner will now compete in the Provincial finals at Mission City, B.C. The winner of the Provincial competition will go to Akron Ohio, for the World's Championship.

It is interesting to note that the winner is a son of Donald McGowan, formerly of Stirling, who himself was the winner in the Kinsmen Soap Box Derby in Belleville twenty-two years ago, on July 9th, 1940.

Charles E. Allen Widely Mourned

Charles E. Allen, organist and choir director of the George Street United Church, Peterborough, and a leader in the field of music in Peterborough, died suddenly while on holiday in Massachusetts.

Mr. and Mrs. Allen left August 5th for a holiday in the New England States and had been attending the Tanglewood music festival.

Friday night they had heard the Boston Symphony Orchestra and planned to return Saturday evening. Mr. Allen was stricken with a heart attack just before he went to the concert. Medical aid was immediately available and he was taken to hospital at nearby Pittsfield. He died shortly after entering hospital.

Mr. Allen, who has been at George Street United Church for 17 years, was associated with practically everything that had any connection with music in Peterborough.

Leading Choir

He was most generous with his talent and had the happy faculty of being able to hold together a large choir in a day when most leaders are finding it very difficult. His choir was for years the leading choir in the city and on many occasions carried off top honours at the Peterborough Music Festival.

Mr. Allen was serving his second term as president of Peterboro Concert Association and was a past president of the Peterborough branch of the Ontario Registered Music Teachers. He was also member of the local branch of the Canadian Organists.

For years he had been a member of Rotary Club and was one of the club's musical directors.

He directed the Peterborough Collegiate Glee Club and had on occasions also taught music at PCVS. He

Hastings County Plans Mass Survey to Detect Tuberculosis

John W. Deacon of the Hastings County Tuberculosis Association has announced that plans are being laid for a mass tuberculosis detection survey beginning on August 22nd. Mr. Deacon has been appointed General Chairman of the Survey Committee. In a statement issued Mr. Deacon said:

"The Hastings County Tuberculosis Association in co-operation with the Ontario Department of Health, will be conducting a tuberculin testing and X-ray survey of Hastings County including X-rays of all Hastings County industrial employees. The tuberculosis picture in Ontario cannot be taken too lightly. It is a constant battle to keep the incidence rate under control. Currently, approximately 5 people per day enter Ontario's sanatoria, 70 per cent of whom are in an advanced stage of tuberculosis. It is only through the efforts of the public that we can hope to keep these figures down, and Hastings County is prepared to offer its citizens the opportunity of being a part of this international fight against tuberculosis."

Mr. Deacon added the fact that the relatively new "Heaf" method of testing will be used. "The Department has trained three special teams of registered nurses in Heaf testing, an absolutely painless method of administering the test."

The tuberculin test will indicate if any person has ever been in direct contact with tuberculosis. It will not show active disease, but all persons who show a reaction will be X-rayed, as well as all persons over 40 years of age. It is in this age group that the highest rate of other lung and chest abnormalities is located. The Chest X-ray is capable of finding lung and chest area tumors, enlarged hearts, etc. All such findings will be reported.

Mr. Deacon is now appointing a committee to handle the involved procedure connected with a project of this magnitude. It is expected that by August 22nd 10 per cent of the Hastings County population will be actively working on various survey committees.

Shower For Bride-To-Be At Harold

The home of Miss Margaret Dracup, Harold, was the scene of a happy gathering when the friends and school chums of Miss Lulubelle Matthews honoured her with a miscellaneous shower on the occasion of her approaching marriage. The rooms had been decorated with pink streamers and bells and Lulubelle was given the seat of honour.

Margaret Dracup then took charge of the programme. The first number was a sing-song led by Mrs. Gerald Clancy with Mrs. Craig Watson at the piano. Mrs. Jack Dunham gave a humorous reading and solos were contributed by Mrs. Fred Beckett and Mrs. Gerald Russett.

Mrs. Murray Meiklejohn then divided the guests into four groups for a contest about the items of a menu. Two other contests "Packing a Suitcase for the Bride" and "A Love's Vocabulary" were conducted by the chairlady.

The bride-to-be was led to the dining room table which was piled high with gifts. Lulubelle opened each gift and passed it around the room, expressing her appreciation as she did so. Meanwhile a paper plate was artistically decorated with the beautiful bows and ribbons removed from the gift wrappings to make a hat for the bride.

This she donned and again thanked everyone for the lovely gifts displayed on the table. She also thanked Mrs. Dracup, Annie and Margaret for planning the shower and all who had helped with the programme or in any other way to make the evening so enjoyable. She said it had been a great pleasure to see so many of her former friends and hoped they would visit her in her new home in Toronto.

Miss Clara Thain then read back all the remarks made by the bride while she was opening her gifts.

A delicious lunch was served by Mrs. Omar Dracup, Mrs. Ken Matthews and Miss Margaret Dracup, assisted by Misses Mary and Janette Dracup.

There were forty-five ladies present including guests from Toronto, Norland, Stirling, Bonarlaw, Harold and Wellman's.

What Others Say

BEHOLD THE UNTUTORED TOWNSMEN

(Ottawa Journal)

The meek, the Beatitude says, shall inherit the earth. But unless the meek cry out a little louder against some of the abominations committed against the good earth by some good city folk, what's left isn't going to be much worth inheriting.

We speak thus darkly not of atomic bombs and international crises. Rather, of smaller things, of what the late philosopher C. E. M. Joad called "the untutored townsman's invasion of the countryside."

It's time the meek joined together to save the woods and the lakes from what Mr. Russell Kirk has called the "depredators from the city."

Who are they?

Here's a start:

The outboard motor fanatics who are interested not in boating or scenery but in horsepower. Like the incessant buzzing of bees, their endless sorties make life hideous as well as dangerous for the fishermen, the swimmers and the man who once naively believed a cottage on a lake promised solitude. Strangely enough, we now endure on some waters noise that would be outlawed in cities.

The dumpers are another species of untutored townsman. They ruin a picturesque road or even as plendid point on a lake by dumping tin cans, cartons and bottles.

There are also those who string electric lights along their property, doubtless trying to bring a touch of Broadway to the lakeside. The crowning blow is to play music loud enough to carry across the waters. These folks don't really want to be in the country. They want to transfer city life to the open spaces.

More and more cottages are going up in our land. That's fine. But can't the builders be more discreet? Must terrible scars be gouged into the landscape? Isn't it possible for men to treat trees with some of the respect their years deserve?

Maybe we are coming to the time when lakes and woods will have to be zoned as cities are. Those who want horsepower, crowds and midway amusements could go their way. The others, the mute, outnumbered meek should be surer of places where tranquility and solitude and nature is honoured. As big as all outdoors is supposed to be, there should be room for each his own.

River Valley Women's Institute Entertains Ivanhoe W.I. Branch

On August 2nd, River Valley Women's Institute entertained 15 ladies from Ivanhoe branch in North Hastings District on the occasion of the honouring of Adelaide Hoodless, the founder of Institutes.

Mrs. Glenn Bush was hostess at the school house and lovely bouquets of summer flowers were used for decoration. Mrs. Roy Tucker was in charge of the guest book in which 39 signatures were recorded. There were 24 from River Valley W.I.

Mrs. Kenneth Myers opened the meeting, and the roll call was "Introduce yourself," and thus the group became better acquainted.

Mrs. George Heasman presented her report. During the month she had written a letter to the Institute's adopted child. Brief reports were presented by the following: Mrs. Roy Bush, agriculture — beware of army worms; Mrs. C. Wilson, historical — visit of River Valley Institute to the County museum; Mrs. Roy Tucker, health — spoke of the 40 children who have been born deformed as a result of the drug Thalidomide.

Mrs. Percy MacMullen brought a message from the Friendship Link at Abbot's Leigh, England, and also for public relations, stating that Mrs. James Haggerty, president of the FWIC and a group of 35 will fly from Vancouver, B.C., on September 12th to attend the 10th triennial conference at Melbourne, Australia.

Her second item was that $7,150 was contributed to the UNESCO gift coupon plan No. 400, which is now closed as a national project. Mrs. Haight, of New York, said, in part "We thank all the branches in Canada for their gifts to the United Nations world wide crusade against ignorance, poverty, hunger and disease."

Pennies For Friendship

Mrs. Roy Tucker gave a synopsis of the beginning of this fund when, in 1930, Mrs. Drage suggested the idea to the ACWW. At the triennial conference held in Edinburg, it was especially requested that each branch in the world contribute to the "Pennies for Friendship" if at all possible. Last year River Valley branch contributed $15.00 and this was handed in at the West Hastings district annual meeting.

Mrs. L. G. Lymburner, FWIO president, will carry a cheque for the total amount contributed by Ontario branches when she travels to Australia. The pennies were collected from the River Valley members.

The coupon convener reported that she had completed the full amount of 6,000 for the coffee maker. It was decided to continue getting them for another article.

Programme

Mrs. Alex Bush presided over the programme and welcomed the guests from the Ivanhoe Branch. She read, "A Laugh Is Just Like Sunshine."

Mrs. George Heasman with Mrs. Philip Conley, as pianist, was in charge of a sing-song which included "O Canada," and "School Days."

Mrs. Sheldon McIntosh read a poem on "Thankfulness" and a prayer for friends.

Mrs. Keith Bray, of Ivanhoe, gave a piano selection, "To the Rising Sun," and Mrs. Jack Bush read an article re "The People Who Lift and the People Who Lean."

Miss Marilyn Conley rendered "General Lee's Grand March."

The convener read a clipping telling of the unveiling of a bronze plaque erected at the Hunter-Hoodless homestead by the National Historical Sites and Monuments Board, on June 2nd, 1962.

Mrs. Ted Pollock, President of Ivanhoe W.I., read a humorous selection, "Towser Must Be Tied Tonight."

Mrs. Percy MacMullen gave a paper on the anniversary story which she had prepared, outlining the organization of the mother Institute on February 19th, 1897 at Stoney Creek by Adelaide Hoodless. At that meeting 100 women and one man were in attendance.

Mrs. Erland Lee suggested the membership fee be 25 cents, and it was decided to open all meetings with the Lord's Prayer, in unison.

In 1899 Laura Rose began the organization of Institutes across Ontario, and later in Canada. She married a Mr. Stephen and the name Laura Rose Stephen was well known in Institute circles. These early Institute leaders left a wonderful heritage and we, today, owe them a debt of gratitude for their vision in 1897.

Mrs. MacMullen gave a descriptive account of the Adelaide Hoodless homestead at St. George which has cost each Institute member across Canada 20 cents providing each branch has sent in money twice to the F.W.I.O.

Anniversary time is just the time to bring the attention of the older organized branches the accomplishments and progress of the newly formed groups in the North West Territories and the Yukon. Mrs. MacMullen synopsized the work at Haines Junction on the Alaska Highway; Fort Providence, where their president is an Indian woman who speaks three languages. Discovery W.I. which is 80 miles above Yellowknife and Inuvik, 50 miles from the Arctic Ocean. At this branch an Eskimo lady is directing a class in making "mukluks" and bead work.

Mrs. Eileen Hough, the organizer, in her report, hopes that many more groups will organize in the northern countries. This is a challenge to all the women of Canada, "to educate a boy, you educate a man, and to educate a girl, you educate a family."

This year the FWIO asked all the branches across Canada for a voluntary offering to promote the expansion of this work.

Miss Joyce Carr gathered the offering which amounted to $8.75 and this will be forwarded to FWIO as a joint contribution from Ivanhoe and River Valley Branches.

Mrs. Alex Bush voiced appreciative thanks to those who assisted with the programme.

Mrs. Ted Pollock expressed thanks for the invitation and presented River Valley with four lovely cups and saucers for its kitchen. Mrs. K. Meyers voiced thanks for the unexpected gift.

The meeting was closed with The Queen and the Institute Grace.

The summer issue of Home and Country was distributed and a card signed for an ill member. The Citizenship group, under the direction of Mrs. Ernest Carr and the Agricultural group and their leader, Mrs. Jack Bush, served sandwiches, cookies and coffee.

The visitors were given partners from River Valley by way of song titles which were matched.

At the close, Mrs. Tucker voiced a special thank you to Ivanhoe for its generous gift and to all who had assisted in making the afternoon a success.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Wiggins, of Campbellford, were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Whitty.

J. Thain, Campbellford, and P. Thain, Detroit, spent the week-end with Mr. and Mrs. P. Bronson.

Miss Margaret Anderson, R.N., has returned home after spending several months nursing in a Rochester hospital.

Mrs. Geo. H. Moorcroft, Marlene and Monte, Madoc, visited the former's sister, Mrs. Roy Eggleton.

Mr. and Mrs. Alex Hough, Rochester, N.Y., spent Saturday at the home of the former's uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Hough.

To obtain a little juice from fruits such as raspberries or blueberries to moisten such products as shortcake, add sugar to taste and stir lightly with a fork. Be careful that you do not crush the berries. Chill for half an hour and a small amount of juice will collect at the bottom of the dish.

Watch That Oil In Power Lawn Mowers

Of interest to home owners who cut lawns with power lawn mowers, will be a service bulletin recently released by Outboard Marine Comporation, to Stirling Lumber Limited of Stirling.

In about 1955, the grade of oil generally recognized as the oil for use in air-cooled two-cycle engines was automotive MM or MS (regular) 30 weight oil. However, oils at that time had not been developed into specific types with various additives to accomplish certain requirements for each type of engine, i.e. multiple viscosite 10W30 or 20W40, or outboard motor oil.

In those days No. 30 oil was used in most outboards and had properties that lubricated at high or low temperature. Outboards run at a temperature range of 160 to 180 degs. F. Lawn mowers operate at approximately 350 to 450 degs. F.

Due to pre-ignition and other problems in large outboard motors, the oil companies began to develop oils especially tailored for outboards. Lawn-Boy mowers do not have pre-ignition problems and due to higher operating temperatures, ash and carbon are burned away and blown out the exhaust ports.

The special requirements of outboard oils to eliminate pre-ignition etc. in outboards did a good job for this use but this has apparently taken away the ability of the oil to lubricate at the higher temperature range at which Lawn-Boys operate. The inability of this oil to lubricate these engines properly has caused rod seizure, piston scuffing and general over-heating of the engine.

The recommended mixture for Lawn-Boys is one-half pint service MM or MS grade (regular) no. 30 per gallon of regular gasoline. The important feature on new Lawn-Boy mowers is that the warranty is void if these recommendations are not followed.

Historical Paintings And Indian Artifacts Now On Display At County Museum

A group of excellent historical oil paintings and a display of Indian artifacts dating back several thousand years highlights the special exhibition opened August 1st at the Hastings County Museum.

The historical paintings by Rev. Bowen P. Squire, of Consecon, show interesting highlights of the early years of settlement in the Quinte district. Among the paintings are several showing farm life and activities of the early settlers. The landing of the first French missionaries at the local Kente Mission in the 17th century is brilliantly depicted: this mission is believed to have been located near Consecon.

Other paintings show the landing of the United Empire Loyalists at Adolphustown in 1784; the corduroy roads of the early years; the Weller Stage Coach in front of Finkle's Tavern at Bath about 1820; and perhaps the first saw mill in the Quinte district. Women particularly will be interested in the interior view of the pioneer log cabin.

Rev. Squire has spent many years on research for these paintings and they are as factual as possible.

Also on display at the Hastings County Museum are Indian artifacts from Rev. Squire's outstanding collection. These are all local in origin and show that this section of the province has been inhabited for many centuries.

The historical paintings will be on display for a considerable time at the Hastings County Museum, 240 Church Street, Belleville.

THE BIBLE TODAY

The Bible is listed as the most translated single Book in the World, according to a recently published statement as reported in the UNESCO Courier, June issue. The Index Translationum XIII, the International Bibliography, has come off the press in Paris, under the Authority of UNESCO.

Lenin is described as the World's most translated author and the Bible the world's most translated title. Shakespeare's comedies and tragedies were the most translated works of literature by a single author.

In UNESCO's latest edition (1960), the Bible is listed the most often with 258 translations published in many different versions, both classic and modern. The most translated single author of non-fiction is Lenin with 240 listings. In second place is Nikita Khrushchev whose works have been translated into 211 different languages.

While the whole Bible has been translated into 258 languages, certain books of the Bible have been translated into 1181 languages and dialects, covering nearly all the countries of the world.

AUGUST SUPPER IDEAS

It's a hot, lazy August day and all that breaks the stillness in the neighbourhood is the drone of bees in the flowers. You would be blissfully happy in your hammock if you didn't have to think: "What am I going to have for supper?" Well just relax — for here's your answer to the main course plate — a beautiful red sun-baked field tomato stuffed with a satisying and cool salad filling. And even the fillings have been pre-tested and tasted for you by the girls at the Consumer Section, Canada Department of Agriculture, Ottawa.

Corn Salad Stuffed Tomatoes

6 large ripe tomatoes
1½ cups cooked corn (from cobs or canned or frozen)
2 tablespoons pickle relish
3 tablespoons sliced green onion
3 tablespoons chopped green pepper
3 teaspoons chopped pimento
½ teaspoon salt
1½ cups cooked cubed ham
2 tablespoons mayonnaise

Wash tomatoes. Cut out core from each tomato, then cut off a thin slice and scoop out most of soft pulp from centre. Invert and chill in refrigerator. Drain pulp thoroughly. Just before serving, combine the corn salad ingredients, including the drained pulp and toss lightly. Sprinkle the tomato with salt and fill with the salad mixture. Serve on crisp lettuce. Serves 6.

Chicken Salad Stuffed Tomatoes

6 large ripe tomatoes
1½ cups cooked, diced chicken
¼ cup slivered almonds
½ cup chopped cucumber
¼ cup chopped green onion
2 tablespoons chopped ripe olive
2 tablespoons mayonnaise
2 teaspoons French dressing
1 teaspoon salt

Wash tomatoes. Cut a thin slice off stem and core. Cut into 4, 6 or 8 sections, cutting only 2/3 through tomato. Spread sections apart slightly. Sprinkle with salt and chill. Combine chicken with remaining ingredients. Fill tomatoes with salad and chill. Serve on lettuce and garnish with mayonnaise or olive slices. Serves 6.

Macaroni and Cheese Salad Stuffed Tomatoes

6 large ripe tomatoes
1½ cups cooked macaroni
2/3 cup grated Cheddar Cheese
4 hard cooked eggs, chopped
6 tablespoons chopped green pepper
3 tablespoons chopped pimento
¼ cup finely chopped green onions
2/3 cup diced celery
½ teaspoon salt
Few grains pepper
7 tablespoons mayonnaise

Wash and cut out core of each tomato. Cut into 8 or 12 sections cutting only ¾ way through tomato. Chill in refrigerator. Combine macaroni with remaining ingredients and toss lightly. Spread wedges of tomato apart and sprinkle with salt. Fill centre and spaces between wedges with salad mixture. Serve on lettuce. Serves 6.

Egg Salad Stuffed Tomatoes

6 large ripe tomatoes
6 hard cooked eggs, chopped
¼ cup thinly sliced green onion
½ cup finely chopped celery
1½ teaspoons salt
⅛ teaspoon pepper
½ cup mayonnaise
2 tablespoons parsley

Wash tomatoes and turn stem end down. Cut into 4 or 6 slices only ¾ of the way through the tomato. The tomato will spread accordion fashion. Chill. Combine salad ingredients with the mayonnaise. Fill between tomato slices with the salad mixture. Arrange on crisp greens and garnish with parsley. Serves 6.

BELL

Mrs. Omar Dracup Hostess To U.C.W.

Mrs. Omar Dracup was hostess to the Wellman's United Church Women on Tuesday, August 7th. There were 18 ladies and 15 children in attendance.

The President, Mrs. John Carlisle, opened the meeting by reading Psalm CXVII and the theme hymn was sung. Mrs. Carlisle welcomed the young folk who took charge of the proceedings of the meeting.

Miss Carol Beckett was in charge of the devotional. The hymn "Lord Thee, My God, I'll Early Seek," was sung, followed by the Lord's Prayer. Miss Jeanette Dracup read Psalm CXXI, after which Miss Beckett commented on this reading and closed with prayer. The hymn, "Praise Him, Praise Him, All Ye Little Children," was sung.

The roll call, "Your Favourite Bible Verse," brought out a great variety of verses. Miss Janette Dracup took up the collection which was dedicated by Mrs. Carlisle.

The minutes read by the Secretary, Mrs. Kenneth Tompkins, were approved. There was a brief discussion on the preparations for the catering to the wedding on Saturday.

Programme

The programme prepared by Miss Mary Dracup was as follows: Vocal solo, entitled "Crust," by Dawn Beckett. Ralph Dunham gave a reading, "Camp Meals." Miss Lois Morton rendered a vocal solo, "Somebody Up There Likes Me." Carol Seeley played a piano solo, "The Bat." Janette and Allen Dracup sang "I'll Do It All For Jesus." Gayle Hoover gave a piano solo, "The Last Rose of Summer." Janice and Valerie Clancy sang "Just a Closer Walk with Thee." Catherine Seeley gave the final number, a piano solo, entitled, "Man in the Moon."

Mrs. Carlisle thanked all those taking part or assisting with the meeting in any way, also Mrs. Dracup for opening her home for the meeting. Mrs. Carlisle closed with prayer.

Miss Bonna Dracup put on two contests for the adults and Nancy Tompkins entertained the younger ones outside with games.

Everyone enjoyed a social half hour while delicious refreshments were served by the hostess and her assistants.

OF MANY THINGS

(By Ambrose Hills)

RELIABILITY

Just at this moment I am so pleased with a large Winnipeg department store that I'd like to give them a plug in the column, but can't because it would be free advertising.

The reason I am pleased with them is that I bought an expensive item a couple of weeks ago, discovered when I got it to my cottage that it was defective. I should have returned it immediately, but didn't, because it was a nuisance. I just now got around to phoning the department involved and telling them about it. The response was just what I expected. Bring it in at your convenience and we'll credit your account with the full amount.

"And will you bawl out the manufacturer?" I said.

The lady on the other end of the line said, "We sure will. They put you to a lot of inconvenience, and that doesn't make you feel good about our store."

I wish the bawling out could go right down the line to the man who did the poor spot welding job on the machine, and to the inspector who let it get by. They'll possibly never know the grief they caused me, the sale they lost for the department store, and the loss their Company will take when the machine comes back to them.

Last week we bought three items for our cottage; and every single one of them had something wrong. A sprayer leaked. A water cooler leaked. This insect-catching gadget had faulty spot welding and tumbled from its perch. It was enough to disgust an otherwise amiable consumer.

All these items were Canadian made, because my wife and I had looked for items of Canadian manufacture. Usually, Canadian items seem to be sturdier and better suited to our climate. In these three cases, however, some workman had let me down . . . and let his country down a bit, too.

McAdam -- Sharpe Nuptials at Hoard's

A pretty smmer wedding was solemnized by the Rev. D. Mansell Smith, Campbellford, in Hoard's United Church on Saturday, August 4th at 2 p.m. The altar was decorated with baskets of pink, white and fuchia gladioli and the guest pews were depicted with white satin bows when Miss Olive Luella Annabelle Sharpe, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Carroll Sharpe, R.R. 3, Campbellford, became the bride of David Arthur McAdam, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry McAdam, of Stirling R.R. 3.

Mrs. Harry Grills, English Line, aunt of the bridal couple, provided traditional wedding music. Mrs. Frank Potts, Menie, was soloist. She rendered "The Wedding Prayer" before the ceremony and "I'll Walk Beside You" during the signing of the register.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, was radiant in a floor-length bridal gown of nylon lace and net with bouffant skirt over nylon tafetta. The fitted bodice featured cup sequins and similated pearls, a dainty scalloped neckline and long lily pointed sleeves. Her headdress was a tiny tiara of cultured seeded pearls interwoven with crystals which held a shoulder length embroidered tulle illusion veil. She carried a cascade bouquet of red roses.

Miss Diane McAdam, sister of the groom, was maid of honour. Misses Joan Sharpe, sister of the bride, and Miss Betty McAdam, sister of the groom, were junior bridesmaids. The attendants wore identical street-length dresses of romance blue nylon sheer and lace with fitted bodice and bouffant skirt. The dresses were lined with rayon tafetta and featured a pretty waistline effect of cummerbund in nylon sheer. They wore small hats with white velvet bows and veiling and carried white pompom 'mums tinted with baby blue.

Mr. Eric Sharpe, brother of the bride, was groomsman. The ushers were Messrs. Duane Chrysler, of Cobourg, cousin of the bride, and Fred McAdam, brother of the groom.

The reception was held in the dining hall of Hoard's United Church and the local U.C.W. catered to about seventy guests.

The bride's mother received her guests in a dress of pale blue lace embroidered in gold flowers. The groom's mother assisted wearing a blue lace dress. Each had identical cummerbund arrangements at the waist with a large matching bow at the back, white accessories and corsages of pink roses.

The bride's table was appointed with a white damask cloth, a three-tiered wedding cake set in white tulle and flanked with silver candelabra and white tapers. The all-white cake was adorned with a canopy of white bells. The wedding bouquets complemented the nuptial table.

The serviteurs were Misses Hazel Chrysler, Peterborough; Elizabeth Sharpe, Toronto; Violet Chrysler, of Hastings; Patsy Burkitt and Darlene Burkitt, Petherick's Corners, and Shirley Burkitt, Bonarlaw.

The bride chose for travelling around Lake Ontario via Ivy Lea Bridge and Niagara Falls a three-piece suit of pale green linen rayon, a cardigan jacket trimmed with bone coloured braid, matching overblouse, bone accessories and a corsage of yellow roses.

On their return they will reside at Oshawa.

Out-of-town guests were from Toronto, Oshawa, Cobourg, Lakefield, Belleville, Stirling, Campbellford, Peterborough, Petherick's Corners, Hastings, Bonarlaw and Harold.

Previous to her marriage the bride was the recipient of two step tables and a bathroom set from her fellow workers at the Elaine Shoe Plant, Stirling. She also was tendered a miscellaneous shower at the home of Mrs. Everett Parr and daughter Linda at Hoards. The groom was given a stag party at Menie Hall.

Cooking Comments

Fresh Ontario corn-on-the-cob . . . delicious, and even better when cooked outdoors. Food experts at Macdonald Institute, Guelph, suggest a method for baking in an open fire: Peel back the husks but do not tear off. Remove the silk and dab the kernels with butter, then roll back the husks to cover the cob. Wrap in a double thickness of kitchen foil and bake in the embers 10 to 30 minutes until the kernels are tender.

Honey is an excellent substitute for sugar say the food experts at Macdonald Institute, Guelph, but they add, there must be some changes in the recipes. For instance, in gingersnaps no more than ⅓ of the sugar may be replaced by honey. Brownies may have half the sugar replaced while fruit bars may have up to 2/3 of the sugar replaced by honey.

Loyalist Pioneer Leading Churchman In Early Kingston

Twenty-six years after British forces wrestled Fort Frontenac, at the headwaters of the St. Lawrence River, from the French in 1758 an American-born clergyman started the first Anglican parish in Upper Canada.

Today, a stone's throw from the spot where Rev. John Stuart built his little church, stands St. George's Cathedral where on August 22nd clergy and laymen from all over Canada will gather for the 21st General Synod of the Anglican Church of Canada.

Pushed into Canada by the American Revolution, Loyalist John Stuart in 1784 came to what he called a "howling wilderness" to be "Chaplain to the Forces" and "Curate." The Church owes a great debt to the blunt outspoken pioneer who at that time considered his parish extended as far west as the Niagara area and included Mohawk Indians who had also moved into Canada from the United States.

In 1788, Cataraqui, as Kingston was then known, had a population of 475, including 19 families profession membership in the Church of England. The first St. George's Church, a wooden structure painted blue, was erected in 1791. At the time Stuart was under the eccesiastical jurisdiction of Rt. Rev. John Inglis of Nova Scotia, Canada's first bishop. The see of Quebec was not established until 1793.

The second church was consecrated in 1828. A rectangular, stone building, it was enlarged in 1846 and a further addition was made in 1891 when its style was changed from Old Colonial to that of Decorated Classical and a dome was added.

St. George's became the cathedral when the Diocese of Ontario was established in 1862 . Disaster fell in 1899 when fire destroyed the interior. Restoration and a number of improvements took two years.

Rev. John Stuart was succeeded in 1812 by his son, Archdeacon George Okill Stuart. He was in charge until 1862 and so it came about that father and son covered and moulded the life of St. George's for three-quarters of a century.

Before Archdeacon Stuart took over, however, he had pioneered 150 miles to the west of Kingston. He was the first rector of St. James' Church — now St. James' Cathedral — in Toronto from 1800 until 1812 where he was followed by Rev. John Strachan who became the Toronto diocese's first bishop in 1839.

Today the Dean of the historic Cathedral Church of St. George is Very Rev. A. T. Briarly Browne who was appointed in 1945.

The Cathedral is noted for its male choir which is directed by George N. Maybee. In 1954 the choir was the first in Canada to be invited to Westminster Abbey where the men and boys were acclaimed for their singing during the month of August.

CBC CONFERENCE PLANNERS

Some 5000 women, from all walks of life, have registered for the forthcoming CBC conference, The Real World of Woman, to be held in Toronto September 6th to 9th. Miss Helen James, CBC supervisor of women's programmes (right) and Helen Carscallen, the conference organizer, pore over letters received from women across the country, indicating their interest in the event. The conference will consider the modern woman's role in contemporary society and will present speakers from the United States and Canada, including psychiatrists, sociologists and educationists. CBC will present coverage of the four-day conference on both radio and TV networks.

NEWS FOR THE BUSY FARMER

Furrow and Fallow By Fairbairn

The Ontario Department of Agriculture has assumed full responsibility for any provincial programmes under the Agricultural Rehabilitation and Development Act. Agriculture Minister Stewart has indicated the department's active role in ARDA by announcing that he intends to appoint a full-time director for the ARDA programme in the very near future. Ontario will be the first province to take this step. The ARDA director will co-ordinate the efforts of all provincial government departments concerned with rural development with those of the federal government.

Until recently, provincial programs planned under ARDA had been under the jurisdiction of the Department of Lands and Forests but strong representations by the Ontario Federation of Agriculture, which has wholeheartedly endorsed the ARDA programme, may have been responsible for this change in policy. An OFA committee under the chairmanship of vice-president, A. H. K. Musgrave, recently discussed the role of the federation in the ARDA programme with the minister and his deputy. Great emphasis is placed on the importance of local committees of people from rural communities who realize the needs of farm people in developing ARDA projects.

Recent top level changes in the Ontario Department of Agriculture reflect the continued emphasis by the government on farm marketing. This swing from production to marketing was first noticed under former Agriculture Minister Wm. Goodfellow with the appointment of Everett M. Biggs as Director of Marketing. Mr. Biggs is now Deputy Minister under Honourable Wm. A. Stewart who assumed the agriculture portfolio in the new cabinet formed by Prime Minister Robarts, elected the new leader of the PC party last fall. Now two assistant deputy ministers have been named: R. G. Bennett, former Chief of the Marketing Division, who will be in charge of the administrative detail of the department and W. P. Watson, former Chief of the Production and Extension Division.

Emphasis on marketing does not indicate any slackening the attention on production problems and developments. Mr. Watson who, incidentally, is a former livestock commissioner, will assist the deputy minister with the various technical services of the department.

Former assistant deputy minister, T. R. Hilliard was recently appointed Deputy Minister of the Department of Energy Resources of the Ontario Government. Another new appointment in agriculture is that of C. B. Schneller as Director of the Information Branch, a post that has been vacant since Glen Warlow returned to teaching at the O.A.C. last fall. Mr. Schneller is a graduate of the O.A.C. with a Master's degree from Cornell who has served as assistant agricultural representative in several Ontario Counties.

Last winter, the Minister also appointed a large committee to study the whole question of farm machinery — testing, inspection, parts depots and availability of spare parts. This is a large group representing farmers, manufacturers, distributors, dealers and engineering experts but it has been holding hearings and receiving and reviewing briefs. However, no report — even an interim one — is available as yet. Nor is there any indication that the provincial government is considering bringing in any kind of legislation regardless of the committee's findings.

It is extremely doubtful that a Progressive Conservative government in Ontario would follow the lead of a CCF government in Saskatchewan, which introduced an Act some years ago, even though both the Ontario Federation of Agriculture and the Farmers' Union have been pressing for legislation. While Mr. Stewart is sympathetic toward some of the farmers' requests, especially concerning the availability of spare parts, opposition to a farm machinery act by manufacturers, dealers and distributors is well organized and powerful. There is a feeling in certain groups that some of the farm groups' recommendations could be implemented without the introduction of an act.

WEED OF THE WEEK SERIES

FIELD BINDWEED

This weed, commonly known as field bindweed, wild morning glory, or creeping Jenny, is a perennial reproducing by seeds and creeping underground roots, according to the Field Crops Branch, of the Ontario Department of Agriculture.

There are about 200 species of bindweed that can be mistaken for field bindweed. In Ontario field bindweed infests rich cultivated land, grain fields and waste places. The leaves vary in size and shape but are somewhat arrow-shaped with smooth edges. Flowers that appear from June to September are morning glory shaped, one inch or less in diameter. The white or slightly pink and funnel-shaped flower is very picturesque to the casual observer but, to the farmer, it is distressing because he realizes that the presence of bindweed on his farm makes it necessary for very intensive control measures.

Field bindweed, because of its very extensive root system, is one of the most troublesome and difficult weeds to eradicate. The first method of control is based entirely on intensive cultivation and black summer fallowing on the infested areas, but this treatment has not given practical control. This method is very expensive because the soil has to be left barren for two years and worked every week during the summer months.

The second measure is the use of chemicals which have given fair success in some instances. The treatment involves a spray programme over a period of two years. The first treatment should be 8 ounces of 2,4-D amine in 10 to 20 gallons of water per acre when the first flowers appear (probably in mid-June). Spray re-growth with 2,4-DB at 16 ounces per acre in 10 to 20 gallons of water. For both of these treatments, drop nozzles on your sprayer will be essential.

For further information see Ontario Department of Agriculture Publication No. 75, "Guide to Chemical Weed Control" available from your local Agricultural Representative.

CONSERVATION NEWS

FOREST PROTECTION

Two small fires were reported and extinguished during the past week, one in the Township of McClure, north of Maynooth, and one in Abinger Township, north of Mazinaw Lake. Both fires were apparently caused by carelessness of campers.

The fire danger is medium and the public is urged to follow the regulations laid down by the Department of Lands and Forests. Do not smoke while walking in the bush. Use thermos bottles instead of lunch fires. Many fires have been caused by cigarettes thrown from car windows. Please use car ash tray and help in the effort to keep the forests green. Always be careful with fire.

TWEED DISTRICT PROVINCIAL PARKS

It is interesting to note that just over 323,000 people have visited the Tweed Provincial Parks since the middle of May to August 1st, 1962.

During the same period one year ago, 189,000 visitors were recorded. In other words our parks' use has increased to date by 71 per cent or 134,000 people and there remains two months during which park services will be maintained.

Our previous record was in 1959 when just under 360,000 visitations were recorded from May 15th to September 30th.

There are six Provincial Parks in the Tweed Forest District.

DUCK SEASON OPENS SEPT. 22nd

September 22nd will be an important date this year to all small game hunters. Most of our upland game (grouse, partridge and squirrel) may be hunted on this date as well as migratory game birds (ducks, geese, woodcock and snipe).

There have been a few changes in the Migratory Birds Convention Act this year and one extremely important change is the complete protection given to canvasbacks and redhead ducks. These two species have become seriously depleted due to unfavourable conditions on their breeding grounds. Every sportsman can help to restore these important game bird species to past status of abundance if they learn to recognize them and do not shoot any.

On the other hand, the wood duck is making a fine comeback and this year it is felt that their numbers have increased sufficiently to permit hunters to take two birds in their daily bag limit.

Records of farm business operations, along with analysis of these records can pinpoint weak areas that might be robbing you of extra profits, advise economists with the Ontario Department of Agriculture. Records let you assess your operations accurately, and pick the right answers to your farm business problems.

Hastings County Plowmen Plan Plowing Match

The Executive and Directors of the newly formed Hastings County Plowmen's Association met on Thursday evening, August 9th, in the Madoc Town Hall, to plan the Local Plowing Match for 1962. The Local Hastings County Plowing Match is being planned for Wednesday, September 26th in the Madoc area. This area was chosen after considerable discussion, in that it is more central for the county.

A request has been forwarded for coaching classes for the week prior to the Match, and it is hoped that coaching classes can be held in North Hastings, Central Hastings and South Hastings.

The President of the Association, Mr. Harleigh Hamilton, mentioned that many people have already inquired from him as to the possibility of making a donation to the newly formed Plowmen's Association, and he stated that any wishing to make donations or wishing to have demonstrations at the Local Match should contact Douglas Harry, Trenton; Gordon Davis, Greenview; Mac Wilson, Coe Hill; Tracey Adams, of L'Amable; Horce Knight, Belleville; Allan Ketcheson, Madoc; Earl Sager, Madoc; Joe Foley, of Madoc; Lorne Hagerman, Stirling; Griffin Ketcheson, Foxboro, and Harold Varty, of Tweed.

The next meeting of the Association is being planned for August 29, when further plans for the Local Plowing Match will be made.

Mrs. C. Thomson Entertains U.C.W.

Mrs. Clarence Thomson entertained the members of Rylstone United Church Women in her home on Wednesday afternoon, August 8th. There was an attendance of eighteen ladies and several children.

Mrs. Wilfred Spencer, President was in charge of the devotional part of the meeting and opened with the hymn "For the Beauty of the Earth," followed by the Lord's Prayer. The Scripture selection, I. Corinthians 1: 17-25, was read by Patsy Spencer. The meditaion and prayer was given by Mrs. Wilfred Spencer. Mrs. Will Rutherford conducted the Bible study on "Faith." The Apostle's Creed was read in unison.

Mrs. Ellis Jones was convenor for the balance of the programme. Readings were given by Mrs. Chester Meiklejohn; Take Time To Pray," by Mrs. Ray Stewart and "A Homily on Holidays," by Mrs. Jones. The meeting closed with a prayer by Mrs. Will Rutherford.

Sandwiches, pickles and tea were served by the hostess and refreshment committee.

The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Will Rutherford. Roll call will be answered by a Bible verse containing the word "Harvest." Programme committee will be Mrs. Cecil Finch and Mrs. Ross Dickie. Refreshment committee Mrs. Clarence Thomson and Mrs. Chester Meiklejohn.

Timely Tips

The grain auger is rapidly becoming recognized as an efficient and economical method of moving grain. With reasonable care there should be no accidents with this piece of equipment. However, warns Hay Wright, Farm Safety Specialist with the Ontario Department of Agriculture, Ontario farmers lost fingers in 1960. These accidents resulted in a loss of 500 days off work and a medical bill of $2,200. As with most machines, the auger does an excellent job when handled safely.

When selecting gilts or sows for future breeding stock, look for a disease-free herd, as well as for well-developed udders, sound teats, long deep sides, full hams, and large size for age, say swine researchers at the Ontario Agricultural College.

Let's Have The News

The Holiday Season is here, and it brings a steady stream of visitors to the community, while scores of local residents are holidaying at other points.

Every one of these visitors is a news item of interest to at least some of our readers and we are very anxious to receive these items. Send them in, or bring them in, phone them in, or if you live in the country, let your district correspondent know. We do not wish to miss these "comings and goings", but if someone doesn't tell us, how are we to know? May we count on your co-operation.

Mr. and Mrs. David McAdam Honoured

On Friday evening, August 10th, Mount Pleasant and Hoard's communities held a combination presentation party for the newlyweds, Mr. and Mrs. David McAdam in Mount Pleasant Church Hall. The hall was nicely adorned with a large basket of pink and white gladioli and some of the wedding floral arrangements.

Mr. Robert C. Hoard was master of ceremonies and extended best wishes to David and Olive. Miss Carol Sharpe led the sing-song with Miss Mary Ellen David as accompanist.

Selections were read by Lyle Couch, Mrs. Ron Parr, Miss Gail Whitton, and Mrs. Everett Parr. Miss Sally McAdam sang "It's Been So Long," with Miss Judith McAdam as accompanist. Piano selections were contributed by Misses Jean Sharpe, Judith Oddie and Barbara Williams.

The honoured couple were given seats at the front of the hall and Hugh Hoard read an appreciative address on behalf of Mount Pleasant community and Jim Johnson made the presentation of a purse of money.

Tom Thompson read another address on behalf of Hoard's community and Mrs. Jim Snarr made the presentation of a purse of money.

David and Olive voiced grateful thanks for the party and gifts. They also opened a few individual parcels from relatives and friends.

Rev. Gordon Whitehorne spoke briefly wishing the young couple every happiness along their matrimonial journey.

Refreshments were served and a social half hour enjoyed. The group extended their personal greetings to the newlyweds as they departed for home.

Charles E. Allen

Lodge Organist

Mr. Allen was a member of Royal Arthur Lodge, No. 254, A.F. & A.M., and was the lodge's organist. He was also a member of Peterborough Lodge of Perfection.

Born in Madoc 59 years ago Saturday, he was the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. William T. Allen. He was a graduate of Sherwood School of Music in Chicago and prior to going to Peterborough in 1945 he had been organist at the United Church in Leamington for seven years.

He was also an Elder in the George Street Church.

Surviving are his wife, the former Lillian McGuire, and one sister, Mrs. Jules (Emma) Hamre, of Bella Coola, British Columbia.

The funeral took place at George St. United Church, Peterborough, at 1.30 p.m. on Tuesday with the Rev. T. V. Hart in charge, assisted by the Rev. A. J. Calder.

Burial was in Belleville.

The pallbearers were Messrs James Goldie, Kenneth Mather, Jack Hales, Stanley Gilmour, Frank Petrie and Robert Aspinall. —Peterborough Examiner.

The late Mr. Allen was well and favourably known in Stirling and district, where he resided for a number of years prior to leaving for Leamington. While here he gave of his musical talent freely and in addition to teaching music was organist and choir leader of St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church. He was held in high regard by a wide circle of friends who mourn his untimely passing.

Mr. R. W. Meiklejohn is an uncle and Mrs. J. S. Whitehead a cousin of the deceased.

LEGION NOTES

Our branch is most indebted to a number of very good friends who have contributed a great deal to the success of the almost completed renovation of the Legion Hall. Many individuals ranging from associate members, private citizens, businessmen and regular members have donated money, materials and time to this very worthwhile cause. The branch recognizes that these various gifts are made sincerely in the interests of Stirling Legion, and not for any personal credit. For this reason the officers of the branch do not propose to list the names of such donors. However, the branch officers and executive extend a most sincere "thank you" to all who have contributed to the success of the renovation programme.

The local Legion Hall has undergone a thorough face-lifting program. Most of the work will be completed within the week. Only one major job remains at this time. That is the painting and re-surfacing of the floor. At present it is not certain whether time and funds can be found to complete this phase of the work.

The recently constructed "memory corner" in which hang the pictures of all local and district veterans who gave their lives in both World Wars, is a unique feature of the interior. We know of no other Legion in Ontario which has anything approaching this idea. The wall is finished in a striking butternut plywood effect and the pictures are centred around a white cross and poppies. On either side of the cross are two scrolls on which are inscribed the names of our fallen comrades. The corner is specially illuminated by a neon fixture. It is hoped that the parents and relatives of our fallen comrades will soon be afforded the opportunity of viewing this most impressive memorial.

The memorial corner not only perpetuates the memory of the fallen in two World Wars, but it serves to remind all veterans who enter the building of the real aims and objects of the Legion.

There is enough work yet remaining that two or three good-sized work parties are required at the hall. The next three Tuesdays will be important work nights. Let's have a real good turnout. Be on hand about 8.00 p.m.

The work has gone so well, and the branch has received so much assistance, that it was felt advisable to complete the renovation programme by purchasing enough drapery material to cover the west windows of the hall. Several wives of Legion members have volunteered to make the new drapes. These are expected to add much to the finished appearance of the interior; and the branch is most indebted to the ladies who are undertaking this task.

Stirling Branch was well represented at the Zone Drumhead Service held in Marmora last Sunday. To those comrades who attended. The branch expresses its sincere appreciation.

Agreement Reached Between Bay of Quinte and Local High School Boards

Purchase of Daylight Projector Authorized At Local Board Meeting Mon. Night

The matter of the attendance of pupils in the Oak Lake area at the Stirling-Rawdon High School has been amicably settled between the Bay of Quinte and the local High School Boards, according to a communication tabled at the regular meeting of the Stirling-Rawdon District High School Board on Monday night.

Dr. R. B. Murray presided and he was supported by Messrs. H. Morrow, R. Mallory, Don Rodgers and James Johnston.

At a joint meeting of the Stirling-Rawdon and Quinte District High School Boards held July 31st, at which the matter was discussed at considerable length, the Bay of Quinte Board passed the following motion:

"That children residing in the northern part of the 7th Concession of Sidney and the Oak Lake road be allowed to attend Stirling High School with the Bay of Quinte Board paying tuition costs to the Stirling-Rawdon Board, effective September 1st, 1962, but not transportation or other costs. These costs will be only paid to December 31st, 1963, if steps were taken by the appropriate authorities to have the aforementioned part of S.S. No. 20 transferred from Bay of Quinte High School District to the Stirling-Rawdon High School District, effective January 1st, 1964, with the implication thereby being given that, if for any reason this part of S.S. No. 20 did not become a part of Stirling-Rawdon Area on January 1st, 1964, this Board would expect all pupils in the area in question either to attend Belleville Secondary Schools, or if they attend schools outside of this district, it would be at their parents' expense, with these arrangements to be effective September 1st, 1963."

A request from R. Marbry for the purchase of a daylight projector for use in the Geography room was granted on motion of Messrs. R. Mallory and J. Johnston.

Caretaker Report

J. Irish gave his report on the work done at the school during the holiday period and reminded the Board of a previous request for a suitable flag pole. The matter will receive the attention of the property committee.

The condition of the playground was also discussed and plans were made to have it worked up ready for seeding. It was also pointed out that some of the floors in the school were being damaged by persons wearing spike heels and steps will be taken to overcome the situation.

Mr. Irish also pointed out the need of a new lawn mower before another season and that he had the boiler awaiting the inspector's visit which had been expected for some time.

It was decided to advertise for tenders on the supply of fuel oil for the 1962-63 school year.

The following accounts were presented for payment, and passed on motion of Messrs. H. Morrow and R. Mallory:

Stirling Lumber Ltd., $132.98; Canadian Readers' Book Club, $10.66; Livesey's, $10.31; Bell Telephone, $59.53; Hatton Hardware, $10.50; McIntosh & Wells, $1.00; Stirling Public Utilities, $110.78.

The various bus drivers, Messrs. R. Philp, F. Smith, R. Shortt and R. Geen were invited into the meeting and a lengthy discussion followed on the various routes. Final arrangements will be completed later.

Bowl at Campbellford

Mrs. D. Ackers, Mrs. A. Brooks and Mrs. B. Woodbeck attended the Ladies' Trebles tournament in Campbellford on Monday. They won two games but did not get into the prize circle.

First Instalment Village Taxes

Returns from the Village Clerk-Treasurer's office show that less than 50 per cent of the ratepayers paid the first instalment of their taxes by August 15th. The total roll is $118,709.67 and the payments amounted to $57,618.90. A penalty is charged for delinquent payments.

Stirling -- Foxboro Area Raises $1656

The Stirling-Foxboro area in the Belleville District raised $1656 for the Canadian Cancer Society in the canvas held recently. The Belleville quota was $11,000, and as of July 31st $11,614 or 105.5 per cent of the objective had been attained. The Stirling-Foxboro area committee has done a splendid job.

"The objective could not have been reached if it weren't for the tremendous effort put forth by all those concerned," said J. V. Holt, chairman of the Stirling-Foxboro campaign.

Anyone still wishing to contribute to the campaign may do so my leaving (or mailing) their donation with J. V. Holt or Eugene Burrell, Stirling.

Transferred

Denton Shortt, of Stirling, who has been on the Bank of Montreal Staff in Picton for some time, has been transferred to an Ottawa Eranch. He began his new duties this week.

Rita Priscilla McAvoy and Montcalm Joseph Lalonde Exchange Vows

Rev. F. J. O'Neill Officiates at Double-Ring Ceremony at St. James Church

St. James the Minor Church, Stirling, was the scene of a pretty wedding on Saturday, August 11th, at 10 a.m. when Rita Priscilla, daughter of Mrs. Philip McAvoy and the late Mr. McAvoy, became the bride of Montcalm Joseph Lalonde, son of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Lalonde, Midland, Ont. Rev. F. J. O'Neill officiated at the double-ring ceremony.

The church altar was adorned with pink and white gladioli, with a background of ferns. The guest pews were marked with white bows.

Sister Mary Carmel Teresa, of Tweed, was organist and soloist, singing "Ave Maria," "Mother at Your Feet is Kneeling," "Oh Lord, I Am Not Worthy," and "On This Day."

Given in marriage by her brother, Mr. Dan McAvoy, Ivanhoe, the bride was radiant in a gown of white silk organza over rayon taffeta, designed with fitted bodice, scoop neckline, bustled back with chapel train and long lily-pointed sleeves. A flowered tiara of roses held her bouffant shoulder-length veil of nylon tulle illusion featuring embroidered edging and she carried a bouquet of white feathered carnations mingled with stephanotis and ivy. She wore a single strand of pearls and matching earrings, the gift of the groom.

The bride was attended by her three sisters, Miss Helen M. McAvoy, as maid of honour, and Mrs. Richard Bashall, of Belleville, and Miss Roseanne McAvoy, Ivanhoe, as bridesmaids. They were similarly attired in white eyelet embroidered organza over blue taffeta, designed with full skirt accented with a bow at the waist, scooped neckline and short sleeves. They wore pill box hats with short blue nylon tulle veiling, with matching gloves, and carried baskets of white and blue tinted shasta daisies.

Miss Sandra M. LaChappelle, Stirling, niece of the bride, was flower girl and was attired in a short white lace dress featuring full skirt, puff sleeves, wide blue taffeta sash and matching blue petal headdress. She carried a basket of blue and white tinted baby 'mums.

Mr. Don Beauchamp, of Midland, was best man and the guests were ushered by Mr. Richard Bashall, of Belleville, brother-in-law of the bride and Mr. Ronald Robittaille, Midland, brother-in-law of the groom.

The reception was held at the Stirling Community Hall, where the bride's table was appointed with a white linen cloth, a three-tiered wedding cake, white candles and bridal bouquet.

The bride's mother received her guests in a two-piece blue ensemble of rayon silk, with matching accessories and corsage of pink carnations. She was assisted by the groom's sister, Mrs. Alfret Piitz, of Oshawa, who wore a beige and gold sheath dress, with matching accessories and corsage of white carnations.

For a trip to Montreal, Quebec and the Laurentians, the bride chose a light blue linen sheath dress, matching three-quarter length coat, featuring cut-away collar and elbow length sleeves, and white hat, with matching accessories and a corsage of white gladioli.

Out-of-town guests were present from Midland, Toronto, Oshawa, Montreal, Peterborough, Tweed, Chatham, Belleville and points in Manitoba and Michigan.

The couple will reside at 206 7th Street, Midland, Ont.

Prior to the wedding the bride was honoured at a linen shower at the home of Mrs. John Kerby, Ivanhoe; a cup and saucer shower by the Catholic Women's League of St. James the Minor Church, while Miss Betty Beauchamp, of Midland, entertained friends in her honour and presented her with a lovely coffee table.

Local Cheesemaker Winner At C.N.E.

Donald J. Pollock, cheesemaker at the Evergreen Cheese Factory, was among the prize winners in the cheese competition at the Canadian National Exhibition, Toronto, last week.

In the factory white, not less than 75 pounds, made during June, 1962, Mr. Pollock scored second, and in factory coloured, made during July 1962, he won third.

Stirling Falcons Eliminated

Stirling "Falcons" were eliminated from the O.A.S.A. Junior play-offs last week, when they dropped two games to Havelock. In the first game played here the visitors won 5 to 2 and in the second game played in Havelock Saturday night the homesters won 4-3.

Local and Personal

Mrs. J. B. Ford, Mrs. W. Kingston and Miss Dorothy Kingston, all of Campbellford; Mrs. Fred Harrison, Belleville, and Miss Pearl Whitton, Toronto, were Sunday afternoon callers of Mrs. Hugh Morton.

Stirling Midgets Eliminated By Cornwall in Two Straight Games

Stirling Midgets were eliminated from further activity in the Ontario Amateur Softball Association play-offs on Tuesday night when they were defeated 11-1 by Cornwall. The winners won the first game played in Cornwall on Saturday by a score of 5 to 3.

Before the largest crowd of the season the local kids put on their poorest display. The visitors took a 2-0 lead in the second inning and in the third shoved across seven runs when the locals committed a flock of errors. Thompson replaced Jeffs, who started the game, and blanked the winners with the exception of the 7th inning when they added two more runs on a single and a homer by Murphy. Stirling got its lone run in the third inning. They filled the bases in the 4th but a double play ended the threat.

Beehler was on the mound for the winners.

First Game at Cornwall

In the first game of the second round of the O.A.S.A. Midget playdowns played in Cornwall on Saturday afternoon Stirling was defeated by the homesters by a score of 5 to 3. A large crowd of fans was present to witness a thrilling game.

Stirling took a 2-0 lead in the first inning which they held until the 6th when the homesters scored five runs. A walk, two errors and a homer by Murphy accounted for the runs. Stirling scored one in the 8th and had a man on second in the ninth as a result of Thompson's double but couldn't push him across. Inability to hit in the pinches cost Stirling the game.

Howard Jeffs was on the mound for Stirling and pitched excellent ball. Boisvenue, the winning pitcher, grew stronger as the game progressed and his change of pace baffled the Stirling hitters throughout.

Lineups

Cornwall — Greggain, ss; Nazar, 2b; Murphy, 3b; Murray, 1b; McAlear, c; Woodward, lf; Sliter, cf; Pat Murray, rf; Boisvenue, p.

Stirling — J. Noble, ss; Potts, 3b; Donohoe, 2b; Wrightman, cf; Jeffs, p; Rogers, 1b; Smith, c; Morrow, rf; Hagerman, lf. Thompson pinch hit in the ninth.

Citizens Urged To Attend Tuberculin Detection Clinic Wednesday Next

In Stirling Community Hall — Mrs. D. M. Armstrong, Chairman Local Committee

On Wednesday next, August 29th, in the Stirling Community Hall, the Hastings County Tuberculosis Association in conducting a tuberculin detection survey for citizens in Stirling and district.

The relatively new "Heaf" method of testing, which is absolutely painless, will be used by a team of specially trained nurses. This test will indicate if any person has ever been in contact with tuberculosis. It will not show active disease but all persons who show a reaction will be X-rayed, as well as all persons over 40 years of age, as it is in the latter age group that the incidence of other lung and chest abnormalties is located.

A local commitee has been appointed with Mrs. D. M. Armstrong as area chairman; Mrs. G. B. Noble in charge of the clinic; Mrs. A. Fraser, in charge of supplies, and Mrs. W. T. Elliott in charge of publicity.

Members of the committee attended a general meeting of the district held in Batawa on Wednesday night, when instructions for holding the various clinics were given.

Clinic Is Free

Individual cards on which particulars are recorded will be delivered to citizens prior to holding the clinic, but should anyone be missed they will be available at the clinic. The local committee wishes it emphasized that the clinic is free and it is hoped that at least 85 per cent of the citizens will avail themselves of this opportunity.

Dr. Wm. Hipwell, local Medical Officer of Health, in conversation with the News-Argus, emphasized that all citizens, particularly those over 40 years of age, should attend the clinic on Wednesday next. (See page three for advertisement with particulars).

Friday Night Opening Adopted By Business Men

Stirling will join those towns and villages where stores are open Friday nights and closed Saturday nights according to a decision reached at a well attended meeting of business men in the Council Chambers Tuesday night.

In adopting this plan Stirling is but following the trend in most places in this area and across the province in general.. While some of the food stores in town have been staying open both Friday and Saturday nights, commencing September 7th next there will only be Friday opening night. A vote by ballot showed thirteen businessmen in favour of the change and only three opposed.

Plebiscite Discussed

A lengthy discussion also ensued on the matter of holding a plebiscite for the establishment of a liquor outlet in the Village. Various speakers voiced their opinions and on a vote by ballot twenty-one were for a plebiscite and six against. The result will be communicated to the Village Council along with a request for a vote on the question.

August Meeting Springbrook United Church Women

The August meeting of Springbrook United Church Women was held at the Church on the second.

After the welcome by the President, Mrs. R. Wellman, she opened with the poem "I Shall Not Pass This Way Again." The theme hymn was sung.

The worship period was conducted by Mrs. H. Haslett, using the theme "Praise for God's Wisdom." Mrs. Haslett read a poem. Mrs. W. Rathwell read the Scripture Lesson. The theme thoughts were given by Mrs. Haslett, followed by the Lord's Prayer. "In Christ There is No East or West" was sung. The collection was gathered by Mrs. G. Broadworth and dedicated by Mrs. R. Wellman. Mrs. Haslett closed the worship service with a prayer.

The topic, "God's Care," was prepared by Mrs. G. Williams and given by Mrs. P. Smith.

Twenty-two members answered the roll call by naming a Bible promise. A letter was received from Mrs. Smithrim, President of Belleville Presbytery. She has promised to speak at the bazaar in September, using the topic, "First Things First." A letter of thanks was received from the bale sent, and also stating that men's and boys' clothing is still in very short supply, and that money is always acceptable.

The visiting committee for July was Mrs. P. Bateman and Mrs. G. Broadworth, the latter giving the report of calls made to the hospital and visiting of the sick and shut-ins in the community. Mrs. C. Spry and Mrs. W. McInroy will be the visiting committee for August.

The President again reminded the ladies of the First School Conference to be held at Whitby August 20th to 24th for the Bay of Quinte Conference. The ladies who wish to go to the Tuesday sessions are asked to contact the President.

After considerable discussion it was decided to donate $200 to the Springbrook Church Parsonage Committee to help with needed repairs. The members also decided to set up a fund for the Springbrook U.C. Women's Parsonage Committee. Mrs. E. Spry gave a donation to help purchase a new piece of furniture for the parsonage.

Programme

The programme consisted of a solo by Miss Jewel Bailey, "Stories of Jesus," accompanied on the piano by Mrs. C. Sine. Mrs. E. Spry gave a reading, "Who Is Wrong?" Mrs. M. Bateman conducted a contest, "Picture Puzzle." Mrs. D. Fleming conducted a contest "Mothers and Sons of the Bible" and candy was given to the winners.

The hostesses, Mrs. L. Bailey and Mrs. C. Reid and their assistants served refreshments cafeteria style and a social half hour was enjoyed by all.

Eggleton Women Met At Church

The August meeting of Eggleton United Church Women was held at the Church on Thursday afternoon with the President presiding over a programme which she and Miss Joyce Stapley had prepared.

Mrs. W. Harlow opened the meeting by reading two lovely poems, "He Smiled" and "Friendship," followed by the hymn "Take My Life and Let It Be" with Mrs. Maurice Clancy at the piano.

The worship service was conducted by Mrs. S. Prest who read for the Scripture lesson part of the 12th chapter of St. Mark. Mrs. M. Clancy gave the commentary and the closing prayer was offered by Mrs. William McMullen.

A poem, "Speak Out For Christ," was read by Mrs. Forde Stapley. The Corresponding Secretary, Mrs. Clarence Fitchett, called the roll showing 9 members and 2 children present and also read the letters received. Little Sandra Stapley gathered the offering.

Mrs. Bruce Stapley reported on cards sent out; also on one call made during the past month. Flowers are to be sent to Mrs. R. Danford who is a patient in Belleville Hospital.

The members were requested to shop early for Christmas gifts for the little Indian children at Curve Lake. These parcels are to be handed in at the September meeting.

Mrs. Wm. McMullen offered her home for the next meeting to be held on September 6th. Mrs. Bruce Stapley was appointed to prepare the programme.

The members decided to meet and clean the church on September 12th.

The chapter "Emila" from the study book was presented by Mrs. B. Stapley.

The Supply Secretary, Mrs. Forde Stapley, requested that members hand in their used nylon hose as these were still being sent overseas.

An interesting contest, "Books of the Bible," was conducted by Mrs. W. Harlow. After the closing hymn all repeated the U.C.W. Benediction.

T.B. Infection Still A Threat

In Ontario today a number of people were infected with tuberculosis. The same number were infected yesterday and another group will breathe in infecting TB germs tomorrow.

In stating these facts Dr. G. G. Brearley of Hastings County stressed that newly-infected persons experience a particularly dangerous period of about two years.

"During these 2 years," the doctor explained, "a noticeable percentage of the people infected annually will prove incapable of handling the infection and will break down with active tuberculosis."

He said the great majority of the newly infected will successfully encase the germs in their lungs in thick-walled nodules called tubercles. "They will be safe from TB providing they maintain supremacy over the action of the germs. However, if their bodies undergo severe stress or strain this supremacy may be lost."

"I want it understood that 'infection' does not mean active disease.' Active cases are diagnosed from chest X-rays and require immediate medical attention in sanatorium. On the other hand, infection is indicated by means of a simple tuberculis test available from any doctor and will be available during the forthcoming Mass Tuberculosis Survey. If a person is infected, he should obtain a yearly chest X-ray. Then any evidence of active TB would be plain to see and treatment could begin at once."

"Our concern," Dr. G. G. Brearley emphasized, "is for persons who, probably without knowing they are ill, are infecting other people in Ontario. They also provide re-infection for thousands more and this re-infection could be disease-producing."

"Tuberculosis is by no means a disease of the past," said the doctor. "It is here with us in the present; it could be with us for a long time in the future."

Mrs. Robt. Wallace and Mrs. H. Wallace Hostess To W.I.

The August meeting of the Wellman's Women's Institute was held at the home of Mrs. Robert Wallace and Mrs. Howard Wallace on the 15th with fourteen ladies and three children present.

The First Vice-President, Mrs. Elmer Cotten, opened the meeting at 2 p.m. with the Institute Ode, followed by the Lord's Prayer. The minutes of the last meeting were read by the Secretary and approved. She also read the correspondence which included a letter from Mrs. B. Wannamaker. The Institute members accepted her invitation to view her antiques the last Thursday in August.

Mrs. Omar Dracup gave the current events. Mrs. Craig Watson and Mrs. Wm. Fleming contributed to the Birthday Box and "Happy Birthday" was sung. The roll call "An inducement to keep young people on the farm," was well answered by those present. The motto, "If you plant a seed of kindness in the home it will bloom in the community," was well prepared and given by Mrs. Burton Morton and much enjoyed by all.

Programme

The programme was arranged by the convenor, Mrs. Jim Pollock, who gave a poem entitled, "Sick Bed Vacation."

The topic, "The use of farm products in industry," was given by Mrs. Ken Tompkins. She covered every phase of farm products from vegetables grown under the ground to those above including all grains. She also dealt thoroughly with all farm animals telling how all the different parts are used in different industries.

Miss Mary Dracup favoured with a solo, "Paper Roses." Mrs. Doug Clancy conducted a bird contest.

The collection was taken. Mrs. Cotten voiced thanks to the hostesses for opening their home and also to those who helped in the programme.

The meeting closed with the Institute Creed followed by the Queen.

Fuller -- O'Neill Wedding at Belleville

On Saturday, August 4th, at 3 p.m. a very pretty wedding was solemnized in Eastminster United Church, Belleville, when the Rev. Alexander McDowell, paster of the church, united in marriage, Diane Margaret O'Neill, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John O'Neill, of Belleville, and formerly of Stirling, to Gordon Edward Fuller, of Shannonville, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ross Fuller. Baskets of white gladioli adorned the chancel, and white satin bows the guest pews.

The wedding music was provided by Mrs. Rennie, of Belleville, who accompanied Miss Shirley Fisher, as she sang before the ceremony, "Because" and "The Wedding Prayer," during the signing of the register.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was radiant in her full-length bridal gown of white nylon silk over taffeta featuring a lace bodice with scalloped neckline and long pointed sleeves. The full skirt was accented at the back with tiers of lace cascading into a semi-train, embroidered with seed pearls and sequins. She wore a tiara encrusted with seed pearls and white, over-the-face veil in waist-length, and carried a bouquet of red roses mingled with ivy.

The bride was attended by Miss Caroline Howe, of Belleville, as maid of honor; by Miss Kathy Gibson, of Ameliasburg, and Miss Anne Loucks, of Stirling, as senior bridesmaids, and by Miss Jackie O'Neill, of Belleville, youngest sister of the bride, as junior bridesmaid. All were gowned alike in yellow nylon chiffon over silk, fashioned with fitted bodices having scooped neckline, short sleeves and full short skirts with tucked-effect fronts. They wore rose petal headdresses matching their gowns, with over-the-face veils, and carried cascades of mauve and yellow 'mums.

Mr. Ted Marshall, of Oshawa, was groomsman, and Mr. Ronald Pollard, of Tantoul, Illinois, and Mr. Douglas Fuller, of Shannonville, ushered the guests.

The reception was held in the church parlor, where the bridal table was appointed with its white damask and centred by the wedding cake flanked with tall yellow candles in crystal holders and surrounded by the bridal bouquets. The guest tables were adorned with rose bowls of yellow roses.

The bride's mother wore turquoise sheath of silk organza with matching duster, white accessories and corsage of pink roses. She was assisted in the receiving line by the bridegroom's mother, gowned in rose lace over taffeta, with beige accessories and corsage of bronze 'mums.

For the wedding trip to Montreal, Quebec and the United States, the bride chose a yellow linen suit with white accessories and corsage of bronze and white 'mums.

Guests were present from Tantoul, Illinois; Toronto, Oshawa, Stouffville, Markham, Stirling, Belleville, Shannonville, Hamilton and London.

A miscellaneous shower prior to the marriage was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Loucks, and daughter, Anne, of Stirling, with Mrs. Ira Campbell, of Belleville, as co-hostess; a dinner party was held at Maple Inn, Bloomfield, by the office staff of the International Hardware, when she was presented with lamps. A linen shower was also given at her home by Miss Kathy Gibson; a dinner party held at Johnny's Restaurant, by her girl friends, with Miss Caroline Howe as hostess, and at a presentation of blue Mountain China vases and ash tray by the International Hardware Company.

Mr. and Mrs. Fuller will reside at 458 Simcoe Street, Oshawa.

Entered Into Rest

JOSEPH STANLEY BATEMAN

Ill for the past week with a heart condition, Joseph Stanley Bateman, R.R. 2, Tweed, prominent farmer and lifelong resident of the district, died in the Belleville General Hospital on Friday morning, August 17th, 1962.

He was born in Tweed, 63 years ago, being the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. William John Bateman and had been a resident of the community all his life. In early life he took up farming and entered into the affairs of the community.

He was an active member of the Conservative party and fraternally was a member of Thomasburg IOOF. He was a Past Noble Grand of the lodge and also a Past District Deputy Grand Master.

Mr. Bateman was a member of St. John's United Church in Tweed and is survived by his wife, the former Mary Edna Elliott, two sons, William Ross Bateman, of Glen Miller; Carl Elliott Bateman, County Clerk of Hastings, Belleville, and four sisters, Mrs. Murney (Margaret) Geen, of Thomasburg; Mrs. Earl (Lena) Holland, Madoc; Mrs. James (Sarah) Gunning and Mrs. William (Stella) Woods, both of Tweed. A sister, Mrs. William (Grace) Eaton and a brother, Ernest Bateman are predeceased.

The funeral took place from the W. M. Bush Funeral Home, Tweed, on Sunday, August 19th to St. John's United Church for service at 2.30 p.m. Rev. James Payton officiated.

Interment Thomasburg Cemetery.

ERNEST ALFRED WILKS

The funeral of Ernest Alfred Wilks was conducted in Christ Church, Campbellford, on Monday, by the Rev. R. M. Verity. Mr. Wilks passed away at his home on Queen Street, Campbellford, on Friday, August 10th following an illness of about three months. He was 52 years of age.

Born in Campbellford, the son of Sidney George Wilks and the late Florence Annie Royfee, he had attended Campbellford schools and for the past 35 years had been employed at Rutherford's Dairy. He was a man of outstanding personal character, and a friend to many. During his earlier years he was athletic, his interest centering chiefly on hockey and softball.

Surviving, besides his father, are his wife, the former Betty Sine, of Rawdon Township; three children, George, Janette and Elizabeth, at home; three brothers, John and Leslie, of Campbellford, and Roy, of Toronto; and four sisters, Mrs. G. C. (Lillian) Masters, of Toronto; Mrs. Gordon (Beatrice) Barker, of Havelock; Mrs. W. T. (Frances) Ellis, of Willowdale, and Mrs. James (Jean) Carr, Brighton.

The funeral was largely attended.

The pallbearers were Messrs. Bernard Coveney, Don Pollock, James T. Clarke, Wallace Rutherford, Harry Dooher and Charles Shaw.

Interment was in Mount Pleasant Cemetery, Campbellford.

Tell some people you can't get along without them and before long you can't get along with them.

Adams--Wanamaker Reunion Held at Tweed Park

Sunny skies and mild temperatures made an ideal day for the nice picnic and lovely get-together at the Tweed Memorial Park on Sunday, August 12th, when the second Adams — Wanamaker reunion was held.

Over one hundred members of the two families sat down to a basket lunch at noon, with a much smaller number present for supper.

Following the lunch hour the members sat around visiting and renewing acquaintances, while the younger folk enjoyed themselves at the slides; swings and in the water.

The Guest Register held the names of many from distant points — Brantford, Toronto, Deseronto, Wellington, Belleville, Trenton, Bloomfield, Stirling, Springbrook, Marmora, Madoc, McArthur's Mills and Ormsby.

Among those present was Mrs. James Bremner (nee Phoebe Wannamaker), who will celebrate her 90th birthday anniversary on December 30th of this year; while the youngest person on the grounds was three months old Kenneth Edward Wanamaker, son of Mr. and Mrs. Emil Wanamaker, of Eldorado.

Those responsible for the plans and success of an enjoyable gathering are to be congratulated on the fine job they did in making this reunion a success.

Among those attending from Stirling and district were Mr. and Mrs. Ira Bristol, Mrs. Percy Gordon, Mr. and Mrs. Nathan Wannamaker and Mr. and Mrs. Ernie Wanamaker.

The committee hopes for a larger attendance next year as some were ill and unable to attend the picnic.

Local 171 Ontario Farmers' Union

The August meeting of Local 171 of the Ontario Farmers' Union was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Williams. Murney Bateman was chairman and opened the meeting with the singing of the Queen.

A letter from Central Office was read. It contained the results of a marketing questionnaire which had been presented earlier in the summer.

Jeanne Williams attended the National Farmers' Union Convention in Saskatoon and gave a brief report. She also reported that Hastings and Prince Edward Counties Farmers' Unions are planning a picnic for August. All members are urged to attend. A ball game and a tug of war between the two countries is planned, also races and other entertainment.

Some time was spent discussing resolutions.

Murney Bateman thanked Mr. and Mrs. Williams for the use of their home. It was decided to hold the next meeting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ted Wilson.

The ladies served lunch and a social time was spent.

Carmel U.C.W

Mrs. Frank Keating was hostess for the August meeting of the United Church Women held in the Church Hall on Thursday afternoon when twenty-three members and visitors were in attendance.

The President, Mrs. Jack Armstrong, opened the meeting with a poem and the hymn "All That Dwell Below the Skies" and prayer.

The devotional was taken from the topic folder. Mrs. Clayton Stapley gave a topic on "Travelling and Tourist Attractions in Ontario."

Mrs. Arthur Pyear was in charge of the programme. Patricia Stapley gave a reading. Sandra Hagerman played a piano number. Linda Justus sang a solo and Suzanne Bailey conducted a "Harvest" contest.

The hostess served lunch and appreciation was expressed.

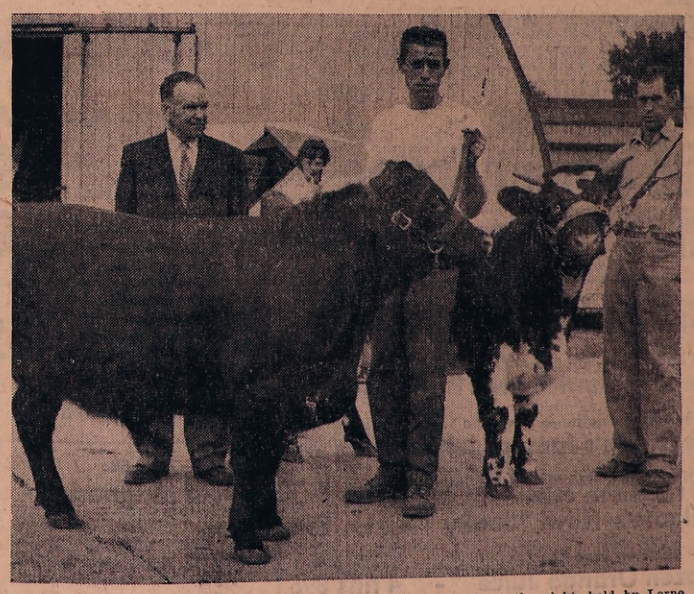
H. C. BIRD BUYS CHAMPION BEEF AT BELLEVILLE FAIR



BEEFSTEAKS — That is what these two championship steers at the Belleville Fair are going to be. Grand champion steer at the fair was the Shorthorn in the foreground, of Massey-Ferguson farms at Milliken, managed by Wm. Sutherland, formerly of Stirling; while reserve grand champion is at the right, held by Lorne Pimmett, of Indian River. Third man in the picture is Harold Bird, Stirling, butcher and grocery store owner, who purchased the two beef animals.

Announcement

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Barlow (nee Joan Green), Belleville, wish to announce the arrival of their chosen daughter, Roberta Joan.

Married

PREST — Green — At Madoc, Ont., on Friday, July 27th, 1962, Maltilda Green, to Mr. Wm. G. Prest, both of Springbrook, Ont.

In Memoriam

McGEE — In loving memory of my dear husband, Reginald Lowe McGee, who passed away August 26th, 1961.

We walked together, you and I
In sorrow and in joy
We shared our pains and happiness
With love without alloy.
And death shall never end our love
For through the mist I see
Our glad reunion in the skies
For all eternity.

—Sadly missed and lovingly remembered by his wife Lillian 24-1

McGEE — In loving memory of a dear father, Reginald Lowe McGee, who passed away August 26th, 1961.

We lost a Dad with a heart of gold,
Who was more to us than wealth untold;
Without farewell he fell asleep,
With only memories for us to keep.
We have lost, but God has gained
One of the best Dads the world contained,
Loving and kind in all his ways,
Upright and just in all his days,
Sincere and true in heart and mind
Beautiful memories he left behind.

—Ever remembered by daughter and son-in-law, Donna and Doug Coughlan. 24-1

McGEE — In loving memory of our Grandpa.

Father, in Thy gracious keeping
Do we leave our loved one sleeping.
Loving Jesus in heaven above,
Please give our grandpa all our love.

—Lovingly remembered by grandchildren Jane and Paul Coughlan. 24-1

STEVENSON — In loving memory of Charles Wesley Stevenson, Detroit, Mich., who passed away August 24th, 1961.

We little knew when we woke that morn
The sorrow the day would bring;
For the call was sudden, the shock severe;
To part with one we loved so dear.

—Sadly missed by his wife Rosana, brother-in-law Harold Reid and family. 24-1

CARD OF THANKS

24-1 Joyce and Karen Elaine Clancy

CARD OF THANKS

The family of the late W. H. Hanna wish to convey to all their relatives, friends and neighbours their sincere thanks for all the many acts of kindness, floral tributes and cards at the time of the sudden death of their father and brother.

Thos. and Faye Hanna and family
Alta and Ernest Carr and family
Mrs. Minnie Barker 24-1

CARD OF THANKS

My grateful thanks to all my neighbours, friends and relatives who sent me cards, flowers, fruit and candy; also for your prayers during my stay in hospital and since returning home. A special "thank you" to the patients and staff of the Prindle Nursing Home, to Grace Chapel, to Dr. Briggs and to the nurses and staff of first east, Belleville General Hospital. "May God bless you all."

24-1p Mrs. Ken Broadworth

CARD OF THANKS

A very sincere thanks to friends, relatives, neighbours and Rawdon AOTS Club, who so kindly remembered me with cards, letters and flowers during my stay in Belleville General Hospital and after I came home. Thanks to Hazel Akins, Grace Cotten and Lucille Beckett who gave baking to my family and helped our daughter with the housework. Special thanks to Drs. Hipwell, Buchard and Beatty; also nurses on second east for their wonderful care and understanding. To you all my sincerest thanks.

24-1p Mrs. Burton White

On Saturday the four Mount Pleasant ballplayers who are members of the Stirling Midgets, namely Kenneth Smith, Allen Wrightman, Howard Jeffs and Douglas Potts; also Messrs. Herbert Smith, David Potts and Robt. Neal, Mr. and Mrs. Milford Wrightman, Mrs. Frank Wrightman, Mrs. Burton Sharpe and Mrs. Irvine Potts, journeyed by chartered bus to the Cornwall ball diamond. The score was 5-3 in favour of Cornwall. The return game was played in Stirling Tuesday evening with the visitors winning by a 11-1 score.

Mr. and Mrs. Milford Wrightman entertained on Friday Dr. and Mrs. G. L. Hadley, Jane, Joanne, Craig and Keitha, of Niagara Falls; Mr. Jack Farrar and daughter Donna Marie and Mrs. A. A. Farrar and Mrs. Frank Wrightman, Trenton.

SOME AUGUST TREATS

Come August days, gardens, fields, and orchards are beginning to give forth produce of somewhat mellower flavours indicating that summer days are fast maturing into autumn. Here the Consumer Section, Canada Department of Agriculture, Ottawa, talks about a few of August's flavour treats.

Corn-on-the-Cob

Choose ears that have tightly wrapped bright green husks. If some of the husks have been pulled back, look for bright, plump kernels which are free from discoloration. Corn should be used as soon as possible after purchase to ensure its sweet flavour. Very young ears cook in 3 to 4 minutes, more mature cobs in 5 to 7 minutes. Corn-on-the-cob is delicious served with chive butter; to make, blend a tablespoon of chopped chives into every ¼ cup of creamed butter.

Blueberries

Choose plump, dry, clean and fresh looking berries. Split, shrivelled or dull dooking blueberries indicate they have passed their prime. A pint box of blueberries contains 2½ cups which is enough for an 8-inch pie or a fresh treat with cream and sugar to four people. These berries may be kept in the refrigerator 2 or 3 days, but it is wise to sort the box if any spoiled ones are noticed in it. Always wash blueberries quickly and gently in very cold water just before using. Delicious cakes, muffins, waffles and pancakes result when blueberries are added to the batter.

Cantaloupes

Cantaloupes that are vine-ripened are usually the best for flavour, sweetness and fine texture. Ripe, mellow and juicy cantaloupes have a coarse looking, grayish-coloured netting or veining that stands out and covers the surface of the rind. The rind itself should have a grayish or yellowish tinge and the stem end should be slightly sunken with a calloused look which indicates the fruit came off the vine easily. Mature fruit has a distinctive cantaloupe aroma. Fully ripe cantaloupe should be stored in the refrigerator but if the fruit is quite firm it should be held at room temperature for a day or so to soften.

Watermelon

Nothing is more refreshing on a hot day than a wedge of crisp, juicy and sweet watermelon. Choose melons which are firm, symmetrical in shape and with a good characteristic color. Watermelons that are dull looking or show signs of shriveling or decay at either end should be passed up. It's difficult to tell if a watermelon is fully ripe without cutting into it but it's a generally accepted fact that the harvesters of the melons are good judges of ripeness.

Peaches

Peaches of the freestone type are coming to markets from British Columbia and Ontario and are sold in baskets of 2 to 8 quarts, in quart boxes or by the pound. Peaches are graded for quality when packed and the container is stamped with the grade mark. The grades are Canada No. 1 and Canada No. 2. To select ripe peaches for immediate eating, look at the complexion of the fruit — the background should be yellowish or whitish in colour with an overlying "blush." Peaches that are a little under-ripe will mature at room temperature; ripe peaches may be stored in the refrigerator but as they are quite perishable it is better to use them up quickly.

Field Tomatoes

Rich in Vitamin-C, meaty vine-ripened field tomatoes for stuffing, slicing, grilling or eating out of hand are another of August's flavor treats. Select ones that are plump with a smooth well-coloured skin. Store ripe tomatoes in the refrigerator and hold the green ones at room temperature — out of the sun — to ripen. Tomatoes which have been blemished by growth cracks or scars may be used in salads or cooking as their flavour is not affected. Always wash tomatoes before using.

Contracts Awarded At Air Station

Lee Grills, M.P. for Hastings South, announced this week the awarding of two contracts for Belleville industries at the Trenton Air Station. Roblin Dairy was given a contract to supply dairy products in an amount of $33,-941 and the Quinte Roofing Ltd. for re-roofing of certain buildings for $10,635.

Cooking Comments

A tasty snack for the teenagers after an afternoon or evening of swimming is hot French-bread. Melt ¼ cup butter and mix in 1 teaspoon dried rosemary leaves, ¾ teaspoon of dried thyme, ¼ teaspoon poppy seeds. Cut bread diagonally in thick slices leaving it joined along the bottom. Spread both sides with herb butter. Wrap in foil and bake at 375 degs. F. until hot.

Home freezing not only saves time later, but money. But how do you package your product? Home Economists at Macdonald Institute, Guelph, say that food should be packaged in portions that will be used in one sitting. Small quantities will freeze more quickly and store more efficiently than large packages. Remember that frozen foods once thawed, should not be frozen again.

Oven broiling is an easy way to cook meats with a minimum of fat. However, seasonings such as salt should be added after the meat has browned, as salt brings out moisture from the heat and delays browning.

When packaging foods for home freezing, be sure the wrappers are sturdy and moisture-vapour-proof (MVP) says the Foods Department at Macdonald Institute, Guelph. This prevents drying of the food and transfer of odors from package to package.

OF MANY THINGS

(By Ambrose Hills)

MARILYN MUNROE

She had money, looks, brains, just about everything young women aspire to. Yet it is being suggested that she took her own life, and the world is wondering why.

We heard the news at our country cottage, where we were spending the long week-end, and the young folks debated the matter interminably. No doubt your family did the same. And in Marilyn's case, more than in that of most movie stars, there was genuine sorrow. As an actress, she was the best. There is little doubt about that. Whatever faults she may have had she could act superbly. There must have been some mighty good thoughts and feelings in her makeup or she could never have developed from an ordinary ham actress into a genuinely fine one.

My own view is that she had become a fine person, caught up in a shabby industry, tied to a role which no longer suited her, and she could see no way out.

Some years ago I read about a young lady who had just begun to hit the high spots in Hollywood, and then disappeared. She went to a small town, lived a quiet life, avoided publicity and rejected every offer to return to the big time. I have forgotten her name, but her story impressed me. I would wager that, in her hour of decision, she faced a problem similar to that of Miss Munroe.

She was probably helped, however, in her decision, by the innumerable bits of advice and help her parents had given her in the formative years. When the chips are down and we face real trouble, most of us recall the wisdom of our parents and are able to survive.

Miss Munroe, raised as a waif, did not have such a background, and even the best of psychiatric help could not make up for it. Children well raised by loving parents know that external events cannot bring the peace of mind Miss Munroe seemed unable to find; that this treasure is an inward thing on which we start to pay instalments from the first moment a free choice is given to us. It has nothing much to do with wealth or beauty or fame; it has a great deal to do with the outcome of the thousands of struggles that go on inside of each human being regardless of outward circumstances.

Bishop Bayne Speaker At Anglican Synod

Leading churchmen from Britain and the United States are included among visitors to the 21st Anglican General Synod at Kingston August 22nd to 30th.

Rt. Rev. Stephen F. Bayne Jr., Executive Officer of the Anglican Communion, came from London, England, to preach the opening service in St. George's Cathedral. The Bishop, an authority on the Communion's missionary work, will also address the delegates when the report of the Department of Missions is being considered.

On August 28th the speaker at a dinner sponsored by the Division of Laymen's Work will be Rev. Dr. Howard H. Harper, who directs the General Division of Laymen's Work of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the United States. The same evening Rev. Peter Harvey, Editor of Anglican World, an English publication, will be heard when the report of the Department of Information and Stewardship is presented.

D. M. Schurman, Associate Professor of History at Royal Military College, Kingston, will be the speaker at the luncheon of the Canadian Church Historical Society on August 27th.

Greetings from the United Church of Canada will be extended by its Moderator, Rt. Rev. H. A. McLeod. He will address the Synod on August 29th.

The Moira River

It's only a little River, as it rambled on it's way,
And a little brown-eyed maiden, as she sat on the bank one day
How she dearly loved to listen, to the babbling of it's tune,
As it rushes over it's rocky bed, this beautiful day in June.
It winds it's way o'er the meadow, it touches the mountain side
O'er woods and fields and valleys, to the Bay of Quinte side.
A snake curls up on a rock on the shore, a turtle walks slowly by,
A bullfrog sits on a lily pad, there's not a cloud in the sky.
The little maid takes her fishing rod and baits her hook with glee,
An old crow sat on a limb close by,
of a stately old elm tree.
"It is not you I came to see," said the little maiden fair,
"Or the tiny fishes in the brook, or that bullfrog over there,
But the sound of these rippling waters, as they ramble on their way
And the way they almost speak to me.
That's my desire to stay,
Close to this little river, as the fleeting years go by.
It is here I would spend the most of my days,
And it's here I would love to die."

The Institute Anniversary Story

The Anniversary Story in honour of Adelaide Hoodless was prepared and read by Mrs. Percy MacMullen at the August meeting of River Valley Women's Institute.

The Story

This afternoon we are honouring Adelaide Hunter Hoodless who was instrumental in organizing the first Women's Institute in the world in Saltfleet Township, in Wentworth County, Ontario, on February 19th, 1897, in the Village of Stoney Creek.

Now, sixty-five years later, the name of Adelaide Hoodless and Stoney Creek is known throughout all of Canada and across the seas in England, Ireland, Wales, in the Scandinavian countries, in Europe, Asia, Australia, New Zealand and Africa. Twenty-seven countries are now members of the Associated Country Women of the World, with six and a half million members. The spirit of Adelaide Hoodless will continue to grow as more Institutes are organized here and there.

Her portrait hangs in the archives at Ottawa and in Macdonald College, Guelph. The Federated Women's Institutes of Canada have also honoured her in their Tweedsmuir Histories.

Adelaide Hunter was born February 27th, 1858, the youngest of twelve children near St. George, Ontario. The Homestead is situated eight miles north of Brantford.

In 1881 she married John Hoodless, a businessman from Hamilton, Ont. To this union four children were born. The eldest, John Harold, died at the age of eighteen months from drinking impure milk. Out of her grief and self-reproach she decided to spend her spare time striving to better education for wives and mothers and thus raise the standards of homemaking with special attention to sanitation, nutrition and the care of children.

Mr. Erland Lee, the Secretary of the Farmers' Institute in that area, had heard Mrs. Adelaide Hoodless, of Hamilton, speak about having institutes on homemaking for rural women. Thus he invited her as guest speaker to a Farmer's Institute meeting of men at Stoney Creek.

Much Interest Shown

There was so much interest shown that it decided to organize the following week. In the meantime Mr. and Mrs. Lee drove up and down the roads via horse and buggy inviting the women to come to the meeting. The records state that one hundred women and Mr. Lee were in attendance. Thus sixty-five years ago the first Institute was organized and these pioneer women centred their organization on the slogan "a nation cannot rise above the level of its home, then we women must work and study together to raise our homes to the highest possible level."

In order to carry out their plans they chose six classes of study — Domestic Economy; Architecture, with special reference to heat, light, sanitation and ventilation; Health, embracing hygiene and medicine; Floriculture and Horticulture; Music and Art; Literature, Education and Legislation.

These pioneers built the foundations so wisely that you will note how closely these six divisions correspond to the convenerships which are set up at the present time. Mrs. Hoodless was chosen Honorary President of that first mother Institute at Stoney Creek. Mrs. Erland Lee suggested that the membership fee be twenty-five cents, a fee in reach of all women. Mrs. Lee and Mrs. Hoodless also recognized the importance of spiritual values and they suggested that all meetings be opened by repeating the Lord's Prayer in unison.

Early Programmes

The early programmes were interesting and informative. At the second regular meeting papers were given on "The Proper Feeding of Children" and on "Art." At the third meeting a doctor spoke on "The Child In Health and Disease" and a demonstration in first aid was given. These pioneer women blazed a trail along health and welfare lines which have followed the organization down through the years. Some of their topics were "Sunshine in the Home," "Home Sanitation," "Homemaking versus Housekeeping."

The first government speaker in 1899 was Miss Laura Rose who was an instructor in dairying at the Ontario Agricultural College, Guelph. She gave a lecture at Stoney Creek and then spent thirty-five years organizing Institute branches in Ontario and across Canada. Later she married and was well-known as Laura Rose Stephen.

Motto — "For Home and Country"

In 1902 she and Mrs. Hoodless chose the motto "For Home and Country." In 1903 Mrs. Stephen designed the Institute pin from a signet ring of her own. Later the colours, blue and gold were chosen. Mrs. Stephen wrote as follows: "Guelph was named for Queen Victoria, the reigning Monarch at that time whose family name was Guelph. It is called the Royal City. At one of the earliest conventions held in Guelph the Royal Colours blue and gold were chosen for the Institute which Mrs. Hoodless approved.

The early Institute leaders were homemakers and home-lovers in the truest sense. They found magic in the word "Home," where there was love, peace, rest and gladness. Their vision of 1897 has left a wonderful heritage for us in 1962.

In 1919 the Federated Women's Institutes of Canada was organized and the membership today is approximately 94,000 women.

In February 25th, 1910, Mrs. Hoodless dropped dead on a platform while pleading to have Home Economics taught at some university. She was a firm believer that no higher vocation has been or ever will be given to women than that of "Homemaker and Citizen Builder." Today Home Economics is taught all over Canada.

Hoodless Homestead A Living Memory

The Adelaide Hoodless Homestead at St. George will be a living memory to the founder of Institutes. The cost to each Institute member across Canada up to now is exactly twenty cents each, to help with the purchase price and landscaping, providing of course that each Branch has forwarded their ten cents per member for two years.

Commemoration Ceremony

At the commemoration ceremony on June 2nd, Mrs. James Haggerty, President of the Federated Women's Institutes of Canada, read a letter of greetings from Her Majesty Queen Elizabeth.

At that gathering Reeve James Howell of South Dumfries Town Council announced that they had purchased two acres south of the Homestead to be used as a park area. In 1961 F.W.I.C. purchased three acres with the Homestead. Now with five acres in all they will have a permanent and appropriate setting for this historic site.

Mrs. Horace Lockman, R.R. 1, St. George, Ont., is the hostess and occupies a portion of the building and groups wishing to visit this historic scene should contact her.

Newly Formed Branches In Arctic

Anniversary time is ideal to bring to the attention of the older organized branches the story of the accomplishments and progress of the newly formed groups in the North West Territories and the Yukon. The organizer was Mrs. Eileen Hough and Mrs. MacMullen then gave a synopsis of her report telling of branches organized at Haines Junction on the Alaska Highway; Fort Providence in the North West Territories; Discovery, eighty miles above Yellowknife, and Inuvik, fifty miles from the Arctic Ocean. F.W.I.C. asked each Branch in 1962 to make a voluntary contribution to the expansion of new Institutes in the north.

Thus on this occasion River Valley W.I. and their guests, Ivanhoe W.I. in North Hastings contributed $8.75 as their gift to help pioneer the work in the northland; also as a special tribute to the pioneer woman Adelaide Hoodless of 1897.

NEWS FOR THE BUSY FARMER

Furrow and Fallow By Fairbairn

Ontario beef producers, who have been trying to develop a marketing plan that could undertake an information and promotion programme, were offered a helping hand last Thursday by the Provincial Minister of Agriculture, Hon. Wm. A. Stewart. While the minister also happens to be a beef producer himself, this is not favouritism since almost every other commodity group has had help of some kind from the Ontario Department of Agriculture. Mr. Stewart's offer of assistance would not provide the complete public relations programme, including a promotional campaign to stimulate the sale of beef, that producers have been considering, but it would provide an office and a secretary-manager for the association and the means of providing an information programme for producers to keep them abreast of both production and marketing developments.

The minister is suggesting a completely new set-up for the Ontario Beef Producers Association, which has been a somewhat loose organization of county beef producers associations whose activities have been financed by annual grants from the Ontario Department of Agriculture. The new approach envisages a provincial organization similar to the Ontario Soil and Crop Improvement Association which would be called a beef improvement association. The ODA would supply a secretary-manager and funds to help organize active county groups to tie in practical beef producers, pure bred breeders and the department. The Ontario Beef Improvement Association could recommend to the ODA research activities in the nutrition field, development of a beef-cow-and-calf herd policy, investigation of the feasibility of community pastures and any measures that would improve the beef cattle industry of the province as the Soil and Crop Improvement Association has done in the area of field crops. The work of the latter organization in pasture and forage crop improvement, as well as increasing the use of better grain and corn varieties is well known.

There is considerable concern in Ontario about the availability of feeder cattle to provide eastern markets with potential finished beef. Many producers feel that a beef-calf operation might be practical but are loath to proceed on their own initiative. Information about breeding and feeding practices to produce better beef, the benefits of tested sires and the development of crossbreds would all be extremely useful to these farmers, and this new programme could provide that kind of knowledge.

It could also provide information about the kind of beef consumers prefer — the amount of fat, possibility of de-fatting and how to feed to produce the type of beef that commands the best price. That requires assembling the latest developments in feed efficiency, feed additives and comparative values of various types of feed such as silage, hay, pasture and so on. Studies to determine the cost of production of beef at different ages might be undertaken and the information relayed to producers as well as the up-to-date information on grading and shipping to help farmers provide top quality cattle for the market.

Beef producers recognize that they feed more than twice as much grain for every pound of gain as do poultry and hog producers. They feel this can be improved. Many also feel that improved quality could increase the per capita consumption of beef in Canada which now stands at about 70 pounds per year. In Australia, which is noted for sheep but is also a beef producing country, people eat about 80 pounds of beef per year.

Agriculture Minister Stewart hopes that his suggested programme for Ontario beef producers will stimulate their interest in improving quality and in developing a programme to help themselves. It is not being forced on them — they can decide whether this offer of assistance will help them achieve what they want. They can accept or reject it.

WEED OF THE WEEK SERIES

GOLDENROD

Once considered to be the principal cause of hay fever, goldenrod has long since been acquitted of this crime in favor of the less picturesque ragweed. Both plants shed pollen profusely and both are capable of setting up nasal irritation but tests have proven that goldenrod pollen is heavy and will travel only a short distance, whereas ragweed pollen is light and buoyant and can be carried considerable distances by wind.

There are hundreds of species of goldenrod which are at home almost everywhere in America, whether it be in the fields, swamps, mountains or roadsides. It is perennial in growth and spreads by both root stocks and seeds. Different species range from a few inches to several feet in height but all burst into bloom in late summer or early fall. There are myriads of small yellow blossoms arranged in wand-like clusters.

Goldenrod is no problem in crop land since it cannot survive cultivation, says the Field Crops Branch of the Ontario Department of Agriculture. Along roadsides or in rough pastures or waste land, goldenrod is likely to take over and crowd out other desirable plants. Clipping or mowing does little to control the weed in these locations. It just sends out more root-stocks and new leafy flowering stems. It is not palatable to livestock so pasteuring does not keep it down.

Goldenrod can be controlled with 2,4-D sprays. This weed killer, applied once or twice a year in the early stages of growth, for a couple of years will make goldenrod disappear like magic. On rough pasture land or along roadsides such a treatment will get rid of a lot of other more pernicious weeds as well.

In spite of its autumn beauty, goldenrod has no place on productive land or on roadsides.

Higher Meat Prices Prevail

Devaluation of the Canadian dollar has had some effect on hog prices but is not the major factor, the Federal Department of Agriculture announced recently.

The Department pointed out that this country is exporting and importing pork products to and from the United States, despite the different values of the currency.

The sharp rise in hog prices between March and July followed the seasonal pattern, which features light marketings in this period. However, the situation this year was influenced by the 1961 drought which reduced grain supplies and led to higher prices for livestock feeds and, ultimately, to lower production and fewer hogs coming to market — particularly from Western Canada.

Hog cholera slaughterings in Eastern Canada will reduce marketings for a time by about 1,000 a week, less than one per cent of national marketings. The outbreak has had no significant effects on prices to date.

Dollar devaluation is also having little effect on fat cattle prices because there is very little export and virtually no import of fat cattle and beef at the present time.

The higher price of beef cattle compared with the previous spring can similarly be attributed to the chain of events begun in 1961 — drought, higher feed prices, fewer cattle going into feedlots and therefore, fewer coming to market.

Prevent Corrosion

Most farm implements are in use for only a few weeks each year, but rust and corrosion are at work the year round.

A large portion of the cost of repairing farm implements and machines can be attributed to rusting. For example, unprotected moldboard plow bottoms can incur more wear from a year of rusting than from an entire season of use, says Dr. W. K. Bilanski of the Engineering Department at the Ontario Agricultural College. Rust-proofing them for even short periods of storage pays. Therefore, after each period of use, and before the implement is put away for storage, be sure that all mud, grass and other dirt is removed, since rust is likely to form under such a layer.

After you have cleaned the implement, touch up paint where necessary and spray each part likely to be affected by rust with a light waxy coating, using one of the modern rust-preventatives now available. Then store the implement in a weather-proof shelter that is also dry and well ventilated.

Protecting your farm implements from moisture is important because corrosion or "rusting" is a chemical reaction which takes place between metal and oxygen in water, and results in the formation of a metallic oxide commonly known as rust. Rust-preventatives operate by sealing the metal from contact with the atmosphere.

A film that can be readily applied with either a fly spray, hand gun, or low pressure air-line type gun, will keep rust from forming even while the machine is left out-doors for prolonged periods of time. Also when you apply the rust-preventative over non-flaky, thin coats of rust, it penetrates and loosens the rust, thereby assisting in its removal as well as preventing further rusting. So it's a good idea to keep a spray gun, or whatever device you choose to use always full of the compound and in a convenient place. This will facilitate frequent re-applications of the rust-preventative to any area on the implement where the protective film may have been broken through use or weathering.

Although you may use several different substances such as—paint, oil, and grease as rust-preventatives, the modern petrochemical wax-base rust-preventatives are far superior in their ability to prevent rust formation and also to stop any rusting action already in progress. These compounds may be purchased from any reputable oil company dealer.

The small amount of time and effort required for rust prevention can save you money in longer service, easier operation, and greater resale value for your farm machinery reminds Dr. Bilanski.

Churchill, Man., was named for John Churchill, ag overnor of Hudson's Bay Company in the early 1600's and the grandfather seven times removed of Sir Winston Churchill.

Timely Tips

Don't forget to spray your roses just before you drive off on vacation, reminds Professor C. B. Kelly at the Ontario Agricultural College. If you can arrange with a neighbor to spray or dust at least once a week while you are away, the foliage will be in pretty good condition when you get back.

Recently a paper carried the story of a six year old boy who was killed when he fell off a tractor, and was run over by the trailing implement. Accidents of this type happen all too frequently, warns Hal Wright, farm safety specialist with the Ontario Department of Agriculture. Don't kill a chiid through carlessness.

Feeding grain according to acow's production isn't new thinking, but it is still a major problem with a lot of dairymen. Livestock specialists with the Ontario Department of Agriculture say that some dairymen are still overfeeding dry cows and underfeeding high producers.

Don't use Phenyl mercury compounds to control turf diseases and crabgrass in Merion blue grass lawns, warns Professor C. B. Kelly, of the Ontario Agricultural College's Botany Department. Phenyl mercury acetate or PMA compounds have been known to damage Merion blue grass.

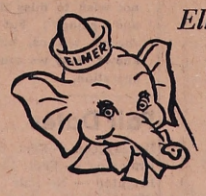
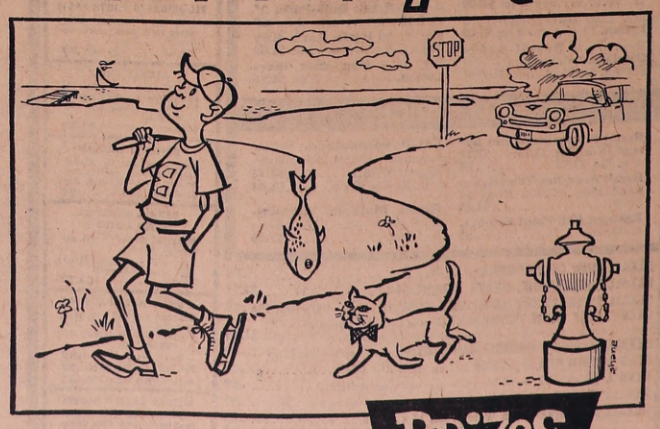
Elmer Summer Safety Contest No. 4

Can You Find The 7 ERRORS?





Hi Kids!

This is the last of my Summer Safety Contests. The picture is about my rule "Where there are no sidewalks, walk on the left side of the road facing traffic". I hope you had fun doing these contests and that they helped remind you of my safety rules.
Please send a note with your entry and tell me if you would like another contest next summer. Good Luck.

Elmer

HERE'S WHAT YOU DO!

1. Cut this contest out of paper along dotted lines and color the picture. Or draw a picture that looks like this and color it.
2. List on separate sheet of paper the seven things wrong in the picture.
3. Mail contest and list to address on Entry Form. Don't forget to fill in your name and address.
4. Any child of elementary school age may enter.
5. All entries become the property of Elmer the Safety Elephant and cannot be returned.
6. Children of employees of this newspaper, the Ontario Safety League and Raleigh Cycle Industries (Canada) Ltd. may not enter.
7. Judges of the contest will be traffic safety authorities. The judges' decision is final.

LEGION NOTES

In just two short weeks, the summer holiday period will end, and a busy season of fall and winter programmes will commence for almost every group and organization in our community. This will be especially true of the local branch of the Royal Canadian Legion.

The first general meeting will be held at the Legion Hall on Tuesday, September 4th commencing at 8.15 p.m. It is our understanding that many important items of general business will be on the agenda. With the approach of the fall and winter season on such matters as Remembrance Day will require the attention and full support of all members of the branch. Another important item which must come in for special attention is the preparation of the arena for a busy winter programme.

During the past two months some tremendous changes have been effected at the local branch. To say that a great improvement had been made, would be an understatement. The greater part of the work done at the hall has been carried out by a small minority of the general membership. The branch understands that for many comrades, the summer months are very busy ones indeed. However, it is hoped that with the start of the fall programme all district veterans will make it a special point to take part in the branch activities and lend their support to the officers and executive.

Another important part of the Legion's fall programme is an initiation ceremony which is planned for Tuesday, October 2nd. There are many members of the branch who have not as yet been initiated. The members of the Tweed branch will perform the ceremony and it is hoped that all branches in our Zone will also be represented. It is expected that a special social evening will follow the ceremony under the chairmanship of Comrade Fred Houchin.

Next Tuesday, August 28th, there will be a special work party at the Legion Hall commencing at 8 p.m. During the course of the alterations and renovation there has been a great accumulation of odds and ends, as well as a considerable amount of dirt and dust. The work party will be assembled to clean and polish the hall and its fixtures in preparation for a busy fall season. All the help that can be mustered will be required next Tuesday. Bring along some extra cleaning rags and lots of elbow grease.

Comrades will be sorry to learn that comrade Percy McGee is once again confined to Belleville Hospital. At last report we understand that he is making good progress. We are sure that Comrade Percy would appreciate a card or a note from his many Legion friends.

What Others Say

EXAM RESULTS SLOW

(Windsor Star)

Grade XIII examination results have made their usual belated appearance. A large proportion of these students are going on to university or other institutions of learning. Their decisions depend on the examination results.

Our bright young students deserve better than this from the Department of Education. Each year they are put on the spot by its dilatory tactics.

The normal tardiness in marking these exam papers is in itself inexcusable. The extra delay this year, which could have been avoided, was even worse.

More lives were lost in the Civil War than in any other war in which the United States has been engaged.

THERE'S LITTLE DOUBT

A half-dollar and a dime fell into a dispute as they lay side by side in a lady's purse.

"You're an insignificant little creature," said the half-dollar, looking down with disdain upon his companion.

"That may be, but, at any rate, I go to church a good deal oftener than you do," was the reply.

Let's Have The News

The Holiday Season is here, and it brings a steady stream of visitors to the community, while scores of local residents are holidaying at other points.

Every one of these visitors is a news item.. of interest to at least some of our readers and we are very anxious to receive these items. Send them in, or bring them in, phone them in, or if you live in the country, let your district correspondent know. We do not wish to miss these "comings and goings", but if someone doesn't tell us, how are we to know? May we count on your co-operation.

Stirling Fall Fair Prize Lists Offer Excellent Prizes In All Classes

Achievement Day To Be Held for Various 4-H Clubs — School Section Revised

The prize lists for Stirling Fall Fair to be held on September 14th and 15th were ready for distribution the first of the week.

The Directors have endeavoured to make the prize lists attractive and have been well supported by outside firms and local citizens who have offered special prizes in the various classes.

Horse Classes

In the horse section there are the customary Heavy Draught, Agricultural, Roadster, Carriage, Hackney, Pony and Wagon Classes.

There are also several special prizes offered which should result in one of the best shows of horses at Stirling Fair in years.

Cattle Classes

In the cattle, prizes are offered for Ayrshire, Holstein, Jersey, Hereford, Dual Purpose and beef breeds. There are also special prizes listed for all classes.

The customary classes are provided for sheep, swine and poultry.

A feature this year is the Eaton's of Canada Livestock Special, awarded to the exhibitor winning the highest number of points in the Livestock Classes. An exhibitor winning this trophy at another 1962 Fair will not be eligible at the local Fair.

Ladies' Work

The ladies' work section of the prize list has been revised and includes children's wear, ladies' wear, men's wear, and homecraft divisions. There is also a junior section featured for exhibitors from 9 to 12 years and teen-agers. Attractive prizes are offered as well as several good specials donated by interested parties.

There are also classes for Cheese, Garden and Roots, Fruits, Grain and Seeds and Domestic Science.

Public School Section

A special section for public schools in Sidney, Rawdon and Stirling is also included, with good rizes being offered for exhibits in various classes.

Junior Farmer

There is a Junior Farmer Section in which the Achievement Days of the various 4-H Clubs are featured. There are three clubs, the Stirling 4-H Calf Club, South Hastings 4-H Sweet Corn Club and the Trent-Moira 4-H Forestry Club. These Clubs are sponsored and financed by the Canada and Ontario Departments of Agriculture and the Stirling Agricultural Society.

Be An Exhibitor

The farmers and their wives, as well as local citizens, are urged to get a prize list and be an exhibitor in one of the many classes offered. The Agricultural Society sponsors the Fair entirely in the interests of the farmers of the surrounding district and should be encouraged.

Copies of the prize list may be obtained from R. E. Shortt, Secretary, or at the News-Argus office.

Rawdon Y. People Winners of D. R. Williams Trophy

The softball team representing Rawdon Young People won the deciding game of the play-offs with Johnstown, Sidney Township, last night to take the championship and the Don R. Williams trophy. The game was played in Frankford and was witnessed by a large crowd of fans.

Rawdon took a commanding lead in the first inning when assisted by several errors by their opponents, they scored 12 runs. The final score was 23 to 7. Bonna Dracup was the winning pitcher and Chas. Nix was her battery mate.

SECOND GAME

Rawdon Young People's softball team deefated Johnstown, Sidney Township, in the second game of the play-offs on Monday night at the Henry St. playground. The game was played before a large crowd of fans and the final score was 13-10.

Labour Day At The P.O.

Monday next, September 3rd, being Labour Day and a public holiday the public wicket at the local Post Office will be open from 8 to 9 a.m. only. There will be no rural mail delivery.

The public lobby will be open as usual for the convenience of boxholders.

Property Damage In Two-Car Collision

Considerable property damage resulted from a two-car collision at the corner of Front St. W. and Old Marmora Road on Monday evening. A car driven by Mrs. J. L. Good, of town, was proceeding onto Front St. from Old Marmora Rd. when the second car, driven by Allan Curtiss, 205 N. Front St., Belleville, crashed into it broadside. Fortunately none of the occupants of either car was injured.

The accident was investigated by O.P.P. W. Stevens, of the Belleville detachment.

LEGION NOTES

All comrades are advised of the September general meeting to be held next Tuesday, September 4th, commencing at 8.15 p.m. in the Legion Hall. This is a most important meeting and a full attendance would be much appreciated. Now that much work has been done on the Legion Hall, we are looking to every member for solid support in the busy months ahead. You can show this support by your attendance at the general meeting next Tuesday.

The branch is greatly indebted to a number of ladies who undertook to make the very beautiful draperies which now grace the west wall of the Legion Hall. A great deal of work and planning was freely given in order that this job could be completed on time. To all who assisted in this splendid task we extend our sincere appreciation.

There are still several minor jobs to be done at the hall. It is hoped that all the work will be completed within the next two weeks. It is obvious that another major job should be undertaken at the earliest possible time. The floor of the hall presents certain problems which will require the expenditure of a considerable sum of money as well as time. A floor fund has been started with a $50.00 donation from a member. It is hoped that this fund may be increased throughout the months ahead so that the necessary work may be started next spring.

In the near future the branch will be laying plans for Remembrance Day, which is Sunday, November 11th. An intensive Poppy Campaign will be planned. All money derived from this campaign is placed in a special trust fund, administered by a committee of the Legion. Such funds can only be spent in aiding local veterans or their dependents. Wreaths and poppies are manufactured by disabled veterans. Thus when a person purchases a wreath or poppy he is contributing to a local fund and also helping a disabled vetern to earn a living. In past years the response to the local poppy campaign has been most generous and the Legion hope this year's campaign will meet with equally good results.

Comrades are again reminded of the important general meeting next Tuesday, September 4th commencing at 8.15 p.m. at the Legion Hall.
at 8.15 p.m. at he Legion Hall.

Winner of Bronze Medal From Life Saving Society

Miss Barbara Morrow, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Morrow, R.R. 4, Stirling, who represented Stirling-Rawdon High School at the Ontario Athletic Leadership camp at Longford Mills, Lake Couchiching, last month, has been awarded a bronze medal from the Royal Life Saving Society. Miss Morrow is one of seventeen receiving the award out of 168 girls. Those in attendance were chosen for their athletic leadership and Miss Morrow participated in badminton, volleyball, gymnastics and swimming. Her many friends will join in extending congratulations.

With the Bowlers!

Robt. Hulin, Jack Doran and Ted Barnard, skip, represented the Stirling Lawn Bowling Club at the Men's Trebles Tournament sponsored by the Trenton Lawn Bowling Club on Saturday.

Miss R. Spry, Mrs. J. Doran and Mrs. B. Woodbeck bowled in Belleville on Tuesday and Miss Spry bowled in the Black Memorial at Peterborough yesterday with a Campbellford partner.

Honoured Prior To Departure

Mrs. Ray Shortt and Mrs. Blake Faulkner were co-hostesses at a weiner hoast on Friday night in honour of the Misses Margaret and Mary Ellen Pryor, who are moving to Belleville with their parents in the near future.

During the evening the presentation of leather bound writing folders to the Pryor girls was made by Lorraine Shortt and Linda Faulkner.

Due to the accident to the group while enjoying a hay ride the programme of the evening was curtailed.

Local Youths Injured In Hit And Run Side-Swipe

Jan Valchar, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Valchar, Henry St., has been a patient in Belleville General Hospital this week as a result of injuries received when a car sideswiped a hay wagon on which he was riding on Friday night last. Robert Marbry, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. Marbry, North St., and Sue Anne Bastedo, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bert Bastedo, Church St., were also taken to hospital but were allowed to return home after treatment. Donna Tucker, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Don Tucker, Front St., was also taken to Belleville Hospital for an X-Ray on Tuesday, but no bones were found to be broken.

All three, in company with several other boys and girls were enjoying a hay-ride party and were sitting on the wagon rack with their legs dangling over the side when the car hit them inflicting multiple bruises and cuts. Valchar, who was the most seriously injured, was thought at first to have a broken ankle but examination revealed no broken bones. However some twenty stiches were required to close his cuts.

The accident occurred on the concession road just south of Minto and the wagon was being drawn by a tractor operated by Denton Shortt.

Provincial Police investigated the accident and it is understood that charges are to be preferred against a Rawdon man, who failed to stop at the scene of the accident.

Transferred

Stirling and district friends of Clinton J. Nesbitt, a former Associate Agricultural Representative for Hastings County, will be interested to learn that he is being transferred from the District of Temiskaming to the District of Algoma in the same capacity. The transfer is effective in September.

Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Warren Mark Silver Wedding Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Warren, Front St. W., were "at home" to their friends and relatives on the occasion of their twenty-fifth wedding anniversary on Saturday last from 3 to 5 and 8 to 10 p.m.

Mrs. Warren, the former Jessie Dickson, is the daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Dickson, Frankford, and Mr. Warren, the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. James Warren, of Harold R.R. 1. They were married at Frankford United Church by the Rev. J. F. Lane, and have four daughters, Misses Wendy, Fairlie, Mary Ellen, and Marion, all at home.

In addition to the large number of friends who called to extend best wishes, the bride and groom of yesteryear were the recipients of many cards, gifts and congratulatory messages, including a telephone call from Mrs. Peter Robertson, Alberni, B.C., a sister of Mrs. Warren.

The dining room and living rooms were decorated with fall flowers, while the tea table was appointed with white cut cloth, silver tea services and silver candelabra. A three-tiered wedding cake also occupied a prominent place.

Those pouring tea were Mrs. Fred Charlesworth and Mrs. Walter Morrow, of Frankford; Mrs. Walter Warren and Mrs. Harry Morrow, and Mrs. C. I. Hatton, Stirling; Mrs. Ralph Locke and Mrs. W. Kingston, Campbellford; Mrs. J. L. Good, Mrs. E. Luery, Mrs. W. T. Elliott, Mrs. P. J. Hommersen, Stirling; Mrs. Albert Warren, Kingston; Mrs. Wm. Warren, Harrowsmith; Mrs. Roy Brickman, Mrs. R. S. Gibson and Mrs. Robt. Johnson, Belleville; Mrs. Hampton Dickson and Miss Carole Dickson, Hamilton.

Those serving were Mrs. Carl Potter, Mrs. Marvyn Scott, Mrs. Robert Luery, Mrs. Wm. Warren, Mrs. Robt. Bastedo, Mrs. Douglas Patterson, Mrs. Murney Johnston, Mrs. Bruce Bell, Mrs. Gilbert Finkle, Misses Fairlie, Mary Ellen and Wendy Warren, and Mrs. Reginald Skinner, of Foxboro.

Schools Open On Tuesday Next

Three New Teachers On High School Staff — One Change At Public School

School bells will ring again next Tuesday morning, September 4th, and the boys and girls will go back to their studies again after the annual summer recess.

Three New Teachers At High School

Three new teachers will be on the Stirling-Rawdon District High School staff, bringing the total to thirteen when the Fall term opens Tuesday. This is an increase of one over last year.

The new teachers are Miss Eileen Wallace, North Gower, who will replace Miss De Carlo and teach Latin and girls' P.T.; Miss Valerie Jeanne Williamson, England, who will teach Junior English and girls' P.T., and Douglas Harris, of Wallaceburg, who will replace Mr. Crampton and teach Commercial.

Principal J. L. Good will again head the teaching staff with E. C. Hay-Ellis, M.A., as Assistant Principal; Mrs. Gordon Bailey, B.A., Mrs. Francis Lyons, B.Sc. (H.Ec.), Miss Eileen Wallace, Miss Valerie Jeanne Williamson, and Messrs. J. W. Bakker, M.Sc.; W. C. Farmer, B.A.; R. M. Marbry, B.A.; R. W. Camm, M.A., and D. Harris, being the other members of the staff.

Public School

At the Public School, Mr. M. Scott will be the principal. Other members of the staff are Mrs. E. McGee, Mrs. R. B. Bell, Mrs. G. Heath, Mrs. C. Rodgers, Mrs. Lindsay Sills, Miss Donalda Kerr, Campbellford, replacing Mrs. R. Wood, and Mrs. Craig Watson, music supervisor.

In Hospital

Friends of Mrs. Chas. Morton, R.R. 1, Stirling, will regret to learn she is a patient in Belleville General Hospital, where she was taken Tuesday morning by Duffin's ambulance.

Harold Johnson, Front St. W., was rushed to Belleville General Hospital on Wednesday about noon, following a heart attack suffered at his home.

947 Attend T.B. Clinic At Stirling Com. Hall

947 Attend

In the afternoon from 2 to 5, three hundred and forty-nine persons passed through the clinic and in the evening from 7 to 10 five hundred and ninety-eight. In view of the fact that six hundred is considered a maximum for any three-hour period, this was exceptional. The grand total was nine hundred and forty-seven.

Mrs. D. M. Armstrong and her committee are to be commended for their fine organizational work and they in turn are deeply appreciative of the assistance given by all who worked during the clinic.

Return On Tuesday

All those who attended the clinic yesterday are asked to return on Tuesday next 2 to 5 and 7 to 10 p.m. to receive a report on their test.

All showing a positive test will be and any over 40 years of age may be X-Rayed.

Nick Peconi Found Guilty In Meat Case

Nick Peconi, a dealer in dead and fallen animals, was found guilty on Monday of selling meat for human consumption contrary to the Federal Food and Drugs Act.

Peconi, on $5,000 bail since his trial in May, faces a $5,000 fine, up to three years in jail, or a combination of both. He was remanded in custody until September 5th by Peterborough County Court Judge John Kennedy.

Federation Members Held Meeting Here

The Hastings County Federation of Agriculture held a meeting on Thursday evening last at the Agricultural Office in Stirling with a good attendance. Russell Sills, President, presided for the meeting.

Plans were made for a Workshop on Publicity in the near future, to be held at Kingston for Zones 5 and 6. Mrs. Percy Ray and Mr. Wilfred Forestell were appointed delegates.

A letter was read commending the committees of C.I.A. for their work in Hastings.

Mr. Roy Sills spoke and thanked the County Federation for their support and effort in connection with the sweet corn crop failure in 1958.

Plans were made for a Zone 5 meeting to be held in Stirling. Mr. Geo. Carlisle, Russell Sills and Geo. Heasman were appointed as a committee to finalize plans for this meeting.

Ray Cunningham, fieldman for Hastings and Lennox and Addington Counties, spoke on the Constitution of Hastings County Federation of Agriculture. Suggestions were offered for additions to this constitution and these were to be discussed at the next meeting on September 27th.

THE BIBLE TODAY

"God has used the Holy Scriptures to bring thousands of men and women in Indo China to a living knowledge of Himself." So stated the Reverend H. Curwen Smith when he addressed an informal luncheon arranged by the Hamilton, Ontario, Branch of the Canadian Bible Society. Mr. Smith has served for forty years in Indo China, first as a Missionary and then for the past twenty-nine years, as the General Secretary for the British and Foreign Bible Society in Vietnam, Cambodia and Laos. Mr. Smith has recently returned to Canada where he will be in active retirement.

In 1892 the British and Foreign Bible Society sent two men to Cambodia. They succeeded in learning the Cambodian language and translating the Gospel of St. Luke into that tongue, and thus publishing the first Scripture in Indo China. The first Vietnamese Scriptures were published in 1896.

In 1923 the first edition of the Vietnamese New Testament was published, followed in 1925 by the first edition of the Bible. In Cambodia and in Laos the entire Bible has been published. The revision of the Laos New Testament is now under way. In the Mountain regions of Indo China the Gospels have been translated and published in the three major language groups of Radee, Jorai and Koho.

FIRST THINGS FIRST

"So you think you can dress a window to attract a woman, eh?" the shop manager said to the young applicant. "How would you start?"

"Well, sir, I'd put a large mirror in the window, then . . ."

"The job's yours!" beamed the manager.

Community News Should Be Sent Early In Week

Canada's Population Still On Uptrend

Canada's population, continuing to inch upward, reached 18,600,000 at July 1st, 1962 — an increase of 331,000 or 1.8 per cent over the same date last year.

The figure, reported by the Dominion Bureau of Statistics, represented a two-per-cent rise — or 362,000 — since the census of June 1st last year.

Quebec had the largest increase in the year ended July 1st, going up by 109,000 to 5,376,000.

Ontario, the most populous province, experienced the second largest increase, its population expanding by 104,000 to 6,351,000.

Business Change In Marmora

Russell Eaton, who has operated the bake shop and restaurant known as Eaton's Bakery and Grill, Marmora, for the past seven years, has sold the business to W. Frank Baker, formerly of Pickering.

Mr. Baker has moved to Marmora and took over the business on Monday, August 27th. A baker has been engaged to handle the bake shop. —Marmora Herald.

The Good Driver

Traffic problems are basically very much the same the world over. And safety endeavours follow similar lines in many different countries. Even Elmer The Safety Elephant Who Never Forgets has an oriental counterpart called "Baan Ma Sinsang" (Mr. Striped Horse) helping to protect young children in Hong Kong.

The Ontario Safety League quotes from a report by Stewart Clyde, that Mr. Striped Horse is a cartoon character who stands for safety on the roads. He has become a top favourite — and even something of a hero — with Hong Kong's 660,000 school children.

Traffic safety is complicated by some frightening facts in Hong Kong. The Colony has over 55,000 vehicles on 500 miles of roads: about 110 vehicles to every road mile, compared with 30 a miles in Britain and 20 a mile in North America.

Worse yet, the traffic problem is allied with a population problem. More than 3,200,000 people now live in Hong Kong's 398 square miles. Vehicles are increasing by 7,000 a year; people by about 110,000 a year.

In 1961 there were 14,906 traffic accidents, resulting in 209 deaths, including 64 children.

Traffic police are directing their safety campaign at children partly for the youngsters' own protection, and partly because they are invaluable means of spreading road rules. Many Hong Kong children come from homes where the parents are illiterate. Experience has shown that children return home and tell their families about the safety rules and slogans they learn in school.

Young children in school make placards, puppets, cut-outs and models on safety themes. The theme is also included in reading and writing lessons. Simple games are played to show them how to use pedestrian crossings, with a boy or girl chosen as Mr. or Miss Striped Horse.

Says a teacher who has been closely connected with traffic safety work in Hong Kong: "Training given to very young children will stay with them for the rest of their lives. But emphasis must at all times be laid on active, dynamic doing, not on dreary dull lessons or recitals of traffic law."

A TEAM

Jones is devoted to golf and his wife is equally fond of auction sales. They both talk in their sleep.

The other night the people in the next apartment heard him shout, "Fore!" and immediately his wife yelled, "Four and a quarter!"

A hen-pecked husband is just an average man who gets too much of a good thing in the way of a better half.

Husband of District Girl Killed In Crash

Lieut. William Patrick Dall, 27, of Port Wallace, N.S., and Belleville, husband of Bernice Ryan, of Stirling, was killed Saturday night when a Royal Canadian Navy plane crashed in a farmer's field three miles north of Napanee after taking off from Trenton's RCAF Station. His companion, Lieut. L. A. Viczko, was also killed.

The plane left Shearwater, N.S., on a training flight. It arrived Saturday at Downsview Airport in Toronto and then flew to Trenton.

Born In Belleville

The late Lieutenant William Patrick Dall was born in Belleville, being the son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Dall. He was educated at St. Michael's Academy and St. Michael's High School and was a brilliant student.

He joined the Royal Canadian Navy in 1954. After extensive training in the United States and Canada he received his wings at Pensacola, Florida, and was assigned as a naval aviator to The Bonaventure. Shortly after he was promoted to the rank of Lieutenant and appointed Flight Deck Officer.

Lieutenant Dall was a member of St. Michael's Church, Belleville, and is survived by his parents, his wife, the former Bernice Ryan, of Stirling, one daughter, Mary Kate, at home; six brothers, Donald Dall, of Capreol; Norman T., John B., Robert I., Gerald M. and Wayne F., all of Belleville, and two sisters, Mrs. Ralph (Lorraine) Bateman, of Scarborough, and Mrs. Gary (Barbara) Alkins, of North Bay.

The funeral was held from St. Michael's Church on Tuesday morning with interment in St. James' Cemetery.

Record Number of Boats Locked Through Canal

Lockage at Lock No. 1 on the Trent River hit a new record high over the week-end. Last year's navigation season saw 767 boats locked through. So far this year with 7 weeks to go to the end of the navigation season, 780 boats have been passed through the lock. Add to this boats which come into the Trenton dock to check with Canadian customs, something in the neighbourhood of a thousand boats have stopped over for varying lengths of time in Trenton, so far this summer.

Madoc Junction

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Reid and family were recent visitors of Mr. and Mrs. Nelson Stapley.

Friends extend congratulations to Miss Sondra Chambers who was successful in passing her Grade XIII examinations.

The Rev. C. R. Chapman, Mrs. Chapman and children, who are spending their vacation at their summer cottage at Moira Lake, were Sunday afternoon callers of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Bridges.

Misses Margaret and Linda Moorcroft, Foxboro, were Sunday dinner guests at the home of Miss Joyce Stapley.

Gerald, Billy and Eddie Stapley spent last week with their grandmother, Mrs. Cyrus Summers.

Mr. and Mrs. Warren Harlow, of Stirling, called on Mr. and Mrs. Nelson Stapley last Monday evening.

Miss Marilyn Reid was a guest at the Shaw — Kelly wedding which was solemnized last Saturday in the Foxboro United Church.

Master Lloyd Clancy was among the members of Stirling J.O.L. who enjoyed a pleasant time at Bird's Beach, Oak Lake, last Friday evening. There was swimming and games for the juniors to enjoy, followed by a wiener roast and soft drinks.

Mrs. White Sr. has been visiting Mr. and Mrs. Charles White.

Mrs. Harry Clarke was among those who enjoyed the Stirling Horticultural Society bus trip to the Toronto Exhibition last Saturday.

Miss Marilyn Reid and her friend, Miss June White, are spending this week camping at Presqu'ile Provincial Park.

Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Clancy, in company with Mr. and Mrs. Bryce Philp, attended the C.N.E. in Toronto on Monday.

Lady Directors Make Plans For Stirling Fair

The Lady Directors of the Stirling Agricultural Society met recently to make final plans for the big day — Saturday, September 15th — when the Annual Stirling Fall Fair will once again be a district attraction.

Since the ladies organized in 1959, they have done much to improve the appearance of the building which houses the exhibits of special interest to women.

Special attention will be given this year towards displaying all exhibits to better advantage for public viewing.

The local Ranger group, under the direction of Mrs. M. Bell and Mrs. H. Chambers, will have a display of saleable novelties, stuffed toys, place cards, etc.

Misses Sharon Baker and Beth Cook will show samples from the work projects undertaken at the Rotary Recreational Centre during the summer months.

The Directors will be responsible for staffing and managing a Bingo Booth and also for a food sale in the main building.

Antiques Display

A new venture will be a display area, where antiques and unusual and interesting articles will be shown.

The Lady Directors work hard to make their section of the Fair worthwhile and hope that many more district women will co-operate by entering into competition in the various departments and by attending the Fair, Saturday, September 15th.

Be a Booster for your community and home town — Come to the Fair.

Government Is To Encourage Made-In Canada Handicrafts

Premier John Robarts has announced that the Ontario Government will sponsor next spring an exhibition of made in Ontario tourist souvenirs and handieraft.

The province will also hold a competition, open to both professional and amateur artists and designers, to encourage the production of new souvenirs characteristic of the province.

The two-fold project was endorsed by the Hon. Bryan L. Cathcart, Minister of Travel and Publicity and the Hon. Robert W. Macaulay, Minister of Economics and Development. Staging of the exhibition and of the competition will be the joint responsibility of the Departments of Travel and Publicity and Economics and Development. Mr. Robarts said it arose from recommendations made by the Tourist Industry Committee of the Ontario Economic Council.

Tourists visiting Ontario want souvenirs which are both made in, and characteristic of, our province," Mr. Robarts observed. "We have individuals and companies capable of making such souvenirs. We certainly have a million dollar demand for them. If, in this way, we can help bring together innovator, manufacturer and merchandiser, we will provide greater impetus both to domestic employment and to our rapidly expanding tourist industry."

"Our visitors will not only pay more for, but they will certainly appreciate more, souvenirs which are made by our own people and which identify and advertise our province through the very nature of their craftmanship," added Mr. Cathcart. "A tourist souvenir, properly designed and properly merchanized, is one of the best possible advertisements for our province abroad and also means more jobs at home."

Mr. Macaulay described the lack of Ontario-made souvenirs as a "major fabrication gap" in our multi-million-dollar tourist industry. "We are more than pleased with this recommendation of the Tourist Industry Committee and intend to give it every support," he said.

Site of the made-in-Ontario souvenir and handicraft exhibition will be announced shortly along with details of the design competitions, said Wm. H. Cranston, Chairman of the Tourist Industry Committee.

"It will not merely be a display but an actual sales market for the placing of orders," he explained. "The Department of Travel and Publicity has done considerable research on the souvenir and handicraft industry during the past year and we are confident that Ontario has hundreds of craftsmen in this field whose ideas are economically adaptable to larger production. Our native handicraft and souvenir business has grown rapidly since World War II. We merely hope we can give it some further assistance."

"Perhaps some day the time will come," Mr. Cranston concluded, "when at least half the souvenirs we sell to tourists visiting this province will bear the imprint "Crafted in Ontario'."

Consultant to the tourist committee in conjunction with the souvenir and handicraft exhibition and competition will be Thor Hansen, art director of the British American Oil Co. and outstanding authority in Canadian folk art and design.

Can A Fly See In All Directions At Same Time?

A fly cannot see in all directions at once, because one part of its eyes must lie against the fly's head and in that direction, at least, the fly cannot see. But it is true that the eyes of flies and of many oher insects, can see in far more directions at once than ours can. This is especially the case where the eyes are very rounded and bulging.

We must not suppose that this means clear vision at the same time in all directions; but it does mean that, while looking in one direction, the insect can get a hint of movement much farther round the corner than we can. The proper way of saying this is that their field of vision is very large, even though it does not quite amount to seeing "all ways at once."

The eye of the fly is made somewhat like a precious stone that has been cut into many little faces or facets. The number of these tiny facets on the eyes of insects is extraordinary. A male ant, for instance, may have 1,200 facets on each eye and the number on the eye of the dragon fly has been reckoned as high as 17 thousand. Eyes made in faces, or facets, are called compound eyes.

Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Carlie Petherick on the arrival of a daughter on Sunday. A sister for Vicki, Gina and Douglas.

Rally Day At Zion Church

Rally Day Service was held at Zion Church on Sunday afternoon with Mr. Aylmer Petherick, Superintendent of the Sunday School, assisting the Rev. G. Whitehorne in the combined service. This year the theme was "Hands that Heal in the Name of Christ."

In his remarks directed primarily to the children, Rev. Whitehorne stressed the usefulness of our hands to each individual and to the nations of the world who reach out for our open hands to help them physically and spiritually. What better way can we enlighten the lives of those less fortunate than through the joining of our hands in Christian service?

Misses Betty Lou Barnum, Rowena Kerr and Faye Petherick sang a hymn during the worship period.

Mount Pleasant

Friends here were deeply shocked to hear of the airplane accident on Saturday evening when Squadron Leader William Patrick Dall and his companion were killed near Napanee. He leaves to mourn his wife, the former Bernice Ryan, of the Fourth Concession of Rawdon and little daughter, Mary Kate. The Dalls have been residing in Nova Scotia.

COUNTY OF HASTINGS TENDERS FOR THE CONSTRUCTION OF SANITARY SEWERS FOR THE HOME FOR THE AGED IN BELLEVILLE, ONTARIO

TENDERS will be received by the Clerk-Treasurer of the County of Hastings, Pinnacle Street, Belleville, Ontario, until 4.00 p.m. on Thursday, September 13th, 1962, for the construction of sanitary sewers for the Home for the Aged in Belleville, Ont.

The work consists generally of the supplying of materials and equipment for, and the construction of approximately 2100 feet of 8 and 12-inch sanitary sewer and the demolition of four septic tanks.

Complete tender documents may be obtained from the Clerk-Treasurer, County of Hastings, Pinnacle Street, Belleville, or from Gore & Storrie Limited, Consulting Engineers, 980 Yonge Street, Toronto, Ontario, on payment of a deposit of $15.00 per set by cheque. The deposit will be refunded upon the return in good condition to the Engineers of the said plans and specifications within two weeks after the date the tenders are called.

Each tender must be accompanied by a tender deposit in the form of a certified cheque in the amount of 5 per cent of the total value of the tender and payable to the County of Hastings.

Tender documents may be studied without payment at, but may not be removed from, the Consulting Engineers' office, the office of the Clerk-Treasurer of the County of Hastings, Pinnacle Street, Belleville, or the Metropolitan Toronto Sewer and Watermain Contractors' Association, 1470 Don Mills Road, Don Mills, Ont.

Tenders are subject to a formal contract being prepared and executed. The County of Hastings reserves the right to reject any or all tenders and the lowest or any tender will not necessarily be accepted.

One of the chief functions of the Canadian Cancer Society is the education of the public to recognize cancer symptoms and appreciate the importance of early diagnosis and treatment. Large numbers of volunteers dedicate their time to this effort and each year about $500,000 or 16 per cent of the Society's budget is spent on the programme.

RETIRE FROM CBC RADIO

The world of broadcasting loses two of its most durable performers when Eric Vale and Mary Grannan retire this year from their regular work on CBC radio. Eric Vale is known to listeners of Leicester Square as "The Old Stager" and Mary Grannan is the writer of the children's programs, Maggie Muggins and Just Mary. Vale began in showbusiness 50 years ago in Vancouver with his comic recitations and songs reminiscent of the English music hall. Mary Grannan, who has been on CBC radio for 23 years, has had 26 children's books published in three countries.

CANADA DEPARTMENT OF AGRICULTURE

STAG BARBECUE

Small boys and "men-boys" delight no end in cooking over the coals and it's even more fascinating to them — particularly the small boys — if they can do so after the first evening star appears in the sky. So why not give your men folk a real treat and let them have a "stag" barbecue some evening while you take off to a movie or distant patio.

Of course you will leave all the food on-the-ready — and as everyone will want to chef his own — it should be the cook-in-a-minute kind, like hamburgers and hot dogs for the boys; small, boneless steaks for the men. The meat will be served between buns or rolls with thick slices of ripe tomato, rings of raw onion, dashes of catsup and dabs of mustard or relish. Bottled drinks will be set up in buckets of ice to stave off runs on the kitchen refrigerator. Cool wedges of watermelon will serve as the light ending to this happy time.

For the Hamburgers

Allow 1½ pounds of meat for every 6 burgers; mix well with 1 tablespoon Worcestershire sauce and 1½ teaspoons seasoning salt. Shape into 4 inch patties about an inch thick. Stack up with waxed paper between each layer and hold in refrigerator until barbecue time.

For the Hot Dogs

As the hamburgers and steaks will take up nearly all the cooking space on the grill, suggest to the boys that as they are already cooked, the hot dogs could be placed in boiling water, covered and set over the hot coals for 8 to 10 minutes until they are heated through.

For the Buns and Rolls

Have them split and wrapped in foil so that they may be heated on the edge of the grill, then they won't dry out or be in danger of burning.

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS

Here are some questions that people ask the Consumer Section, Canada Department of Agriculture, Ottawa, about home preservation of fruits and vegetables.

Question — Should vegetables be blanched before freezing?

Answer — Yes, it is most important to blanch vegetables for freezing in order to stop objectionable enzyme actions which cause serious loss of flavour, colour and texture in the frozen vegetable. The length of time for blanching or heating in order to inactivate these enzymes, depends on the kind of vegetable and ranges from 3 minutes for broccoli to 11 minutes for large ears of corn. Blanching times as given in reliable freezing books, such as Freezing Foods, which is available free from Information Division, Canada Department of Agriculture, Ottawa, are the results of careful research and should be carefully observed.

Question — How do you freeze corn?

Answer — For corn-on-the-cob select fresh picked corn. Remove the husks and silks and wash in cold water. Trim cobs to even lengths to fit containers. Blanch large ears for 11 minutes, medium ears for 9 minutes and small ears for 7 minutes. Chill quickly in very cold or ice water. Drain thoroughly and pack dry. Frozen corn-on-the-cob should be cooked 3 to 5 minutes before serving.

For whole kernel corn prepare corn as above; blanch 4 minutes. Chill quickly and cut kernels from the cob. Pack dry. Frozen whole kernel corn needs 4 to 5 minutes cooking before serving.

Question — How can I obtain a perfect seal on my jelly glasses? They always seem to "weep" after the paraffin is added.

Answer — Let jars stand until jelly is partially set. Pour on a thin layer of hot melted paraffin to completely cover the jelly and leave until hardened. Add a second layer of melted wax, rotating the jar so that it will cling to the glass and form a close seal. Cover and store in a cool dry place.

Usually an imperfect seal is caused by dribbling the jelly on the top edges of the inside of the jar. Even when this is wiped off, a tiny bit of syrup may remain making it impossible to get a perfect seal. So jelly jars should be filled very carefully leaving at least ¼ inch space at the top.

Convenience Foods A Boon

Dr. Gladys Vail of Perdue University, in her address "How Changing Knowledge of Foods Affects Us," pointed out facts and figures about some of the new convenience foods. Her remarks, directed to the Canadian Dietetic Association's annual meeting at Macdonald Institute, Guelph, were she said, applicable to homemakers too.

Dr. Vail said that whether convenience foods were satisfactory substitutes would depend entirely upon the consumer's personal standards. She spoke of the so-called "chicken pie" which frequently contains very little chicken. Home economists at Macdonald Institute agree with Dr. Vail when she says that it is possible to use convenience foods and yet retain the individuality of your own dishes. They suggest that you prepare your own chicken pie using canned chicken soup along with pieces of leftover chicken and fresh vegetables. This will bolster the flavour and save time.

With a home freezer or the freezing compartment of your refrigerator, you can easily and quickly freeze leftover meats and at the end of a week or two make up delicious pies.

Other ways they suggest that you may use convenience foods to save time are these: The use of frozen vegetables, commercial cake mixes topped with fresh berries and whipped cream, hot dogs grilled with bacon and cheese. There are many more you may use, but the main thing to remember is that convenience foods may be a boon to you, but your family appreciates your own cooking. So, dress up convenience foods with your own flair. Let them work for you, don't be a slave to a convenience package.

OF MANY THINGS

(By Ambrose Hills)

THE CBC FOREVER?

A tremendous battle is shaping up in the world of broadcasting.

The struggle is not between the CBC and its privately-owned competitors. Rather, it is between the CBC and the overall broadcasting authority, the Board of Broadcast Governors.

The BBG did not wish such a battle. Time after time, it has leaned over backwards to oblige the CBC. Never has it used its powers (which the CBC once wielded) to keep the CBC in line.

Yet it has been obvious for some while now that the CBC has been smarting over its loss of regulatory power. It fears, no doubt, that the independent type of judgment the BBG is able to make, will mean that CBC will be obliged, in the long run, to fashion itself to the public need rather than to the CBC ambitions.

A quarter of a century ago, it was thought that the CBC was needed. There was not much money available for broadcasting in those days. Canada's sparse population and vast size made it necessary for government money to be spent. In short, CBC was to fill the gaps which private broadcasters could not serve.

Many of us went along with this theory, believing that as the years passed and the population grew, the need for CBC would diminish. At the worst, the CBC champions then said, the cost of CBC would not be much more than a million dollars or so. Today it is costing more than a hundred million, and at the same time claims it is suffering a "revenue problem." It has shown no desire to have private broadcasters carry any share of the load; it never retrenches, it perpetually expands, and it devotes itself to commercial competition while looking down its Corporate nose at commercialism.

Why has the CBC been able to go its merry, costly way?

I think the answer is that CBC has produced a few very fine programs. Not many, mind you, considering the millions of dollars it spends. Yet on the strength of these, it has been able to get away with a scandalous amount of public tax money. It has become so powerful, politicians fear it and cater to it. Newspaper commentators, with ambitions to be seen on TV, are wary of challenging it. And now the BBG, it seems, goes into the ring reluctantly, and it, too, will very likely be brought to its knees.

It appears, from here, to be a case of The CBC Forever. So, Mr. Taxpayer, you'd better be prepared to fork over.

Health and Safety Tips

According to the American Medical Association, slightly more than half of all people in the United States have something wrong with their eyes.

Some 40 per cent of all Americans wear glasses. Eight million sets of contact lenses have been sold. Almost a million are blind.

The Health League of Canada reports that the major factor contributing to this situation is the fact that millions of people neglect their eye health. Many of us don't know what's good or bad for eyes. Others know but ignore it. And most of us have some ideas about eye care that just aren't true.

Most ophthalmologists (physicians specializing in eyes) now agree that there is no such thing as eye strain. There is eye fatigue, however, and this is what sometimes occurs when you spend long hours watching television. It isn't serious.

Nothing, including wearing glasses, eating carrots or eye exercises, can cure nearsightedness. Glasses will improve vision but they will not correct the defect that causes nearsightedness. Children aren't likely to "outgrow" crossed eyes if left alone and some loss of sight might result if treatment is not provided.

Inflammation of the eye, often called "red eye," should be treated if it continues for more than a day or two. It might be caused by dust or an allergy and is not serious.

Or it might be an infection or a symptom of something more serious.

Glaucoma, a widespread condition causing slight impairment cannot be cured, but it can be treated and arrested. The prevalance of glaucoma among people who don't know they have it is alarming. For this reason regular eye examinations by a physician are important. Diagnosed early glaucoma can be treated and prevented from developing into serious impairment of vision.

Contact lenses have been greatly improved in recent years, but there still is a danger of a corneal scratches and possible infection. Some people can see better with contact lenses than with conventional glasses. The wearer of contact lenses should be especially careful to have regular examinations to make certain that everything is all right.

Children should have their first medical eye examination at the age of three to four years, unless something happens to indicate an even earlier checkup. Often problems discovered at an early age can be corrected or alleviated before they become too severe.

Cooking Comments

Outdoor barbecues are fun but they can be messy. The food specialist at Macdonald Institute, Guelph, recommend wrapping frankfurters in aluminum foil when barbecuing with a sauce. This prevents spilling and keeps the sauce in, for a fuller flavour.

Does your diet include a source of Vitamin A? Cantaloupe and yellow peaches rate high on the list of excellent sources. What a pleasant way to obtain a source of Vitamins!

Overcooking any vegetable is a poor kitchen practice, say foods and nutrition experts at Macdonald Institute, Guelph. Start the vegetables in boiling salted water. The longer the vegetables are cooked, the more the valuable mutrients will escape into the air and cooking water. Save the vegetable water for soups and vegetables.

To make tasty applesauce from the new crop of apples, wash, quarter, and core, simmer in a tightly covered saucepan. Sieve the tender apples through a strainer or colander and add sugar to taste. The Foods Department at Macdonald Institute, suggests leaving the skins on the apples for a more delicate pink shaded sauce.

STRATEGY FOR PARLIAMENT SESSION

(The Letter-Review)

An observer of the Ottawa scene reports that the Liberals are now planning their strategy for the session opening on September 27th and will come into the house fighting. Mr. Lester Pearson, he forecasts, will open the attack for the Liberals in the debate on the speech from the throne. He will condemn the present administration and move a vote of want of confidence. The Social Credit group, as the second largest in the house, will then probably move an amendment, and the NDP will move an amendment to the amendment.

With all the opposition parties thus expressing their lack of confidence in the government, it might appear that the session would close quickly, but political tactics do not work out in a logical manner. The fact that the Social Crediters and the NDP are ready to condemn the government does not imply that they will support each other or the Liberals in the form of censure that may be moved. Unless the opposition parties are agreed on forcing a new election, which none of their members can really afford, it is likely that they will either vote with the government or abstain from voting except on their own motions, and, after the debate on the speech from the throne has run its course, the house will settle down to business as usual.

It is said by some observers in Ottawa that the Conservatives are ready for an election at any time and the recent cabinet shuffle has been designed to give the ministry new faces, new strength and a fresh appeal. As minister of justice, Hon. Donald Fleming is not in such a controversial position as he was when he was minister of finance and those who have unfairly blamed him for Canada's current financial troubles are deprived of a target for their wrath. Mr. Fleming's successor, Mr. Nowlan, is new to the finance portfolio, but, if he gets the support that he is entitled to receive for sound financial policies, and if the country's economic position improves during his tenure of office, the change in portfolios may be represented to the voters as a wise move on the part of the government. In matters of finance Senator McCutcheon's ideas and experience should be valuable to the new minister.

AFTER THE DUES, NO RIGHTS

(St Catharines Standard)

Once upon a time — and most of us are too young to remember — labour unions concerned themselves with protecting the worker. Nowadays it would seem that unions are primarily interested in protecting themselves and safeguarding their huge assets represented by membership dues.

Sure, unions still fight employers, but the big battles waged these days are between union and union. There's the Steelworkers versus Mine-Mill and the SIU versus the CMU just to mention two.

To the average worker, these rivalries mean little. He realizes he has to pay dues to somebody and he'd like to be able to do so in peace and quiet. As often as not, however, the battle that rages above him succeeds in putting him out of work, and sometimes he ends up with a bloody nose to boot.

If every manufacturer were to fight for his markets, and if every politician were to fight for votes with the same methods some unions employ in fighting for membership dues, we'd have some real shambles.

POLITICS VERSUS FACTS

(Financial Post)

There are a number of questions about the government's so-called austerity programme which are puzzling people who have some idea of how things happen in Ottawa:

First. When were the civil servants who produced the list of tariff surcharges given their instructions?

Canada's tariff is one of the world's worst baffling and complex sets of protective measures — yet the list of surcharges on imports is a very major piece of work. The luxury taxes are well aimed and the whole tariff is cleverly skewed in favour of thousands of Canadian manufacturers while hurting as few as possible as little as possible.

Was the extremely complicated job of producing this list really done in the five days between the election and the announcements of the surcharges? Or did the list require perhaps weeks or months of careful work and discussion by experts?

Second. What facts did the government really have, in April and May, about the slowdown of the capital investment inflow into Canada — the prime cause of the pressure on the Canadian dollar? As we pointed out last week, official figures about this weren't published until late May or early June.

It would be naive to expect any government in power to go to the hustings with messages of gloom and doom. But the evidence suggests that while the political gladiators were telling the voters that all was merry and bright, the back room civil servants were discussing, with the knowledge of their political superiors a number of the very harsh facts of life.

In the European Common Market countries labour costs average $1.00 an hour, including all fringe benefits, and the work-week is nearly 45 hours — as compared to more than $2.00 an hour in Canada for a 41-hour week.

Some 50,000 ideas have been submitted by employees to GM of Canada since its Suggestion Award Plan was begun in 1943.

NEWS FOR THE BUSY FARMER

Furrow and Fallow By Fairbairn

It's over a month since there has been any news from the Ontario Provisional Milk Producers Marketing Board, and then we heard only that it had held a meeting. We suggested in the column some time ago that the board 'lay it on the line' but they have not even uttered an official sound. We know this is the busy season on the farm but there is some urgency about getting on with the development of a plan since producers in this province have only till next May to 'tidy their house' before the federal government takes some fairly drastic action to reduce surpluses.

This may be news to some producers, but it certainly is nothing new to their leaders who rushed down to Ottawa when the dairy policy for the current year was first announced last spring. The original policy was changed after representations by Ontario producers who received some support from the provincial department of agriculture. Since then the producers' provisional board has announced a proposed overall milk marketing plan, but apparently little has been done to acquaint producers with it.

We have had an opportunity to talk to a lot of milk producers at the CNE, both at the dairy shows and the Dairy Princess competition where your columnist acts as host. There is an obvious and general lack of knowledge about the proposed plan, but also a genuine interest in it. The provisional board should take advantage of this interest — they should take immediate steps to instigate a complete information programme. In fact, since we are being critical, let's be frank and say they should have done it long ago.

The board has not met since the last week of July, and at this writing there is no date decided for their next meeting, except that it might be the end of the first week of September. There had been talk of a vote this fall, but the board surely knows it would require at least three months to put together the machinery for such a vote and much longer to organize and execute any plan to assure that every milk producer in the province knew what he was voting on. Spring would appear to be the earliest possible time for a vote which will give the board very little opportunity to accomplish anything before the next federal dairy year, which begins May 1st, 1963.

This is a producer plan — they have made this very plain — and the government has also made it clear that agricultural department officials have had no hand in its formation, other than providing technical and legal advice and assistance when requested. It will be up to the producer organizations to tell their members about it and to come out strongly in favour of it if they want any vote to approve it.

What are the alternatives to this marketing plan? Without an overall plan, most producer leaders forsee chaos. Certainly, current surpluses will either have to be curbed or the economic structure of the dairy industry will collapse. It's doubtful that any federal government will continue assistance to producers at present levels unless the producers show some signs of helping themselves. So, on the one hand there is chaos and/or drastic federal action as one alternative. The other is provincial legislation without producer participation. Is there much choice?

Today's Tidbit

In the Toronto milkshed in the last eight years, milk production has increased 40% (over 200 million pounds per year), while the number of producers has declined 28% (from 3,995 to 2,888).

WEED OF THE WEEK SERIES

BARBERRY AND BUCKTHORN HARBOR GRAIN RUSTS

The annual losses suffered by farmers from leaf and stem rust diseases of cereal grains could be greatly reduced by the eradication of two shrubs — common barberry and European buckthorn. The Field Crops Branch, Ontario Department of Agriculture reports that common barberry is the worst offender because it carries the stem rust disease which is so injurious to all cereal grains. This shrub should not be confused with the ornamental Japanese barberry which is harmless. It is easy to distinguish between the two. The offending common barberry is a spiny, graceful shrub from 6 to 12 feet high, with arching branches and grey outer bark. The leaves are bright green, smooth, somewhat oval, from 1 to 3 inches long, and have saw-toothed edges. The spines on the branches usually are three-pronged. The flowers are small, yellow and borne in long, drooping clusters. The berries are oblong, red and sour. The Japanese barberry is more spreading and usually no more than 4 to 5 feet tall. The outer bark is reddish-brown, the leaves are green or red with smooth edges, and the spines are usually single. The flowers and fruits are borne singly or in twos, threes or fours and the berries are shorter and more plump than those of common barberry

European Buckthorn carries leaf or crown rust disease of oats. It was once planted as an ornamental shrub and now grows wild in many parts of Ontario. It grows from 6 to 18 feet tall. Many of the small branches end in a blunt thorn. The leaves are oval, dark green, 2 to 3 inches long and remain green in the fall after the leaves of other shrubs have faded. The veins of the leaves turn and point toward the leaf-tip rather than the edges. The black, round, bitter berries are borne in clusters.

Eradication of barberry and buckthorn can be an arduous and expensive task. Grants are available through county councils and from the Ontario Department of Agriculture for the purchase of chemical brush killers to be used in the eradication of these two shrubs. Many counties have applied for these grants and are now conducting county-wide barberry and buckthorn control programmes. Large hedges may be removed with a bulldozer or cut and the stumps sprayed, while still fresh, with commercial mixtures of 2,4-D and 2,4,5-T called "Brushkillers" in fuel oil. Spray to soak all stumps and exposed roots. This treatment is effective at any time of the year as long as snow cover does not prevent the spray contacting the stumps. Scattered shrubs may be killed the same way, or treated with dry sodium chlorate mixtures, spread at the base of each shrub.

Caution

Sodium chlorate is poisonous to animals so treated areas should not be grazed until all traces of the chemical have disappeared into the soil. When using these chemicals, always follow the directions on the container very carefully. For further information, consult Ontario Department of Agriculture Publication No. 75 — "Guide to Chemical Weed Control," available from your Agricultural Representative.

Do We Need Fat On Our Beef?

The question is often raised by both consumer and livestock producers, do we need fat on our beef?

The answer is "Yes, we do need some fat, but not a lot of fat on our beef," according to Dr. R. H. Ingram of the Ontario Agricultural College's meat laboratory.

The amount of fat necessary for greater palatability of beef depends to some extent on the cooking method. In cooking pot roasts, swiss steak, or stew, only a small amount of fat is desirable. But when cooking a roast in an open pan in a dry oven, or broiling steaks, a moderate amount of fat is necessary for a juicy and flavourful product.

It has been proven by controlled research that a moderate amount of fat is necessary to preserve and protect the meat while it hangs in the cooler to tenderize for about ten days. During this process, called "aging," some flavour development occurs, as well as the tenderizing.

It has also been demonstrated by taste panels that beef with some fat mixed through the lean, called "marbling" is juicier than unmarbled beef. Also, a moderate amount of this fat mixed through the lean tends to improve the flavour of the lean. So, even if we trip the visible fat from the lean on our plate, the contribution made by the fat is still there, in the lean for us to enjoy.

The meat manager at the retail store knows this, that is why he prefers to buy for his customers the moderately fatter beef carcasses in the Canada Choice and Good grades. In addition to a higher price per pound for the carcass, he must trim some of the external fat in order to make the cuts more saleable. His customers want to buy lean cuts of palatable beef.

The meat packing plant, in turn, will pay the livestock producer more for moderately well finished cattle that will grade Good or Choice. However, neither the packer nor the retailer want very fat cattle because more fat must be trimmed, and this excess does not contribute to the eating quality of the meat.

It costs the cattle producer much more to feed for fattening than for production of lean. Some cattle, particularly those of dairy breeding, do not deposit fat as readily as other. It doesn't pay the producer to try to finish this type of cattle. The beef breeds have been developed over the years to deposit fat most efficiently. To produce the best eating beef most economically, the feeder of beef cattle must judge the time for marketing accurately to insure enough fat covering, but not too much. Overfat, wasty cattle are not worth as much to the packing plant or the retailer, reminds Dr. Ingram.

Some fat is needed on beef cattle in order to supply consumers with palatable meat. Consumers like tender, juicy, and flavourful beef, and there is no substitute for fat, in moderate amounts, to produce this kind of product.

Dairy Cows Need Plenty of Water

Did you know that dairy cows need more water per pound of body weight than any other farm animal? Ontario Department of Agriculture specialists say that one reason for this is that milk contains about 87 per cent water.

The cows also need water to maintain their normal body temperature. Because of the large amount of water that a cow may require, it is almost impossible for her to satisfy this need if allowed to drink only once or twice a day. It is important therefore, to have water available at all times.

When a cow doesn't get enough water, one of her first reactions is to decrease her milk production; that's why it is so important that dairy cows get all the water they want when they want it. The ideal water supply is one that is clean, free from contamination, and easily accessible to the herd.

Plenty of shade in the pasture is important too. By helping your cows to keep cool with adequate shade and water, you can help avoid the drop in milk production and put a larger milk cheque in your pocket.

Exhibiting At Horticultural Shows

If you are a keen gardener, the chances are that you will want to show some of your products at the local Fall Fair.

It may seem like a simple thing to choose a good sample from your garden which you hope will win a prize. However, unless you know what to look for and then how to display it, you are unlikely to be one of the lucky winners, report horticulturists with the Ontario Department of Agriculture.

To get information on showing and judging, obtain Publication 34, "Horticultural Judging Standards" which is published by the Ontario Department of Agriculture.

This publication will give you many helpful tips, and will let you know what the judge will be looking for when he looks at your exhibit.

Changes In Migratory Bird Regulations Will Interest Duck Hunters

The Hon. J. W. Spooner in announcing the duck seasons in Ontario says that hunters will be interested in the changes in the Migratory Bird Regulations for 1962. Most hunters were concerned during the past winter that there would be some very drastic changes in the seasons and bag limits in Ontario due to the decrease in the numbers of waterfowl available for the hunters and to the reduction in the numbers of some species breeding on western breeding grounds. The seasons and bag limits have not been changed drastically but do recognize some of the species whirh are low in numbers and others which have increased in numbers.

The season in the northern district which is that portion of the Province north of the No. 17 Highway between Mattawa and Spragge and a line from No. 17 Highway in Spragge to the International Boundary north of Cockburn Island will be from September 15th to December 15th.

The season in the central district which is that portion of Ontario south of the northern district and east of the western boundary of Simcoe and Peel counties will be from September 22nd to December 15th.

The season in the southern district which is that portion of the Province west of the westerly boundary of Simcoe and Peel counties will be from 11.00 a.m. E.S.T. on October 6th to December 15th, except that in Essex County the goose season will not be open until November 1st and will extend to December 31st.

The bag limits on ducks, geese, rails, coots, gallinules, snipe and woodcock remain the same with some noticeable exceptions. The daily bag limit of five ducks provides that two of the ducks may be wood ducks, but none may be canvasbacks or redheads. The possession limit of ten provides that four of the possession limit may be wood ducks but none may be canvasback or redhead.

Because of the drastic decreases in the numbers of canvasback and redhead, practically all agencies throughout the United States and Canada have recommended that there be no season on these two species in 1962.

The wood duck, on the other hand, has appeared to become more abundant in eastern Ontario and the possession limit which was two in 1961 has been increased to four in 1962.

Although reports from the western provinces indicate that waterfowl numbers are still low in the major production areas, in Ontario the production of waterfowl during the current year has been excellent in northwestern Ontario and appears to have been above normal in southern Ontario. We can therefore expect to have a waterfowl season similar to last year with average hunting in most areas and a noticeable reduction in the numbers of ducks in only a few localities.

New Stamp Coming Out August 31st

A new postage stamp marking the opening of the Trans-Canada Highway will be issued Auguse 31st, not on September 4th as previously announced, the post office department said.

The switch is because official opening ceremonies at Rogers Pass in British Columbia have been moved from September 4th to September 3rd which is Labour Day.

Post offices are not open on Labour Day and the issue will go out on the previous full business day, Friday, August 31st.

Timely Tips

Many people suffer from strained backs because they lift objects improperly. Make sure that you have good footing; get a good grip; bend your knees, not your back; keep the load close to you; and get help if the load is too heavy or awkward, say farm safety specialists with the Ontario Department of Agriculture.

Seedings which go into dry soil in late August must depend on September rains to become established. Field crop specialists at the Ontario Agricultural College say that it may not be wise to plan the hay and pasture programme for next year on the possibility of rain. Farmers should not depend too much on these seedings for next year's basic needs.

Teach your children to recognize poison ivy so that they can avoid it when on picnics, camping, or at the cottage. If you can't tell poison ivy from all the other wild plants, get someone to show you how, and get a copy of Publication 243, "Poison Ivy," from the Information Branch, Ontario Department of Agriculture, Parliament Buildings, Toronto, Ontario.

FAST BUCK SALESMEN

(Meaford Express)

Citizens are again warned against fast buck salesmen who are hitting small towns in hope of a quick kill on sale of phony goods and services. It pays to investigate before you deal with strangers, who want to save you money, because in the end the deal would have been much cheaper with a local merchant. It is easier to be safe than sorry.

Seat Belts Compulsory In U.K.

John Hay, parliamentary secretary to the Transport Ministry in England, announced in London early in July that the British government would require all new automobiles to be fitted with seat belts for the driver and front seat passenger. Since compulsion to fasten the belts was considered unenforceable by law, the legislation would demand installation of the belts only.

Mr. Hay told a House of Commons committee that the move resulted from statistical evidence that seat belts could reduce injuries in road crashes by about half.

Wm. John McGowan Dies In Belleville General Hospital

An aged and well known resident of Stirling, in the person of William John McGowan, died in Belleville General Hospital on Tuesday, following a lengthy illness.

A native of Huntingdon Township, he was the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Wm. McGowan and was in his 82nd year. He attended White Lake School and as a young man learned the tinsmith and plumbing trade in Madoc.

He came to Stirling some fifty-four years ago and was employed by McGee & Legrow and later by J. C. McGee for 37 years. He was a good citizen taking a keen interest in community affairs.

For several years he served as a member of the Stirling Volunteer Fire Brigade. He also was a valued member of Stirling Citizens' Band and in religion was a member of the Pentecostal Church.

Surviving are two sons, Stewart McGowan, of Trenton, and Donald, of Dawson Creek, B.C.; three sisters, Mrs. Hugh McMullen, Ivanhoe; Mrs. Arthur Harrington, Stirling, and Mrs. Edward Holland, Trenton, and one brother, Cecil McGowan, Belleville; and seven grandchildren. His wife, the former Edith Stewart, predeceased him in 1957.

The funeral service was held today (Thursday) at 2 p.m. at the Duffin Funeral Home, with Rev. Robt. Donnan officiating.

Interment Stockdale Cemetery.

Speed and death are two words that always travel hand in hand on the highways.

LEONARD PREST

Leonard Prest, R.R. 2, Holloway, died suddenly at his late residence on Saturday, August 25th.

Born in Sidney Township, he was the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. John Prest and was in his 81st year. He had resided his lifetime in the district and was well and favourably known. He was a member of Holloway United Church.

He leaves to mourn his wife, the former Nora Broadworth, two sisters, Misses Mary and Nellie Prest, and one brother, Charles, all of Holloway R.R. 2. Two brothers, John and William predeceased him.

The funeral service was held at his late residence on Monday at 2 p.m., with Rev. Robt. Reid officiating.

The pallbearers were Messrs. Walter and Harry Danford, Douglas Prest, Lorne Reid, Geo. Prest and Leonard Sweet.

Interment Guffin's Cemetery.

Huntingdon Twp. Council Meeting

Huntingdon Township Council met at the Township Hall, Ivanhoe, on Monday, August 6th.

A grant of $50.00 was given to the Madoc Agricultural Society.

Road voucher No. 8 for $1944.50 was ordered paid; also the following bills:

Welfare, $159.96; North Hastings Review, $8.00; Madoc Agricultural Society, $20.00.

A supplementary Road Bylaw for $1000.00 was passed to cover the cost of installing culverts on Concessions 4, 5 and 6.

Council adjourned and will meet again on September 3rd at 8 p.m.

Campbellford Band Placed Second

Campbellford Citizens' Band, under the leadership of Robert Blakely, won first class honours and placed second in Class 3 competition at the Canadian National Exhibition last Thursday.

The section under which the Campbellford Band entered is open to bands from towns and villages with up to 5,000 population and is restricted to 28 playing members. We understand the town of Hanover in west central Ontario stood first in the competition. —Campbellford Herald.

The Good Driver

DIMWIT DRIVING

It is self-evident that many traffic accidents are the result of stupidity. Newspaper reports of tragedies often reveal evidence of utter folly: Teenager drivers who try to switch cars while driving down hill, side by side; men so befuddled by drink that they speed for miles down the wrong side of a divided highway; young lives lost as the result of playing "chicken."

The best drivers are usually clever people, according to a study by Professor Hans Eysench, head of the Psychological Department of London University. Reckless driving is not only stupid in itself — it is often the sign of a person of below-average intelligence.

Tests proved, he said, that people with an intelligence quotient of 80 (the average is between 100 and 110) had many more accidents than people with a higher IQ. He felt that considerable caution should be shown before granting licences to the dullest 20 per cent of the population.

Dull-witted people prefer to conceal their deficiency, as a rule. But when driving, they often advertise it, blatantly.

Perhaps the standard of driving on the roads today would rise if society as a whole treated bad driving as a manifestation of sub-normal intelligence. Too many people glorify reckless, aggressive behaviour behind the wheel. To some minds, to drive dangerously and selfishly is to show courage, and strength of character.

This sort of "courage" never impresses those who have to deal with the aftermath of a traffic crash — police, ambulance attendants, distraught relatives. Whether or not brains and good driving always go together, says the Ontario Safety League, there is no doubt that recklessness is always a mark of stupidity.

ALL THE NEWS

A newspaper had not been able to print any sensational news for weeks, when during an electrical storm a live wire fell across Main Street. Everyone feared to go near it. The editor sent out two reporters. One to touch the wire and the other to write the story.

CHILD CHATTER

"Me slept with daddy last night," the little girl excitedly told her kindergarten teacher.

"I slept with daddy last night," the teacher corrected.

"Then," said the child in surprise, "You must have sneaked in after me went to sleep."
